COUNTY ITEMS.

GATHERED BY OUR CORRESPONDENTS.

A Brief Glimpse at Last Weeks Happenings.

Woods Wavelets.

(FROM THE OCEAN WAVE)

Dr. Bissell is on the sick list this week.

Chas. Wymer, who formerly resided here, that of late years in Yamhill County, accidently shot himself in the hand Sunday, the 11th, and died the next Tuesday from loss of blood.

Mrs. J. Smith and Miss Mills of Hebo, were in town Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, visiting kindred and friends.

The school at Woods will begin later this spring than usual, but the weather will be good for those who have to come some distance to school. Prof. Snuffer, of Sheridan, will teach.

Bay City Breezes.

Mrs. McNair visited in Bay City last Saturday.

Mrs. Potter is quite ill with rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pye, of Nehalem, are visiting their parents.

Mrs. Kirry and children are spending a few days at the home of her parents.

Henry Robbins has gone to the Columbia.

Mrs. H. S. Newman, of Tillamook, spent Sunday in Bay City.

Theo. Jacoby and Robt. Watt went to Seaside last week.

Dan Pike and Robt. Sargent have gone out to try their luck with Columbia fishermen.

Mrs. J. T. Nevins has gone to the Portland Hospital to receive treatment. Her many friends join in wishing her a speedy recovery.

That portion of the school law relating to compulsory education should be more strictly enforced. Every child should have the benefit of an education, and where the parents fail to do their duty in that line, the child's welfare should be protected by the law.

Emma Items.

Marked improvement is seen in the growth of vegetation since the refreshing showers the first of the week.

Joe Altenberger arrived from Portland the first of this week. He bought a fine mare while in the city.

Elmer Jackson of Salmon river passed here this week from Neskowin with a load of potatoes. He reports stock picking up near the bay.

D. C. McNeil has been helping E. H. Sloan clear some land this week.

J. D. Chitwoood and son have torn out a bridge that was rotten and dangerous on the county road and put in a fill. He used logs that otherwise he would have been compelled to burn.

John Westenberger has a contract to put a wire fence around the clearing on the Christman's ranch.

Now is the time settlers should look a little after the public road on their places, and cut out some of the timbers that fell in through the winter and don't leave it for your neighbors to take out.

We are anxious now to see the Headlight put on its new garb; spring should bring it out.

Spruce Splinters.

The snow is nearly gone from Mt Hebo. The people here say it is a sign of good weather.

Mr. Wooly and others have gone to Astoria to fish for salmon.

Jeff Wallace, Ben Higgenbothom and Dan Savage (of Willamina) have been buying cattle near here this week.

C. E. Magers has charge of our school for this summer. Prof. Magers has had much experience in teaching, and will teach us a good school. There will be exercises at the school Friday the 30th.

Netarts Nuggets

Mr. Wells of South Prairie has rented Mr. W. F. Page's place on the sand spit, and will move this week.

Mr. E. Brooks of the Cape Mears Light House was on the beach Saturday.

A. W. Severance and Dan Bowers of Tillamook, made a business trip to Netarts Sunday.

Beaver Budget.

Protracted meeting so occupied the people of Beaver for the past two weeks, even your unworthy correspondent, that no items were sent in to your most excellent paper last week. Well the meeting closed on Thursday evening of last week having resulted in 17 conversions and one sanctified.

Harrison Booth went to Tillamook on Tuesday of this week.

J. R. Finley and son Alva went to Sheridan this week.

C. Mills preached to a large audience at Beaver last Sunday. He will preach at Pleasant Valley next Saturday P. M. and Sunday.

Oretown Offerings

School commenced April 19th.

J. B. Franklin has rented his farm, and will move to Whiteson.

Mr. Luper made a trip to the valley last week and reports the road in bad shape.

John Gage, of Stanford, Clackamas Co., came into nestucca a few days since.

An elderly man named Bishoff, lately from Scotts Mills near Salem, died at his home on the Bay April 22nd. He had complication of troubles mingled with dropsy. The funeral took place on Sunday.

Another petition is being circulated to remove Geo Mizner as Road Supervisor, on the ground of negligence and incompetency. It has a large number of signers. Mr. Mizner has changed his mind about resigning, so it is said, and will try to hold the position for what there is in it.

Sand Lake Siftings.

That was a pleasant social affair, that gathering at the school house on Easter Sunday. Ererybody came with their baskets loaded with things that were calculated to sharpen the appetite, not the least of which was the Easter Egg. Rev. Baley of Nestucca and J. Dawson, a new comer took part in organizing a Sunday School. Miss Minnie Nelson (the school teacher) was chosen as superintendent.

King and Colton have finished cranberry planting having put in one acre using 200,000 plants; M. Lommer has finished planting 40 square rods, using 75,000 plants; James Atkinson has finished planting 100 square rods using about 110,000 plants; E. Osborne has finished planting 40 square rods using 50,000 plants; H. Farmer will replant some of his old beds where the vines did not grow. The vines were shipped from the east and were so long on the way that they were in poor condition when they reached here. He says he will patronize home markets hereafter. Sand Lake can furnish plants in abundance of almost any varliety of cranberry.

