VERY MUCH ALIVE

The Boise Statesman editorially hopes for the rehabilitation of the Democratic party.

Let the Statesman be not troubled. An eminent editor only emphasizes the brilliancy of the sun.

The Democratic party is not dead. It is not even sleeping. The wave of human selfishness, accentuated by the long complaint of almost inconceivable personal hatred that has temporarily submerged the Democratic party will pass; and the God-given principles that lie in its foundations will arise not only the guard for the baptism. While Humanity retains the principles of democracy can not die, and while these principles live there will be men with the manhood to maintain them, and to combat the forces of selfishness and greed that constitute the republican organization.

The Democratic party is in no danger of dissolution or disorganization, but the Republican party never in its history faced a more impending disaster than confronts it today.

The foundation of that party is wealth, interests, and wealth interests demand the Chicago nominations. But special interests did not roll up their stupendous vote that swept the nation. All interests malignant and deadly to civilization were in that majority. In it were not only the protests of those opposed to democratic government, but also the protests of those opposed to our American government, AND THOSE OPPOSED TO ALL GOVERNMENT. Every disease known to political therapy has entered the Republican convention structure, and their combination means death. We think the Statesman senses this, and is in earnest about the future welfare of the Democratic party, but it need not be concerned. No true Democrat has lost either faith or courage or hope. If he can't take part in the meetings now he will be found on the side lines, and when his country calls him to minister, part errors and save the ship—as it surely will—he will be right on hand with the old valuable goods.—Fayette Lake Star.

NYSSA SCHOOL NOTES

The High School has organized itself into a literary society and will give programs from month to month. Mr. Lewis, Miss Kennedy, Thora Lindley, Lillie Stair and Jenny Nestor constitute the first program committee.

At the same time the students of the High School elected Elias Dennis yell leader in preparation for the coming football game with the Intermountain Institute of Weiser. Please do not forget the date, Saturday, November 29th.

"The American school system does at least this for every one. It gives him a start. The rest is up to him, and that is all any man has a right to ask."

Our schools all go to educate our children, our laws to protect them; we surround them with restrictions intended for their welfare; but neither schools nor laws, nor both, can take the place of parents or relieve them from responsibility. We say, "There is no place like home." It is the parents who make the home—make it a place where children love to be or one from which they are glad to escape. The saddest stories of life are wrapped around unhappy or unnatural home and parental neglect and inability to control.—School Board Journal.

The following cities of the country pay salaries of $10,000 to their school superintendents: Omaha, Neb.; Akron, Ohio; Boston, Mass.; Buffalo, N. Y.; Cincinnati, O.; Denver, Colo.; Gary, Ind.; Louisville, Ky., and Rochester, N. Y. Other cities paying more than $10,000 are: Jersey City, $16,000; Chicago, $12,000; New York, $12,000; Pittsburg, $12,000. Ten years ago the $10,000 mark was the rare exception.

Throughout of fifty leading cities have increased the salaries of superintendents since Jan. 1, 1920, by amounts from $500 to $5000. The prevailing terms are from four to six years.

Certainly teachers have never been overpaid in the United States. A contract made in 1911 between Miss Flora Lansden of Cincinnati, and the school board of Union Township, near Hamilton, Ohio, has been recently found. It provides that the teacher be paid $15 per month and that part of the salary outside of this, over of them. To teach the ten school boxes the teacher traveled 36 miles daily on horseback.

Johnson: "I understand the sanitary survey committee found a lot of waste in the High School."

Jones: "Yes, there were only three teachers where there might have been five."

Teacher: "What sense does this illustrate? 'I have a million pounds.'"

George: "Pretense."

Physiology Teacher: "What should be done in case of a bad sprain?"

Bright Student: "Insult a doctor at once."

The school nurse performs the functions of a great key that will unlock health to the growing generation.

If a schoolmaster is not as brave as his educational convictions, what good are convictions?

Men who say it can't be done are interrupted by some one doing it.

VEGETABLES

Our vegetables are fresh daily, and are sold at very low prices.

Not Special Prices

Now, folks, these are not SPECIAL PRICES, but are our regular prices every day until conditions make possible further reductions.

The reason why we can, and do, sell for less than some of our competitors and still make a profit, is because we own our own business and pay no interest. A second reason is: we are not burdened with a lot of high priced labor, as all three members of this firm are practical workers and devote all their efforts to the comforts and satisfaction of our customers.

We pay the highest market price in cash for eggs, butter and poultry of all kinds.

We appreciate our present customers and solicit new ones.

GROCERIES

Our grocery line is most complete, all of the popular brands can be found on our shelves. Space in this issue will not permit of a detailed price list, but we assure you that our prices are RIGHT.
