The Citizen's Are Triumphant!

CLEAN SWEEP!

The Whole Ticket Is Elected by Large Majorities!

A VERY CHILLY DAY!

THE MUGWUMP COMBINATION Knocked out.—The Watchtower Gang is Growing Beautifully Small.—A Cold Day for the Fearnside-Quick Ring and its Organ.—Complete Walk-over.—Kickers Snowed Under. Ta-Ta.—See You Later!

HOW WE FEEL.

It was a clean sweep for the progessive citizen's ticket, every man being elected by a walk-over. The vote was light, as many voters of the place are holding claims in the timber, and were afraid to risk voting here, or the victory would have been more complete, however almost every man who was entitled to vote made use of the ballot, and 99 votes were cast. The following is a detailed report of the result:

For Recorder, C. N. Drew received 86 votes, J. N. Vokes 1, G. W. Fearnside 1 and C. B. Hadley 1. Drew's majority, 83.

For City Attorney, E. E. Selph 86; I. T. Maulsby 3. Selph's majority 83.

For Treasurer, Geo. Cohn 84; H. Mc Dermott 3. Cohn's majority 81.

For Marshall, L. L. Stillwell 69; Joze Vincent 11; D. C. Pierce 12. Stillwell's majority 46.

For Board of Trustees, John Barker 80; A. P. Wilson 76; John Sheets 73. H. F. Goodspeed received 24 votes and M. W. Harrison 20. It will be seen that the majorities of the first three named range from 50 to 60.

HOW THEY FEEL.

The mugwumps were especially desirous of electing Goodspeed and Harrison in place of Wilson and Barker, and went particularly after Mr. Wilson's scalp. They concentrated their efforts to elect two out of the three councilmen, endorsed Mr. Sheets in a half-hearted manner, though not in accordance with his wishes and without his consent, and could find nobody foolish enough to oppose the balance of our ticket, With all their frantic efforts they could find only about 20 of the faithful.

The result of this election is very important and beneficial to the city of Tillamook as it effectually stamps out the old anti-progress influence and means an era of enterprise and improvement in the city. It also shows that the people are disgusted with the attempts of the Watchtower and its backers to frustrate every good movement and blacken the reputation of respected citizens, besides the people have emphatically shown their disapproval of the peculiar methods of certain politicians who have control of the county government and who tried to fasten their grip on the city government.

ELECTION NOTES.

The indomnitable 22 still remain.

J. G. Day's little speech was a "corker.",

The Watchtower Extra had the wrong effect.

Judge Drew—it sounds pretty well after all.

How will $800 a year expended on our streets strike you!

The talk of contesting subsided when the result was announced.

Mr. Marshall, your attention is called to the frog pond on Main St.

No wonder they lost. Neither "Kate" nor Bill Smith were on hand.

We take of our hats to you, Councilmen Barker, Wilson and Sheets.

"A. P. Wilson will never be councilman"—Mugwumps. W H A T !

They had better taken Judge Cooper's advice. He can well say, "I told you so."

Contest it, will you! There are not enough left of you to inaugurate a decent fortunately.

The offices of "honor and trust" that that Mr. Haarison has held are overshadowed by the offices he has tried to hold recently.

The votes and tally-sheets were canvassed in the Clerk's office Wednesday and the newly elected officers will assume their duties at once.

THEY ARE NOT IN IT.

J. G. Day, J. H. Nolan and W. O. Thayer acted as judges of election. They were firm in their decisions, but no one can charge them with being unfair in any particular.

The kicker caucus was held in a private house almost outside the city limits, few being invited or present, and no one could find out just what had been done until tkeir tickets were printed.

Chief Hole-in-the-wall must have smiled archly when he bestowed the Indian appellations on his fellow-citizens. But the recent ghost dance showed his braves were dropping off, and he has retired to his wigwam a wiser and sadder man.

Anyone inquiring for the City Treasurer at Cohn & Co's mercantile establishment, will be confronted by a business-like gentleman, who sauntered off with the persimmons last Monday, answering to the title of Hon. George "Washington" Cohn.

The Citizens convenfion was previously advertised, held in a public hall openly and free for all, and every body had a voice, even some of the kickers being present and taking part. The proceedings were published and there was no "ring manipulation" about it.

What a servile beg for votes! Mr. Harrison says in his letter in the Watchtower extra, "Remember that the officers elected at this time only hold their offices for a few months and then you will have a chance to change them for others if they do not suit you." Well, you can try it again next December, Mr. Harrison.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS.

The St. Patrick's ball was a very pleasant affair.

E. Mc Kinley has been dangerously ill but is now somewhat better.

The San Francisco steamer Scotia, arrived at Hobsonville Tuesday evening. She will be followed by the Truckee.

