PARALLEL ROADS.

After building the new bridge on the old road near Mr. Freeman's place at an expense of $400, thereby virtually establishing the road on the old road for all time to come, (as it is the best course for a road from this place to Bay City, and a road on this route is necessary for the accommodation of some people), the honorable county court now orders the opening of a parallel road on the other side of the river and pays one-hundred dollars for the privilege of so doing.

Mr. Kelso is damaged to the extent of two-hundred dollars by the new road, the county paying half of it and the people interesteb the other half. There will also be some expense in opening the road. Then it will be of no use until there are two new bridges built, and not then until another road is built up the north side of Wilson river. There is at present a road up the river on this side, and a bridge built near Mr. Shearer's place would answer the same purpose and accomodate a great many more people, and be of much less expense to the county, and the people in the neighborhood.

We can't see what the bridge was rebuilt for on the old road when it was intended to open the new one.

At present there is no one directly injured by the arrangement, but the court is involving a great undertaking when it tries to please every man by running a road to his door or for his special benefit and paying heavy damages for every little extra bend or loop made.

Here is the case in a nut-shell: The people up the river need a road and a bridge in the proper place, but there is no use for the new road ordered as long as the old one is kept up.

The supervisor has been ordered to open the new road, and next will be a demand for bridges. There should be no bridges built in this county until the Nestucca is bridged.

ITS AGONY ABOUT OVER.

The Watchtower backers are getting tired of L. J. Johnson's management and it is rumored he is to be deposed. He has swamped the concern financially and disgraced his crowd politically.

In addition to this, the county is not populous enough to support two newspapers. One of them is sure to die, even if an attempt is made to keep it up for political purposes, and the Watchtower is going down and must continue to do so as it has gained nothing politically and cannot expect much from the Democrats to which it is catering now. The average Democrat hates a Judas as bad as a a Republican does.

A change in its management is likely to help it temporarily as it will likely make a fresh struggle for existence, but it will be at a great disadvantage as it has lost completely whatever prestige it ever did have, and the HEADLIGHT has nearly all the paying advertising patronage, twice as large a paying, bona-fide subscription list, and is depended upon solely for the county news. Besides, we have an office and plant worth several like the Watchtower outfit, and our business is running on a good paying basis.

It will be impossible for another paper to exist here on a paying basis for some time to come and the Watchtower can only be kept up as it has been,—by somebody going down into their pockets to pay its expenses.

A paper maintained, as it was, by a ring, for political purposes only, is sure to be short-lived, especially, when its political venture brought it no success, except the satisfaction of annoying somebody and paying ten dollars for the privilege of doing the county printing.

We are willing to take our chances on the survival of the fittest of the two papers.

There is a town-site platted out on the Nehalem called Liverpool, and it is reported that parties in Portland are swindling suckers by by selling lots in this "town on paper." All legitimate town-site schemes in this county are likely to be advertised or recognized by the papers published in this county and a man who does not take the trouble to post himself regarding the country by reading the papers published in it, deserves to be victimized. It doesn't pay to buy a cat in a bag. Moral: Read the HEADLIGHT before you buy property of outside agents.

This county needs very badly an expenditure of several thousand dollars for bridges, but is not able to build all that are needed at present. The Nestucca needs bridging very badly, and it would not only be of great benefit to the people of Nestucca, but to the public in general who go to the Willamette valley via Sheridan. And of course, the merchants of this place and the country people will be mutually benefitted by good roads and bridges.

Several states held elections last Tuesday and many new Congressmen were elected. Full particulars of the results and a fore-cast of the political complexion of the next Congress will be given next week. No definite news regarding the result has reached Tillamook yet.

J. H. Stine, an old Oregon newspaper man, has purchased the St. Helens Mist and is publishing a live paper.

What Tillamook Has.

