Sporting News

BOXING | BASEBALL | TENNIS | GOLF | RACING | FISHING | WRESTLING

Braucher's Sport Gossip

By BILL BRAUCHER
Press Writer

HARROLD (Hollywood) The man who threw hard to call "Speed Weaver" has turned out what is undoubtedly the greatest baseball scheme ever dreamed. And when you look over the product you get a lot of information. It is the case of "Who's Who" is so hard to understand she can hardly spell the letters "Who's Who."

In a few months Johnson, signed by Harry Wolf, a member of sports writers and back boys, has called together a team his fancy at the same time picking and choosing of the stars of today and yesterday.

In order to obtain accurate information Johnson and his staff, working in Chicago, based and called thousands of questionnaires. The result is a team which, on paper, is a team which, on paper, is a team which, on paper,