A. Colton has gone to Tillamook to remain most of the summer.

Rubey McGee who has been on the sick list is now able to be out again.

Jeff Harris caught a very large bald faced bear last week.

Most of our people have their gardening done.

Mrs. King has taken a trip to Tillamook via Woods. She says this is the first time she has been away from Sand Lake for six months. We hope she wont get lost on the streets of the city.

Quite a band of our cattle have bought bought and drove out of here. While the price paid was low still it left between $200 and $300 in the neighborhood.

E. Osborne has been quite successful in trapping this winter having caught about $50 worth of furs.

T. J. Harris went to Tillamook this week with his goat, wool and bear hides.

Lewis Farmer has sold his oxen.

Editor HEADLIGHT,
Dear Sir:

In justice to the public, myself and Mr. Durfey, I should like to ask for a short space in your valuable sheet that has been a welcome visitor in my home during my stay in Tillamook. It being pretty generally understood that I am soon to leave Tillamook to attend our general Conferance to be held in Portland, commencing May 20th, and there, in common with all laborers go to the place that may, in the judgement of the distribution committee, be thought best, and in view of this I have been repeatedly asked if Mr Durfey was sent here to take my place, and in reply to these inquiries will say, most assuredly not since he is not a member of our denomination, and probably there is no denomination that so widely differs with us, the body of people he represents.

But we believe Mr. Durfey has as good a right to his opinion as we have to ours, or as any of the readers of this article have to theirs Mr. Durfey or any minister of any other denomination is welcome to the use of our church, when not otherwise occupied, to preach the gospel of Jesus Christ.

But Mr Durfey should by common courtesy be more than welcome to the church. He has voluntarily built the pulpit, and seats and has done some other work. Kind citizens having assisted us in securing the lumber, etc., and at the last business meeting it was decided to give Mr. Durfey the free use of the church on Sunday, when not occupied by us, for at least one and a half years.

Money Isn't Needed by Country Editors and Publishers.

An Ohio contemporary remarked recently that it took money to run a newspaper, and the editor of the Saguache (Col.,) Herald replies as follows:

"It doesn't take money to run a newspaper; it can be run without money. It is a charitable institution, a begging concern, a highway robber, 'Godfrey' The newspaper is a child of the air, a creature of a dream. It can go on and on and on when any other concern would be in the hands of a receiver and wound up with cobwebs in the windows. It takes gall to run a newspaper. It takes a scintillation acrobatic imagination, and a half dozen white shirts, and a railroad pass to run a newspaper. But money—Heavens to Betsy and six hands round, who ever needed money in conducting a newspaper?

"Kind words are the medium of exchange that do the business for the editor—kind words and church social tickets. When you see an editor with money watch him. He'll be paying his bills and disgracing his profession. Never give an editor money. Make him trade it out. He likes to swap.

"Then when you die, after having stood around for years and sneered at the editor and his jim crow paper, be sure and have your wife send in for three extra copies by one of your weeping children, and when she reads the generous and touching notice about you, forewarn her to neglect to send fifteen cents to the editor. It would overwhelm him.

Money is a corrupting thing. The editor knows it, and what he wants is your heartfelt thanks. Then he can thank the printers and they can thank their grocers. Take your job work to the job office and then come and ask for half rates for church notices.

The Lord loves a cheerful giver. He'll take care of all the editors. Don't worry about the editors, he has a charter from the State to act as doormat for the community. He'll get the paper out somehow, and support you when you run for office, and lie about your daughter's wedding, and blow about your sons when they get a $4 per week job, and weep over your shriveled soul when it is released from your grasping body, and smile at your giddy wife's second marriage. He'll get along. The Lord only knows how—but the editor gets there somehow. Ex.

Notice to Taxpayers.

The law requires that each male between the ages of 21 and 50 years living within the county shall pay a poll tax of one dollar ($1) at the time of assessment; and if not so paid, to be reported to the sheriff of the county, with added costs, for collection, at once. The law allows no exemption for poll tax, except to active members of the Oregon National Guard, and all active firemen who have been members of any company, for one year next preceding the time of assessment, and exempt firemen. That there may be no cause for complaint I ask that each person liable to poll tax be prepared to pay the same to the assessor, or his deputy, at the time of making the assessment. I ask the aid of every person in the county, that the law may be strictly complied with. Persons exempt will be required to show their certificate of exemption.

J. S. Stephens, Assessor
Tillamook, Oregon.

Two years ago R. J. Warren, a druggist at Pleasant Brook N. Y., bought a small supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He sums up the result as follows: "At that time the goods were unknown in this section; to-day Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a household word." It is the same in hundreds of communities. Wherever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by S. J. Sturgeon.

The Rev. W. H. Weaver, pastor of the U. B. Church, Dillsburg, Pa., recognizes the value of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and does not hesitate to tell others about it. "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," he says, "and find it an excellent medicine of for colds, coughs, and hoarseness." So does everyone who gives it a trial. Sold by S. J. Sturgeon.
