LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 5.-(Special.) This was a fine day for a masacre in the baseball business and about the only reason there was not one at Chutes Pizk this afternoon was because three or four players did not finish what they started. Atherton, of Portland, and Dillon, of Los Angeles, were thrown off the field and out of the game by Umpire Buil Perrine, because threed declared he had made rotten decisions. Pat Donahue threatened under his made rotten decisions. Pat Donahue threatened under his breath to bite one of Perrine's eyes out, and Pitcher Nagle, of the local team, rushed up in front of the grandstand be-fore the eighth inning, and offered to fight a fan after the game. Over half of all this peevishness was due to the fearful heat of the day, but much of it was because Portland landed hard and offen on Nagle. Casey was out hard and often on Nagle. Casey was out of the game through sickness, and Mc-Credia changed his line-up again. Hartman pitched for five innings, and then Kinsella tried it, and between them they beat the locals by the close score of 5 to 4. There were no particular features.

That badly abused individual passed the matter up during the game, and Flood thought the incident was won back the title of British champion, of, which she was deprived last year by Mrs. Chambers, then Miss Douglas. The American won easily by 2-0. The score was 6-1, 6-4. and Flood thought the incident was closed. But outside the grounds a con-stable was waiting for the scrappy player, and took him to the station. Conway ap-peared the next day in court and testi-fied against Flood. The player pleaded guilty to a charge of simple assault, with the expectation that he would be re-leaded after a small fine, but the judge

Miss Sutton received a remarkable ova-tion from the crowds in the stands. The band struck up "See the Conquering Hero Comes;" the committee presented the American girl with a huge bouquet of flowers and there were loud calls for a thought differently, and Flood was sent to jail for 15 days. Baseball enthusiasts in Toronto are circulating a petition for speech. Miss Sutton, however, was over-come by the warmih with which her vic-tory was greeted and was only able to say: "I have won twice and I am going JEFFRIES NOT TO FIGHT BURNS

Last Match in Semi-Finals.

The last match in the semi-finals at the Irvington Tennis Club were played yesterday afternoon, Benham and North-rup beating Moore and Nunn in three straight matches. This leaves the club champlonship in the doubles between Gloss and McAlpin on one side, and Ben-ham and Northrup on the other. Two matches in the ladies' singles were also played yesterday. Mrs. Moore beat Mrs. R. W. Wilbur and R. C. Hart, two of the most enthusiantic members of the Portland Rowing Club, returned to the clty yesterday from the regatia at Seat-tile. Both men saw the Portland senior four win, and say that the local men outclassed all their competitors. Hart drew the positions for the local men in every race and was fortunate to pick played yesterday. Mrs. Moore beat Mrs. Lockwood, 6-4, 6-1; Mrs. Cook beat Miss Fox, 6-3, 1-6, 6-3.

Tri-City League Teams Cross Bats

on League Grounds Today.

A Tri-City League baseball game will be the attraction at the league grounds this afternoon. The Trunks, with Pitcher Gardner, their "phenom," will go up against Charlie Moore's bunch of Apos-tles. The game will begin at 3:30 F. M. Gardner is the lad who held the hard slugging Frakes down to four hits last Sunday, and struck out eight of the heav-iest hitters in the league. Charlie Moore will go on the mond, and his brother,

Otto, will do the receiving. Since the last meeting of the two teams the Trunks have been strengthened and ought to be able to put up a good game. Manager Partlow has secured several good players, among them Shockley from good players, among them Success from Pendleton, Robideaux, a clever infielder, and Metzer, a good hitter. St. Johns will present a fast team, and a clean, snappy game is promised. The line-up will be:

HENLEY, England, July 5.-The water carnival closed today. The weather throughout was cold and dismal and the annual picnic was entirely shorn of its usual brightness and galety. The Bel gians, as expected, carried off the principal trophy, the grand challenge cup, for the second year in succession, defeating Christ Church of Oxford in the final by a bare length, after a good race. Time, seven minutes, 31 seconds.
