BROWNS TAKE SECOND PLACE

Many Teams Play Double Games; Yankees Lose Two Tilts

By United Press

Double-headers were dished up for the fans of both major leagues Wednesday after rain had caused postponement of several scheduled games this week.

By taking both ends of the double bill with Boston, the Philadelphia Phillies went into a tie with the Braves for fourth place in the National League. The scores were 6 to 2 and 12 to 4. Six Boston pitchers were hammered in the two games, while Benge and Willoughby held their opponents safe at all times.

Giants Break Even

The New York Giants and the Brooklyn Dodgers broke even, the Dodgers taking the first game 2 to 2 and the Giants the second, 7 to 4 in ten innings.

Pittsburgh had an easy time with the Cincinnati Reds, winning the first game of a long series, 11 to 2.

Browns Beat Sox

The St. Louis Browns went into second place in the American by defeating the Chicago White Sox, 7 to 3. It was the third consecutive defeat for the Sox. Urban Faber was knocked off the mound in the third, and Adkins, who succeeded him, was little more effective.

The league leading Philadelphia Athletics slaughtered the Boston Red Sox by turning 16 hits into as many runs, while Grove held the visitors to seven hits and two runs.

Senators Trim Yanks

Washington's Senators broke their losing streak by taking two games from the Yankees, 10 to 2 and 3 to 2. Three Yank hurlers were unable to stop the slugging Senators in the first game. The second contest was hard fought and was won in the ninth inning on singles by Braxton, Myer and Ruel.

At Detroit the Cleveland Indians were victorious over the Tigers, 7 to 4, through the good pitching of Walter Miller and a strong batting attack headed by Eddie Morgan and Joe Sewell.

KID CHOCOLATE WINS DECISION

LaBarbara Loses Unpopular Decision to Cuban Negro Boy

BY GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK COLISEUM, May 22. (UP)—Kid Chocolate, Cuban negro, won a 10-round decision from Fidel La Barba of California, former flyweight champion, before a crowd of 18,000 here tonight. Chocolate weighed 121. La Barba 120½.

The decision was unpopular, the crowd standing around the ring to protest. The fight was close either way, but La Barba's sensational last-round finish which had Chocolate retreating around the ring, won him an edge in the United Press score. La Barba was given five rounds, Chocolate four, with one even.

Vote 2 to 1

Referee Lou Magnolia and Judge Charles R. Mathison gave the decision to Chocolate, while Judge George Kelly voted for a draw.

Chocolate landed the harder punches, almost upsetting the Californian with rights to the chin in the fourth, seventh and ninth. However, on each occasion Chocolate permitted La Barba to recover and take the offensive away from him.

La Barba Rallies

La Barba, who entered the ring a 6 to 5 favorite in the betting, carried the first three rounds, as Chocolate had no defense for the California boy's left hooks to the head and body.

Chocolate began to find himself in the fourth round, when a lightning right to the head had La Barba momentarily in distress.

The fifth was even, but Chocolate won the sixth and almost floored La Barba early in the seventh. La Barba, however, rallied. He had the Cuban on the run during the latter part of the seventh and was punishing him with both fists at the bell.

La Barba Carries Fight

Light left jabs to the head mixed with occasional rights to the same place gave Chocolate the edge in the next two rounds. But La Barba earned a wide margin in the tenth round, pummeling the Cuban almost at will.

La Barba carried the fight to Chocolate in almost every found, and despite Chocolate's advantage of three inches in height and reach, landed the most punches.

In the early rounds La Barba scored heavily with his left hook to the body and head.

BELLS' LEAD CUT ONE GAME

Beavers Outplay Angels But Loose 7 to 5; Hulvey Stars

SAN FRANCISCO, May 22. (UP)—A concerted drive of three teams to decrease the margin by which San Francisco's Missions have gained first place of the Pacific Coast League was entirely successful today.

The Los Angeles Angels, San Francisco Seals and Oakland nine were victorious while the Missions lost, thus bringing the second place Angels within seven games of the leaders, while the Seals and Oaks were nine games behind instead of ten, as they had been.

The sixth inning was the crucial point of Oakland's 5 to 3 victory over the Missions. In that frame Oakland broke a one to one tie with two runs and hung on to that lead.

Los Angeles had to make two runs in the ninth inning to beat Portland, 7 to 5. The Angels had scored five runs in the second inning, but Portland tied it up with four runs in the fourth and fifth innings. The Angels were outhit and played more erratic ball but made every hit count for a run.

The Seals and Seattle each had ten hits but San Francisco had little trouble in winning, 6 to 1.

"Hank" Hulvey, Hollywood pitcher, was individual star of the circuit, holding the Sacramento Senators to three hits and shutting them out so the Sheiks might win, 7 to 0.
