Bay City is booming.

"The Chinese must go."

The Stayton Sun is dead.

Congressman Hermann is home.

Senator Mitchell is in Portland.

Oregon's population is 312,000.

Tillamook has the lumber belt.

Prunes grow to perfection in this county.

Who is the best looking lady in Tillamook?

Oregon will have two representatives by the new apportionment.

The population of Oregon east of the Cascades is nearly one-fourth the state.

There is a great deal of good agricultural land in the new surveys in this county.

There is room for 5000 more people in this county at once without further development.

The Republicans of California are making a gallant fight to elect Col. H. H. Markham governor.

There is plenty of government land in this county that is suitable for stock-raising and fruit-growing.

Justice Miller is dead and the Pacific North West wants to have a representative on the United States Supreme Court bench.

Portland is the fifth city in size on the Pacific coast. Counting Albina and East Portland, she is second in size,—otherwise, Oakland, Los Angeles and Salt Lake City rank ahead of her. Seattle and Tacoma are not far behind. San Francisco has more people than all the cities mentioned.

A PITIFUL SPECTACLE.

The poor old wretch that runs the sheet up the road, complains at the treatment he has received from this paper and the people of this community.

True, there are some serious features about the matter, but we have criticised and ridiculed him only in a professional way, and other papers have treated him in the same manner. In fact, he and his paper are the butt of ridicule wherever known. Besides, any man who will attempt such a business, knowing so little about it and so densely ignorant on all points, deserves the ridicule and contempt of all respectable journals.

The odium heaped on him by the public in general is a natural consequence and of his own fault. A man of such shallow intellect, boorish manners, uncouth appearance, disgusting habits, and who has such low social standing, can not help being shunned and guyed by the populace, especially when he sets himself up as an educator by publishing a newspaper.

We speak of these things with a feeling of regret that a human being should fall so far below the scale of refinement and decency.

IT'S FOLLY TO BE WISE.

It is a queer but probably wise provision of nature, that those of the lower scale of intellect, require but little to satisfy their ambition and to gratify their vulgar wants.

What they do get out of life does them as much satisfaction as the consumation of the more noble ambitions and aspirations of those who are superior in intellect and more refined in nature.

The requirements for luxury are only relative, after all. The very swine revel in the swill trough with as much relish as the cultivated epicure has when he feasts on the daintiest productions of the culinary art.

But, of all the fools, the fool who is wise in his own conceit, is most abominable.

What Tillamook Has.

Picturesque scenery.

Over 90 miles of coast-line.

Clam-beds till you can't rest.

Streams full of trout and salmon.

Rich coal deposits on the Nehalem.

A climate as good as any on the coast.

Plenty of game,—water-fowl, deer, elk, bear etc.

Good prospects for a rail-road in the near future.

Natural harbors at Tillamook, Nehalem and Nestucca.

Open hill land valuable for grazing and fruit-growing.

One of the prettiest and thriftiest towns (Tillamook) in the state.

An enterprising, prosperous, contented and hospitable class of people.

Tide-land and bottom land, the richest and most productive in the state.

A rapid, but healthy growth and most promising prospects for the future.

Many quarter-sections of fairly good government land which may be had for the taking.

Fine ocean beaches at Netarts and Nestucca, which are already becoming popular resorts.

Vast bodies of accessible timber which is said to be the best and most valuable in the North-west.

This property is situated five blocks directly south of the main thoroughfare of the town, two blocks south of the school-house, and faces on two of the principal streets. This is not a boom scheme to speculate on suburban or country property, as the tract is centrally located, virtually in the heart of the town, and buildings are going up on all sides at present.

The location is sightly, high and dry, commanding a good view, and slopes gently from the center, just enough to secure good drainage. It is well sheltered from the coast winds, and is just the place for homes. For further particulars call on or address

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!

A SET OF THE

WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

CHARLES DICKENS.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of this paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to this paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever before made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skilfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens, the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and sewing machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with one of the great author's works.

Our Great offer to Subscibers to the Headlight

We will send the ENTIRE Set of DICKENS' WORKS in Twelve Volumes, as above described, all postage prepaid by ourselves, also The HEADLIGHT for ONE YEAR, on receipt of $2.00, which is only 50cts. more than the regular subscription price of this paper. Our readers, therefore, practically get a set of Dickens' works in twelve volumes for only $1.50. This is the grandest premium ever offered. Up to this time a set of Dickens' works has usually been $10.00 or more. Tell all your friends that they can get a set of Dickens' works, in twelve volumes with a year's subscription to the HEADLIGHT for only $2.00. Subscribe now and get this great premium. If your subscription has not yet expired, it will make no difference, for it will be extended one year from date of expiration. We will also give a set of Dickens, as above, free to any post-paid, to any one sending us a club of THREE yearly subscribers. Address: HEADLIGHT, Tillamook, Oregon.
