MEN FLEE FOR LIVES WHEN GAS EXPLODES

Short In Ignition Causes Fire That Destroyed Oregonian Truck; Not Cigarettes, as Published By One Paper.

One of the Oregonian Truck Line's big $2600 trucks is in ruins and considerable valuable merchandise was destroyed hen the big express truck suddenly aught fire from a short in the ignition system Monday morning near Willamina.

The truck was equipped with a fire extinguisher and the driver and his assistant were able to carry anything this when they ran to save their lives for their lives by an explosion of the gasoline tank the report was heard for miles. The en were uninjured.

he truck carried, besides it's quota of papers, a big case of silk hosiery, valued at several hundred dollars and considerable other merchandise. The merchandise was insured as was also the truck to the extent of $1600.

The truck line is owned not by The Oregonian as commonly supposed but by Walter C. Sinclair, Anthony Krajne and associates, according to the names filed on their tariff sheets with the Public Service Commission. John Mathers is the local agent. Another truck was secured and service uninterrupted, except for a slight delay in the arrival of papers, they arriving here later in the afternoon.

Over three columns of type and 100 inches of advertising is omitted for lack of space. We apologize.

IN THE COUNTY COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON FOR THE COUNTY OF TILLAMOOK

In the Matter of the Estate of Harry B. Cottle, a Minor.

Order to Show cause why License should not be granted for Sale of Real Property

This matter coming on to be heard this 27th day of February, 1922, upon the petition of David Kuratli, Guardian of the Estate of the above named minor, whereby it appears that said minor is the owner of an undivided one sixth interest in the following described real property situate in Tillamook County, Oregon:

FOR A BAD COLD

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a certain cure for bad colds. It acts on nature's plan, relieves the lungs, aids expectoration, opens the secretions and aids nature in freeing the system of all symptoms of the cold. It is not a palliative that simply gives relief; it cures.