Picturesque scenery.
Over 90 miles of coast-line.
Clam-beds till you can't rest.
Streams full of trout and salmon.
Rich coal deposits on the Nehalem.
A climate as good as any on the coast.
Plenty of game,—water-fowl, deer, elk, bear etc.
Good prospects for a rail-road in the near future.
Natural harbors at Tillamook, Nehalem and Nestucca.
Open hill land valuable for grazing and fruit-growing.
One of the prettiest and thriftiest towns (Tillamook) in the state.
An enterprising, prosperous, contented and hospitable class of people.
Tide-land and bottom land, the richest and most productive in the state.
A rapid, but healthy growth and most promising prospects for the future.
Many quarter-sections of fairly good government land which may be had for the taking.
Fine ocean beaches at Netarts and Nestucca, which are already becoming popular resorts.
Vast bodies of accessible timber which is said to be the best and most valuable in the North-west.
A harbor which will be one of the best on the coast, when a few thousand dollars are spent improving it.
Half-a-dozen fine rivers, which with their tributaries, are of inestimable value for navigation and floating logs.
Beautiful and productive prairies which contain many farms suitable for dairying, stock-raising and general agriculture.
Many bee ranches on the Nestucca the product of which has an established reputation in the market and commands a premium wherever known.

This property is situated five blocks directly south of the main thoroughfare of the town, two blocks south of the school-house, and faces on two of the principal streets. This is not a boom scheme to speculate on suburban or country property, as the tract is centrally located, virtually in the heart of the town, and buildings are going up on all sides at present.

The location is sightly, high and dry, commanding a good view, and slopes gently from the center, just enough to secure good drainage. It is well sheltered from the coast winds, and is just the place for homes. For further particulars call on or address

GRAND PREMIUM OFFER!
A SET OF THE
WORKS OF CHARLES DICKENS

CHARLES DICKENS.

In Twelve Large Volumes,

Which we Offer with a Year's Subscription to this Paper for a Trifle More than Our Regular Subscription Price.

Wishing to largely increase the circulation of the paper during the next six months, we have made arrangements with a New York publishing house whereby we are enabled to offer as a premium to our subscribers a Set of the Works of Charles Dickens, in Twelve Large and Handsome Volumes, with a year's subscription to the paper, for a trifle more than our regular subscription price. Our great offer to subscribers eclipses any ever heretofore made. Charles Dickens was the greatest novelist who ever lived. No author before or since his time has won the fame that he achieved, and his works are even more popular to-day than during his lifetime. They abound in wit, humor, pathos, masterly delineation of character, vivid descriptions of places and incidents, thrilling and skillfully wrought plots. Each book is intensely interesting. No home should be without a set of these great and remarkable works. Not to have read them is to be far behind the age in which we live. The set of Dickens' works which we offer as premium to our subscribers is handsomely printed from entirely new plates, with new type. The twelve volumes contain the following world-famous works, each one of which is published complete, unchanged, and absolutely unabridged:

DAVID COPPERFIELD,
MARTIN CHUZZLEWIT,
NICHOLAS NICKELBY,
DOMBEY AND SON,
BLEAK HOUSE,
LITTLE DORRIT,
OUR MUTUAL FRIEND,
PICKWICK PAPERS,
BARNABY RUDGE AND CHRISTMAS STORIES,
OLIVER TWIST AND GREAT EXPECTATIONS,
THE OLD CURIOSITY SHOP AND THE UNCOMMERCIAL TRAVELER,
A TALE OF TWO CITIES, HARD TIMES AND THE MYSTERY OF EDWIN DROOD.

The above are without question the most famous novels that were ever written. For a quarter of a century they have been celebrated in every nook and corner of the civilized world. Yet there are thousands of homes in America not yet supplied with a set of Dickens' owing to the usual high cost of the books preventing people in moderate circumstances from enjoying this luxury. But now, owing to the use of modern improved printing, folding and stitching machinery, the extremely low price of white paper, and the great competition in the book trade, we are enabled to offer to our subscribers and readers a set of Dickens' works at a price which all can afford to pay. Every home in the land may now be supplied with a set of the great author's works.

Our Great offer to Subscribers to the Headlight.

We will send the ENTIRE Set of DICKENS' WORKS in Twelve Volumes, as above described, all postage prepaid by ourselves, also The HEADLIGHT for ONE YEAR, upon receipt of $ 2.00, which is only 50cts. more than the regular subscription price of this paper. Our readers, therefore, practically get a set of Dickens' works in twelve volumes for only 50cts. This is the grandest premium ever offered. Up to this time a set of Dickens' works has usually been $10.00 or more. Tell all your friends that they can get a set of Dickens' works, in twelve volumes with a year's subscription to the HEADLIGHT for only $2.00. Subscribe now and get this great premium. If your subscription has not yet expired, it will make no difference, for it will be extended one year from date of expiration. We will also give a set of Dickens, as above, free and post-paid, to any one sending us a club of THREE yearly subscribers. Address: HEADLIGHT, Tillamook, Oregon.
