FOR THE SEASIDE CITY ELECTION.—A meeting of West Seaside property-owners has been called for tomorrow night at 8 o'clock at 414 Madison Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday at 2:15 P. M. and Morrison to discuss proposed improvements at that well-known Summer resort and to decide on a plan of action at the approaching city election, which is to be held Saturday July 13. The committee a Mayor, City Council, Recorder and Marshal are to be elected for the ensuing two years. A full list of officers has been nominated by residents of West Seaside, made up entirely of citizens of that town. The present town government is composed largely of residents of Clatsop Beach, who own property at Clatsop Beach, and who have inaugurated a scheme of improvement that is to be an issue in the campaign. The Seaside citizens who have put up a ticket are making a "home-rule" campaign. The Portland owners of Seaside property say that the success of this ticket means the reversal of their policy of improvement and they are going to nominate a ticket and put forth an active campaign for its success. All West Seaside property-owners are qualified to vote there whether permanent residents or not. An especially urgent invitation has therefore been issued to all property-owners at Clatsop Beach, whether residents of Portland or Seaside, whether supporters of the proposed boulevard or not, to attend Friday night's meeting.

MAIL SERVICE NOT SATISFACTORY.—Whatever the cause may be the present carrier service in Sellwood since the consolidation of the Sellwood with the Brooklyn Station has been far from satisfactory. A. C. Clifton, who reports from people of Sellwood the mails at present are delivered from one to two hours later than before consolidation. D. M. Donoghue, president of the Sellwood Board of Trade, said yesterday that the people are up in arms over the present service and will demand that a better service be secured. Mr. Clifton said yesterday that under the present system there is no Sunday mail, and such establishments as the woolen mill get no mail on Sunday. The reason is not in the free delivery district. Mr. Walburg also declared that for several days he got no mail at all. Sellwood is served by carriers who come from the Brooklyn office a distance of two miles and depend on the street-cars to reach their field. It is predicted by Sellwood people that the city will be forced to give good mail service under consolidation as they got when the office was maintained in Sellwood with two carriers.

RECOVERS MACHINERY FOR DREDGE.—George Simon, manager of the Pacific Bridge Company, says that four car loads of machinery for the dredge now being built by the St. Johns Sully Company have been recovered. More is coming. Work on the dredge and barges is being completed as rapidly as men and material can be had. Manager Simon says that there is a shortage of ship carpenters at present in Portland, hence there has been delay in getting the dredge under way, but now everything is proceeding satisfactorily. This dredge will be used to fill in the low land of the warehouse district between Belmont, East Water, Hawthorne and Union avenues.

Funeral of Mrs. E. B. WHITE.—The body of Mrs. E. B. White, who died suddenly at Seaside, has been brought home, and the funeral will be held this morning at St. David's Episcopal Church, East Twelfth and Belmont streets. Mrs. White was at Seaside, where she expected to spend the summer, Saturday until 10 o'clock she seemed in good health. Her husband, E. B. White, is a prominent Portland contractor. She also leaves a son and daughter, Albert White and Mrs. Margaret Hawley.

NELSON DIES FROM INJURIES.—The terrible injuries received by Christopher Nelson, while he was at work in the plant of the Peninsula Lumber Company Monday, resulted in his death at St. Vincent's Hospital at 11:30 o'clock yesterday morning. Coroner Finley took charge of the body and will investigate the case today. Nelson was caught in a belt and was jerked from his pocket before the machinery could be stopped.

SHOPLIFTER IN TOILET.—Mrs. M. C. Dalton, who was recently arrested in Portland for selling stolen goods from the Meier & Frank store, has been taken into custody in Seattle for a similar offense, and is held without bail in jail there. She was released here without any attempt at prosecution, upon promising to leave the city, although there was a strong case against her. She is said to be an expert shoplifter.

NO INDEMNITY TO BE HELD.—No inquest will be held in the case of S. Aleck, the Afghan laborer, who lost his life while working on the Brooklyn sewer late Tuesday afternoon. Coroner Finley investigated yesterday and decided the death was accidental.

THRESHERS' PAY RAISED. Loosemen, Teamsters and Women Cooks Get Advance in Wages.

M'INNIVILLE, Or., July 10.—(Special.)—At a convention of threshing machine operators held in this city a schedule of wages for employees and charges for threshing was agreed upon. For this season loosemen will receive $2 per day, and teamsters $3 per day. The wages paid for women who work in the cook wagons was also advanced, and they will receive $1.50 instead of $1.00 per day. Crop prospects are very good, although late sown spring grain is a little short. However, it will fill well if the season does not prove to be too dry. The harvest is in blast, with a good yield per acre, but smaller than usual. Considerable rain was down during the recent rains, but very little damage was done.

ED NELSON IN THE TOILS

Accused of Living Off Earnings of Disreputable Woman. Patrick J. Maher, detective of the District Attorney's office, and Patrolman Goltz yesterday arrested Ed Nelson and lodged him in the City Jail on a charge of living off the earnings of a disreputable woman. Nelson and P. Danielson were convicted last Winter of the murder of Oscar Lindgren, a North End saloon-keeper. They were given a second trial and later the charge was dismissed. Nelson's woman companion made a complete confession to Detective Maher, and it is hoped to convict the prisoner on her testimony. His bail was fixed at $2000, which he was unable to furnish. Since the crime began by the District Attorney's office there has been a noticeable decrease in the number of men of this class in the North End district.
