Cap McEwan Signs As Pro Coach

Ex-Oregon Leader Named Head Man for Brooklyn in National League. Interrupted Football Career Resumed. Kerasick Gets Bid for Hawaiian Tour.

Captain John J. McEwan, the high West Point star who did little exceptional coaching at the University of Oregon, won't let himself be forgotten or turned completely out of the football world. Cap's very personality to accept obscurity and the will strong support, for his ability will enable him a figure in sports indefinitely.

This is Captain McEwan's coaching record for the last few years:

West Point, assistant coach. Promoted.

West Point, head coach. Entire resignation after four years of service.

University of Oregon, head coach four years. Resigned under pressure before contract expired.

Holy Cross college, three years. Resigned under pressure before contract expired.

McEwan was quickly used out of the football world but fell when he got Holy Cross in miscoaches. He permitted himself to get into some sort of unfortunate dispute with a western college—and lost. Apparently it was the same proposition he would have encountered at Oregon, but Cap decided to go after the western Pill Stewart.

After this trouble nothing was heard of Captain McEwan through the ordinary press channels until Wednesday when it was announced from New York city he had been named head coach of the Brooklyn Dodgers.

* * *

Cap between the second much from the Pacific Coast conference to talk up to the minds of professional football. He actually money from Oregon State, John Paul Schlosser, has become head coach of the Chicago bears in the pro league, and perhaps these two will once more air their collegiality before this coming season is over.

* * *

Cap, as head coach of the Brooklyn club, has found his fortune with a youngster from West Point, the famous Chris "Red" Cagle. Cagle announced this week he had joined with John Kelleh, former Kentucky star, in purchasing the Brooklyn franchise. The amount of cash involved totalled $35,000.

* * *

McEwan should do well in professional football. His aggressive personality and unexcelled individuality refused to blend with collegiate atmosphere. He is one coach who simply can't keep himself out of trouble.

McEwan might move through a season in harmony with his employer, but it wouldn't last. Personally a hard-to-work fellow and usually it was no secret it couldn't be patched.

Well, here's luck to a fine coach in a new job. Where the rules aren't so tight.

Bulletinette: Just watch the way some of these players, from the coast drift back to play for McEwan.

Louie Polo, Klamath sportsman, is willing to let the world know as Kerasick still is one of the most popular wrestlers in the west. Kerasick, a veteran, has again been invited to wrestle in the Hawaiian Islands.

The invitation probably will include a tour through Australia.

Kerasick is stronger in these invitations. He's been a healthy attraction in Hawaii and in Australia for many years.

BOSTON BRAVES DEFEAT CARDS

Second Place Team Prepares for Series With Giants

By Orlo Robertson
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Rapidly getting into a position where their six-game series to be played in four days with the New York Giants a week hence, and regrettably be called "crucial," the Boston Braves trailed the league leading by only 4½ games.

While the Giants, "regulars" with other teams of the National league, were being rained out for the third straight day, the Braves Wednesday chalked up their 57th comeback victory at the expense of the St. Louis Cardinals, winning 4 to 3.

Berger Active Again

Wally Berger, through-all outfielder, was the big wheel. He blasted out two clouts, three, the first and 24th of the season, and they accounted for all of the Braves' runs. They also were his runs up to Chuck Klein in the battle for home run honors in the National league.

The victory at the Polo grounds added another Southpaw leader to the many already on the Giants' schedule. The Giants now are now scheduled to play six tilts and 19 games altogether against their principal rivals in the next 11 days. The pennant fancy for today's game with the Cardinals.

Southern Gets

In the American league, the Washington Senators gained a half game on the New York Yankees, increasing their margin to eight full games. While the Senators were dividing a doubleheader with the Detroit Tigers, the world's champions dropped a close decision to the Cleveland Indians.

Tommy Bridges, the Tigers' brilliant right-hander, pitched and lacked Detroit to a 2 to 1 decision in the first game, but in the nightcap the Senators stopped Fred Marberry, and his successors, of the visitors, and to win 9 to 2. Willis Hudlin, the league leader, in seven, scattered three. Bridges drove in the first run with a single, and then, with the score tied in the ninth, connected with a triple that led to the doubleheader tally. Alvin Crowder opposed Bridges.

Chief Brown outpitched Charlie Ruffing to give the Indians their 2 to 1 victory over the Yankees. He scattered the Yankee six safe hits while his mates were busy in Ruffing for the two runs in the fourth, putting them together with two hits on balls and a double by Hilmon Gehringer and Earlier Averill's single.

Two great pitching performances, on the part of Red Ruffing and Ed Durham gave the White Sox two victories over the Red Sox, and accounted Boston's latest attempt to slow games. Jones held the Sox to three hits in the opener, while Durham pitched four-hit ball in the second affair. He was deprived of a shutout only when Red Ross and Al Simmons, who got only one hit in seven times at bat, scored after two were out in the ninth.

ANGELS LEAD WAY ON COAST

L. A. Nosses Out Seattle In 10-Inning Game; Seals Beat Ducks

By Associated Press

Given a helping hand by three second division clubs, Los Angeles moved a little more comfortably as it passed the coast league by a game and a half margin.

The Angels helped themselves a bit, too, Thursday, outlasting Seattle, 6-5, in a 10-inning tussle while second division clubs were downing Hollywood, Portland and Sacramento.

Brown Costly

Chuck Ellsworth, Indian second baseman, dropped Gene Lillard's Texas leaguer in the 10th inning at Seattle to let Arnold Rain go home with the winning Los Angeles run. Rain scored three runs and drove in two more with a double and three singles. The Pitchfork's four-hacker accounted for four more runs. Dazy Vance, who had Wyatt Walker outdueled to hold the Indians to 10 hits.

Oakland joined Hollywood's pennant hopes with a 13-4 trouncing, with Lefty Kleinke getting five singles and Martin Fenin a pair of doubles and a single. The Indians walloped Frank Shellenback and Archie Campbell for 15 safeties. Ed Walsh Jr., Gene Caloia and Roy Lanier were used in the Oakland second to keep the starts in check.

Seals Beat Ducks

Lee Stine pitched 6-hit pitching as Portland to give San Francisco an 8-2 win and sew up the series. In addition, the Seals hung far behind in three runs, with a double and single. Angelo Galan's two doubles and single led the 14-hit assault on Burgin, Jacobs and Wilson. Three wild pitches by Wilson and two Portland boots helped the Seals to five unearned runs.

First baseman Babe Dahlgren of the Missions went wild with his bat at San Francisco as the Bees outlapped Sacramento, 11-10. Dahlgren slashed a homer and two singles to lead the Missions to a sensational rally that carried home in victory after they had trailed the Senators 10-0 in the early innings.

Brown Nearing Weight Limit For Main Event

Max Brown, laboring through long hours of training, approached his weight limit Thursday afternoon in preparation for his main event fight against Joe Calder, Seattle Filipino. Brown was confident he would be at 126 pounds by noon Saturday and enter the ring that night ready to defeat the northerner.

The odds were shifting today. Brown, an original favorite, was a slight underdog following Calder's weight gymnastic. Brown, however, has not lost a fight in the Legion hall ring, while Calder had nothing better than a draw with Paul Thill.

Jack Hilliard and Cecil Jordan, a negro from California, were ending training for the semi-winding.
