FRIDAY AUGUST 14, 1914.

Many of our Switzer citizens are much concerned in regard to the European war. For their benefit we will state that from appearances Switzerland seems to be one of the few places of Europe that will keep out of the war. A late press dispatch says in regard to Switzerland. "It is proposed to convert the whole of Switzerland into a colossal red cross hospital camp for the reception of the wounded irrespective of nationalities. It is more honorable to care for the sick than to be engaged in war and our Swiss people should be proud of the work which the land of their nativity will have in charge.

In arranging the program for the welcoming of the "Fresh Fly Kiddies" and the Fourth Artillery tomorrow, Mayor Beals has been given on the program for an address of welcome. This was done without consulting Mr. Beals or giving him any time in which to make arrangements or prepare for the occasion, and knowing anything about the arrangement until he saw the program advertised in the Headlight, less than twenty-four hours before the time set for him to take part in the program, and for this reason he will not respond. It seems to us that, if a person's services are desired on a program, a request, at least, should be made, and the person given a reasonable length of time to make preparation, especially where one is engrossed with multitudes of business cares as is Mr. Beals. An effort was previously made from Mr. Beals' office to learn of Mr. C. R. Worrall, who arranged the program, as to what the program was to be, but not the least inkling was given that any of the city officials were to take part.

We publish below the proposed amendment to the constitution relative to the contemplated eight hour law. This measure will no doubt be voted down. However its provisions are so drastic and unreasonable, and would cause so much hardship that those who would be injured by it cannot afford to be lukewarm in regard to the matter. The proposed eight hour law should be voted down by an overwhelming vote.

Article XV, Section 9, of the Constitution of the State of Oregon, shall be and the same hereby is amended to read as follows:

Be it enacted by the People of the State of Oregon:

That it shall constitute a criminal offense, punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, for any person, firm, company or corporation, or his, her, or their foreman, overseer, superintendent, manager or any other agent, to employ, in the state of Oregon, any man, woman, boy or girl for more than eight hours in any one calendar day, or more than 48 hours in any one calendar week. By this law, employment for eight hours in any calendar day shall be confined to nine consecutive hours, allowing one hour for eating and rest. The period of nine consecutive hours with eight hours for work therein, and one hour for eating and rest, shall, by the provisions of this law, be identical for each, any and every calendar day, of each, any and every calendar week.

This law, and the provisions thereof, shall apply, with equal force, to each, any and every person, man, woman, boy or girl, employed for pay, remuneration, profit or compensation of any kind whatsoever, on, on, around or about each, and all every cafe, club, hotel, restaurant, farm, laundry, hospital, canning or packing plant, factory, lumber yard, logging camp, sawmill, oil, steam or electric railway, railroad, station, depot, roundhouse or on the tracks, engines, cars or other equipment of an oil, steam or electric railway or railroad, to express, teaming and draying concerns, to telegraph, telephone, engineering, mechanical, mercantile, mining foundry, iron and machine work, to laborers, domestics, artisans, mechanics and tradesmen in the building trades, to office, store, barber shop, garage, workshop, ship, wharf, warehouse and waterfront work, anywhere and everywhere within the State of Oregon. By this law neither manual labor, trades nor the professions shall be exempted, but every form of labor, skilled or unskilled, as well as every trade and profession, and persons working therein or thereat, shall be included in, by and under this law, within the State of Oregon.

POMONA GRANGE ORGANIZED

Tillamook, Oregon, August 13, 1914.

A large crowd of Tillamook county Grangers met today and organized the Tillamook County Grange at the Fairview Grange Hall, Tillamook. The local granges represented were Fairview, Nestucca, Cloverdale and Oretown. Several members of the Nehalem Grange expected to be present, but were prevented from attending by threatening fires in that vicinity.

The organization was perfected in a very able manner by Deputy Master Mrs. Hattie L. Vall of Multnomah county and started out with a list of eighty charter members.

The following officers were elected and those present were duly installed:

Master, J. H. Dunstan, Fairview Grange.

Overseer, R. Y. Blalock, Nestucca Grange.

Lecturer, Will Christensen, Oretown Grange.

Steward, Ed Worthington, Cloverdale Grange.

Assistant Steward, R. M. Margason, Nestucca Grange.

Chaplain, Mrs. A. S. Burton, Fairview Grange.

Treasurer, Mrs. C. L. Porter, Oretown Grange.

Secretary, R. C. Jones, Fairview Grange.

Gate Keeper, Mrs. Emily Johnson, Nestucca Grange.

Lady Assistant Steward, Mrs. Virginia Worthington, Cloverdale Grange.

Ceres, Pomona and Flora were left until next meeting.

The next meeting will be held Thursday September 3rd with the Oretown Grange. The Pomona Grange is sure to do a lot of good in the county for it brings the various members of subordinate Granges of the county together several times a year to transact business and discuss problems for their mutual welfare.

Sec'y Tillamook Pomona Grange.

MUTUAL SYSTEM TO BE REBUILT

The Mutual Telephone Company is about to begin the carrying out of important improvements to its lines.

John Sheets, manager of the Mutual tells us that the contemplated improvements have been held in waiting by a proposed deal that has been on foot whereby the Mutual was to purchase the Bell system in this county. As the Bell people have not come to decisive agreement in regard to the matter the Mutual Company has decided to go ahead with much needed improvements.

The switch board that has been used here will be placed at Beaver, and a large up-to-date switchboard will be installed here. Two trunk lines will be placed between Tillamook and Beaver, and the service will be improved in every way as soon as money and help can be secured.

United Brethren Notes