ONE OF THE ORIGINAL 22.

WANTED TO SWAP. A fine well broken cat for a bulldog. Inquire at office of City Treasurer. 42-d-w-1-t*.

The ladies of the town will soon give an entertainment in the G. A. R. Hall for the purpose of raising funds to purchase a large flag for the Grand Army men.

The Str. Augusta came in from Portland Wednesday morning bringing large consignments of spring goods for the local merchants and a light passenger list.

Pat. Smith has gone to the Nehalem treasure hunting again. Pat has visions of hidden wealth and actually expects to find treasure that is alleged to have been left at the mouth of the Nehalem by a wrecked vessel years ago. He has some mysterious process of divination, so he thinks, in locating the alleged buried treasures.

Rev. Father Desmarais held services in the Catholic Church last Sunday for the first time, blessing the church in the name of the patron saint. Mass was observed in the forenoon, with other appropriate ceremonies, after which Father Desmarais addressed the congregation. He held services again in the afternoon and the house was crowded both times. His remarks were eloquent, [illegible] logical, [illegible]

Tillamook and Seaside.

Grading will be commenced without delay on the Albany & Astoria R. R. between Seaside and Tillamook, the contracts having been let. The contractors have already gone to the scene of operations and it is thought the company means business and that there will be no further delay about building the road.

It is understood that the contract for building the road from Tillamook to Albany will be let at an early date, and it is very probable the "shriek of the iron horse" will greet the ears of Tillamookers before another year.

It is the intention at preseut to connect with the Astoria & South Coast R. R. at Seaside.

THE MINSTREL SHOW.

The Cornet Band Minstrel show drew a crowded house and was immensly enjoyed by all present. Perly Hiett and C. H. Bodle did well as endmen and G. L. Smith was a dignified middle-man. Lucy Corliss is a success in light comedy, and A. W. Severance as "ze devoted Frenchman." The singing and music were excellent. Many original hits were made and everybody had a good laugh, though it would have been better perhaps to have omitted the local personal "gags."

The band made a good thing out of the show, and their efforts in this direction should always be encouraged, as few places can boast of a better band. They have gone to the expense of getting good uniforms, good instruments, and have secured the services of an excellent teacher, Mr. N. Roland, and the band is now a credit to the town.

THE NEW LAWS.

The first newspaper to print a correct digest of the new laws, is the Capital Journal, of Salem. The work of compiling is being done by a legal expert. The important general Acts will be printed in full, and where sections of the Code are amended or repealed, the changes will be clearly set forth. Persons wishing to be posted on the new laws should subscribe for this valuable paper—only $1.50 per year. Subscribe at this office, or address HOFER BROS., Salem, Oregon.

The hunters report plenty of game in the hills.

Stock is doing well and but few complaints of feed are heard. X. Y. Z.

GARIBALDI.

F. P. Hobson has the lumber on the ground for a new barn.

School begins here April 1st, with a gentleman from Kansas as teacher.

At the annual school meeting held March 2, the following officers were elected: John johnson, director for three years, and F. P. Hobson, clerk.

A small portion of the Truckee Lumber Co's wharf, at Hobsonville, broke down a short time ago; too much lumber was the cause.

The mill has been idle for several days owing to the bottom burning out of the saw-dust burner.

J. A. Richardson has his little steamer on the dry-dock and is repairing the damage that was done by the recent fire. He will soon have her in running order again.

An Eastern capitalist visited Garibaldi the other day, looking for a mill site. He seemed well pleased with the place, but meeting with no encouragement from those who own the water front, he left for Bay City where he will meet with ample encouragement from the proprietors of that enterprising town. Thus Garibaldi loses one by one the chances that in course of time would make it a flourishing town, because those who own the land will not sell.

John Johnson, a member of the G.A.R. who has been very sick for the last month is able to be out again.

S. Elmore & Co. of Astoria have rented the Ralston property for the summer.

Several farmers living on the Miami, have planted their potatoes already. They expect to dig them in April.

ORETOWN.

Not very pleasant weather for this time of the year.

Last week Mr. Page, our mail-carrier, in company with Del. Ellis of Grand Ronde overtook and captured two California murderers. They quietly gave up their arms and then began their return journey under charge of the sheriff who had come to the assistance of the above named citizens.

A rumour has reached here that the body of Alvin Phelps, who disappeared from Woods a few months since, has been found floating somewhere in the Willamette near Portland. It was well known among his friends and acquaintances that he had a weakness for showing all his money to those he came in contact with and this fact, together with its being known that he had a large sum of money with him when he left Woods, has led to the belief that some Portland thugs murdered and robbed him and then threw his body in the Willamette.

Mr. John Malaney is the young and happy father of a new bouncing baby girl. DEE.
