NEW YEAR'S PARTY HELD

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Marshall were hosts at a gala family party at their home Monday evening. The occasion not only celebrated the opening of the New Year, but also the birthday of Mrs. Marshall's mother, Mrs. Lee Strickland, and also the return home to civilian life of Mrs. Marshall's nephew, Sgt. Don Share.

Present for the occasion were Mrs. Strickland's husband; her son, and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Share; grandson, Don Share; her three brothers, George, O. H. and Charles Scheidegger, and their wives; two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Jackson of Caldwell and Mrs. Lee Housholder and husband; three nieces, Mrs. Inez Wyatt, Mrs. Guy Green, and family, Mrs. Kenneth Parker, and husband, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Larson.

Don Share, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Share, was overseas two and one-half years with the 27th Wolfhound infantry regiment of the 25th division of the 8th army, and was a medic on the Korean battlelines for 11 months. Share, who served three years in the United states army, was released to civilian life from his sergeant's work upon receiving his discharge December 28.

The evening was spent at cards and a late supper served buffete style from a festive holly and pine-covered table, laden with sandwiches and salads.

LOCAL COUPLE WED

At a wedding performed Sunday afternoon in the Saint Mathews Episcopal church in Ontario, Miss Katherine May Peterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lee Peterson, become the bride of Huston Harold Brendle, son of Mrs. Alberta Brendle of Tucson, Arizona.

The double ring ceremony was performed before a background of lilies, snapdragons and chrysanthemums and candlelight with the Rev. Claire T. Crenshaw officiating.

Mrs. Oliver Stecker of Payette sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "O Perfect Love", accompanied by Mrs. Marion Hunsaz, who played the wedding march.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown, cathrain and a fingertip veil edged in lace. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book, which has been in the family 100 years.

Attending the bride was Miss Phyllis Akers of Portland as maid of honor. She wore a rose taffeta dress and a Juliet crown to match her dress and carried a nosegay of mixed flowers. The junior bridesmaids, Miss Linda R. and Karen L. Peterson, nieces of the bride, wore matching taffeta dresses of lavender and green with Juliet crowns and carried nosegays of mixed flowers.

Janet Sue McCurdy of Enterprise, and Alicia Peterson gowned in blue and yellow taffeta dresses and carrying baskets of rose petals served as flower girls. William L. Peterson II attended as ringbearer.

The groom was attended by his brother, Russel H. Brendle of Medford. William L. Peterson, David Brizendene, Everett Bruner and William Fiegel served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Peterson wore a long gown of thistle lace with rose accessories and a corsage of orchids.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, with Mrs. Chelsey Boyer, Mrs. E. C. Van Poten, Mrs. Irwin Troxell and Miss Catherine Troxell, all of Ontario, serving at the coffee urns. Assisting in serving were Mrs. William L. Peterson of Ontario, Mrs. Russell Brendle of Medford, Mrs. Leeds Bailey of Ontario, Mrs. Fred Bracken, Mrs. Robert McCurdy of Enterprise and Mrs. Inez Vaughn. Mrs. Kenneth Renstrom cut the cake. Miss Mary Jarvis was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. John Marshall the guest book.

For her going away outfit Mrs. Brendle wore a navy blue suit with grey accessories.

Following a wedding trip to Arizona and Mexico the couple will be at home at 616 Reece avenue in Nyssa.
