German Emperor Off by Motor to Alsatian Border.

London.—A dispatch from Rome to the Daily Mail says a report is current that Emperor William has left Berlin in a motor car for the Alsatian frontier.

The military critics of the newspapers consider the report from Rome that Emperor William has left Berlin to join the general staff of the army on the Alsatian frontier to indicate that the Germans are ready to engage the French in great force.

The Daily Mail's Rome correspondent adds that, according to dispatches from Basel, Switzerland, the Germans have evacuated Sankt Ludwig, in Alsace, four miles to the northwest of Basel, and that a battle is imminent on the Franco-Swiss frontier.

GRANGE PICNIC.

Large Crowd Had Delightful Time Near Beaver.

The members of the Nestucca Grange, No. 402, with their families and friends, held a special and picnic dinner in a beautiful grove adjacent to their hall on the ranch of R. C. Magarell, between Beaver and Blaine on last Saturday. A happy party of some 200 people with baskets well filled, enjoyed one of Oregon's most beautiful days. R. C. Magarell, the Master, and Miss Fannie Smith, Secretary of the Grange, made all feel at home, ably assisted by a committee of Rev. R. Y. Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Wood and Mrs. Jacob Nicholas.

The grange was organized last February and has an actual membership of over 60, at the last census of that part of Tillamook county, and is growing rapidly.

Early in the morning the people, old and young, started couples with baskets and it was a happy gathering in spite of hunger and weather.

The day was spent in a very fitting manner in a social way, and many old acquaintances were renewed, old friends met, old times were talked over, old songs sung, old memories of the old home, old parents, old loves, old times.

And lo! as we venture the husking bee.

When I found the red ear,
And took my choice of the maids
And the old brown jug,
Saw, "Down the middle,"
When I led Sally in dance
But that time of hope and bliss,
That green in Sally's kiss
Can can never come back.
For Sally now sleeps,
Where the willow tree weeps,
And I hoed the corn alone.

The speeches and songs of "I love the I-ane" came down through memories hallowed and hallow, and it should be a matter of pride to the years ahead that the Grange had start with so an honorable mission.

The speakers were Mr. I. H. Thomas and Mr. W. Mason, of Hillsboro Grange, and Mrs. Hettie Vail, deputy State Lecturer of the Grange, and others, all full of pure hope through service and counsel for the betterment of all.

And so the dinner, and from Tillamook, with Mr. Ross Jones, county auctioneer, and his intelligent little daughter in his new Ford, Judge Cal Worrall, no longer Judge, but an organ grinder for a small little girl, and said those to listen, all the pretty little girls, for he does it right and was soon surrounded by more than enough to make a merry, merry, merry,
