RUSH OF TRANSFERS

County Clerk's Office Unable to Keep Up With Recording.

County Clerk George Chastain and his corps of deputies are the busiest men in Klamath county. The sale of real estate is unprecedented in the county.

The documents are pouring in so rapidly that the present force is unable to record them as they come and are therefore way behind with the work.

When seen yesterday Mr. Chastain stated that the transfers were of th kind, also, that looked well for the future of the county. None of them are of a nature that show that money barons are securing the lands of the county in large bulks, but nearly all of them are small, conveying lots for business houses and homes—the kind that means an increase of population and numerous small business enterprises.

Blames Cattle Inspector.

The Valley Record states that George King, of Montague, is a loser at the hands of a government cattle inspector. King bought a band of 50 cattle in Southern Oregon and when he reached the shipping point at Roseburg the inspector condemned them as having scab and ordered them dipped. Corrals were built and the mandates were obeyed but the cattle all practically died from the effects before reaching their destination in Siskiyou county. King denies that the cattle were infected and is looking for compensation through the law.

Deceased was a lovable character and well liked by all who knew her.

CLOUD ON TITLE REMOVED.

C. N. Hawkins Will Execute Deeds Free of Cost to Proper Persons

By the decree handed down in the Circuit Court, I hold perfect title to the following lands in Klamath Fals, Oregon:

Lots 6, 7, 8, 9 and 10, in block 105; all of blocks 106, 107, 108, 109, 110, 111, 112 and 113, and 17 acres lying north of said blocks and about 13 acres lying north and south of said blocks are conveyed, but with a cloud on them.

Besides these there are certain lots and blocks which I hold under deed from E. C. Brooks that form cloud over the title of other owners I am advised by my attorneys, and the only cloud estopped by the recent suit is that caused by the former adverse claims of Geo. Von Meyer and Cogswell and Nickerson.

Having no desire to cause injury or expense to the former purchasers of this property, I will give a quitclaim deed without cost to all the present owners, who will apply for same at the Klamath County Abstract Company's office and pay for the conveyancing of the same.

The property which this Brooks deed is said to cloud and which I will convey is described as follows:

All of blocks 46, 47, 48 and 49 lots 4, 5, 6, 7, block 53, all of block 54; lots 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 block 74, lot 8 block 75, lots 9 and 10 block 76; lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10 block 84; lots 3, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, block 85 and block 45, the title to which, I am advised, is clouded by other equities. C. N. HAWKINS.
