Aimee Upset By Dave's Suit; Telegram Sent From Steamer Asking Note Of Reassurance

LOS ANGELES, July 18, (AP)—A possibility that Aimee Semple McPherson-Hutton may obtain the divorce decree in the suit filed against her by Davis Hutton was foreseen today.

Jerome Mayo, attorney for Hutton, who sued the evangelist on grounds of mental cruelty, said it was possible that Hutton would allow his wife to obtain the decree if she desired to do so and no complications developed.

There was an indication that a quiet ending to the suit was desired.

Aimee Amazed

From mid-ocean the wife of the corpulent baritone wirelessed that reports of his filing suit for divorce were "preposterous, unbelievable."

Angelus Temple, her evangelistic enterprise, expressed a restrained surprise, tempered by an evident coldness toward Hutton. Rolph McPherson, her son, was incensed over Hutton's charge of mental cruelty in his divorce complaint.

Reassurance Asked

But the overtones in the welter of emotional reactions carried Mrs. McPherson-Hutton's plea for word from her husband that reports of his legal action were untrue. She sent him this cable from the vessel City of Havre as she coursed home from Paris:

"Sweetheart: Reassure me your confidence." It was signed, "Wife."

Hutton, wary, suspicious, evidently resentful of what he characterized as intrigue and counter-intrigue at the temple edifice in Aimee's absence, remained tight-lipped. Once, late yesterday, he started to reply to his wife's message, but thought better of the impulse.

"This may be something like that baby hoax cablegram," he said tersely. "She may be wireless-ing in an entirely different vein tomorrow. Guess I'll wait and see how she feels about it all in another day."

POLICE SKEPTIC OVER KIDNAPING

PORTLAND, Ore., July 18, (AP)—State police and city detectives moved in today to scan with more careful attention the details of a reputed abduction reported to them yesterday by the Rev. R. E. Close, superintendent of the Oregon Anti-Liquor League.

Close told police yesterday he had been kidnaped by two masked men who entered his home shortly after midnight, bound him and threw him in the back of an automobile and headed southward on the west side Pacific highway. The men said they were members of "the Chicago Six," Close declared, and they demanded $12,000 from the Anti-Liquor League.

UNDERSELLING THREAT ALARMS WHEAT MARKET

CHICAGO, July 18, (AP)—A big shock to friends of higher prices came today from reports that Argentine was offering to ship wheat to New York and undersell domestic grain.

Despite assertions that the United States government would likely intervene with measures to prevent wheat imports into this country, prices turned sharply downward from new record high quotations, including sales of wheat as high as $1.25⅛ per bushel.

Sensational gyrations of the barley market over a range of 19 cents were associated in some quarters with prohibition repeal elections in Alabama and Arkansas, but appeared more nearly related to an accumulation of buying orders for barley in the hands of a single broker, and to a simultaneous temporary dearth of offerings.

Wheat closed nervous, ⅞c to 1⅛c under yesterdays finish; corn, 1⅛c to 2⅛c down; oats, ⅛c to ⅞c off; rye and barley showing gains respectively of 1⅛c to 2⅞c and 7⅞c to 7⅞c, and provisions unchanged to 15c higher.

The United States reclamation service reports no precipitation for the 24 hours ending at 5 p. m. Monday; 9.57 for the season, 11.76 normal; 11.20 last year. The season's maximum 100 on May 10.

NEW STRENGTH SEEN ON MART FOR PORTLAND

PORTLAND, July 18, (AP)—Extreme strength was suggested in the market for butter, with continued decrease in churning operations in the Pacific Northwest and with low operation mark of the season indicated in the South.

On the open market there has been a firm tone for cube offerings with premiums reported over the produce exchange generally offered and maintained.

Butterfat values are very firmly quoted.

Market prices on eggs continued to show extreme strength for tip-top quality, but others were indicating a rather wide spread again. This appeared due to the withdrawals from Storage.

Owing to their quality as well as supply, local new potatoes were rapidly taking the market from the Central Washington stock. This week was expected to end shipments from there.
