MORE TROUBLE IS IMMINENT

The Kentucky Feudists May Renew the Fight

THROUGH MARCUMS DEATH

Correspondents Are Afraid to Send Reports Out of Jackson

NO ARRESTS MADE NOR MOVE TO APPREHEND ASSASSIN — TWO MEN SUSPICIONED BY MARCUM —BALTIMORE ELECTION ENDS IN JUDGES' DISPUTE.

LEXINGTON, Ky., May 5.—Not a line is being sent out of Jackson, Ky., by the correspondents for fear of the feudists. A reliable man, who came today from Jackson to Lexington, said the conditions at Jackson were deplorable and renewed hostilities between the friends of Marcum and those in power are imminent.

No arrests have been made and there are no efforts being made to apprehend the assassin. The widow of Marcum went to see the body of her husband today for the first time, but Marcum's friends have been afraid to be seen taking any interest in him.

Before the shooting two men suspected of killing others in this feud in former years, passed Marcum. Marcum then remarked to a bystander: "I do not like the actions of those men; I'm afraid they are up to something."

Ended In a Row.

Baltimore, Md., May 5.—The result of today's municipal election in this city as to the mayoralty candidates is in doubt and will not be officially ascertained until tomorrow. Of 308 precincts in the city, 303 have been counted and they give a plurality of 382 for Robert M. McLane, Democrat, over Frank M. Wachter, Republican. In the other five precincts, owing to disputes between the election judges, the ballot boxes have been locked up for the night. George F. Heffner, Republican, is elected city controller. The Republicans will have a majority in the second branch of the city council, and the Democrats in the first branch.

Democrats Get a Few.

Spokane, Wash., May 5.—The returns from all but two precincts give Boyd, the Republican candidate for mayor, a lead of about 100 votes over Acuff, the Municipal League candidate. The other precincts will probably increase Boyd's plurality. Rasher, Democrat, for mayor, is badly beaten. Byrne, the present mayor, ran as an Independent, and will probably poll a vote about as large as that of Rasher. The Democrats elect Daggett, controller, and Eggleston, treasurer. Apparently, the Republicans have elected a majority of the councilmen.

Result In Omaha.

Omaha, Neb., May 5.—Frank E. Moores, Republican, was today elected mayor of Omaha for the third time, having beaten his three opponents out with about 1000 plurality. W. W. Moore, the Socialist candidate, received about 2000 votes.

THEY ARE JUBILANT

THE LADIES HAVE RECEIVED $350 FROM THE CELEBRATION FUND.

The Marion Square Improvement League held their regular meeting yesterday at the home of Mrs. Squire Farrar on Commercial street.

Several committees reported, among them being the soliciting committee, who were out yesterday forenoon, collecting the money which had been subscribed for the improvement of the Square. They reported having collected $292 yesterday, leaving only $11 to collect. They considered this very good work, and are grateful to the subscribers for being so prompt. The balance would also have been collected, but the parties could not be found.

The Fourth of July fund, consisting of $350, has been turned over to the ladies by the committee having it in charge. About $50 was retained in order that if any disgruntled ones turned up among the original subscribers, they could be reimbursed. The ladies are overjoyed at this turn of affairs, and yesterday passed a vote of thanks to the good people of Salem and to the committee having the fund in charge, for their kindness.

A vote of thanks was extended to Architects W. D. Pugh and Major C. F. Cramer for their kindness in donating the plans for the band stand now being constructed.

The president, Mrs. D. J. Fry, was designated as a committee of one to confer with Major Cramer, who has volunteered to design plans for the grounds and walks. So far no plans have been decided upon further than that they do not desire the walks to be straight, preferring symmetrical, winding walks. The details are to be left to Mrs. Fry and Major Cramer.

The meeting decided to hold their next meeting next Tuesday afternoon at Mrs. Fred Steusloff's.

The band stand is beginning to assume form and the work is being pushed as rapidly as possible by the force of carpenters employed by the Carpenters' Union. Yesterday four men were at work, and they were just putting the rafters in position in the afternoon.

They think the building will be ready for the painters inside of ten days.

The ladies are somewhat disappointed at the refusal of the entertaining committee to hold the reception and speaking in Marion Square on the occasion of President Roosevelt's visit, as they desired this to be the dedication service, but the State House is considered by the committee to be a more suitable location.

No decision has yet been arrived at regarding seats and a fountain, as they have hardly enough money for both, and they are now waiting for plans from the East. However, they will probably erect the fountain first. They have been promised more liberal donations as soon as the fountain is completed.

HEADED FOR GRAND CANYON

President Receives Royal Reception in Albuquerque

CONFRONTED BY TABLEAUX

Representing New Mexico Pleading for Admission Into Union

MORE IRRIGATION WOULD ENTITLE THE TERRITORY TO ADMISSION — HE WAS GREATLY PLEASED WITH GIFT OF NAVAJO BLANKET.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 5.—The President closed the most picturesque day of his Western trip with a stop of two hours in Albuquerque this evening. In front of the beautiful Alvarada Hotel he spoke for a few minutes to a crowd of 5000 people. The President dwelt on irrigation and its importance in New Mexico, but occupied the greater part of the time in discussing the qualities that go to make up good citizenship.

Directly opposite the speaker's stand was a tableaux representing New Mexico appealing for admission to the Union, forty-five little girls dressed in white representing the states, while one of them on the outside of the gate, at which stood Uncle Sam, represented New Mexico. The President said when New Mexico had a little more irrigation there would be nothing the matter with the little maid on the outside.

The President was presented with a Navajo saddle blanket. He was greatly pleased with the gift. Here the President was greeted by another big delegation of his Rough Rider regiment, and he repeatedly referred to his pleasure in meeting them and in visiting the country from which the greater part of the regiment was recruited. At 5 o'clock the President continued his trip to the West with the Grand Canyon of Colorado as his objective point

FOR PORTLAND EXHIBIT

PIECE OF QUARTZ SHOWING FREE GOLD BROUGHT IN FROM JOSEPHINE.

GRANT'S PASS, Ore., May 5.—Manager Kremer, of the Kremer & Palmer mine, of Mount Reuben, yesterday brought in a large chunk of quartz to send with the Josephine county exhibit for the Bureau of Information at Portland. The big piece is from a recent strike, and represents many dollars in gold. The yellow metal glitters in large grains from all parts of the rock. The gold could be picked from the quartz with a jackknife, so abundant is it. Mr. Kremer says they have a three-foot ledge of this out at their mine—rock that will run up into the hundreds per ton. The new four-stamp mill recently installed is kept busily at work, and the outlook for this new property is very promising. They have tapped the main ledge by tunnel and shaft to a depth of some 200 feet, and have proved it to be permanent, both in value and depth.

BRAVERY'S REWARD

FIREMAN DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES RECEIVED IN RESCUING A TENANT.

NEW YORK, May 5.—Fireman William McNally, who was burned in a brave rescue at the fire at East Fifteenth street and First avenue, Sunday, died today. McNally tried to save a tenant, but was overcome by the heat and smoke. Another fireman, James McAvoy, rushed to McNally's assistance, dashing through a window filled with flame, and brought McNally out. McAvoy was badly burned and had to be taken to a hospital.

J. O. MACK DEAD AT THE DALLES.

THE DALLES, Ore., May 5.—J. O. Mack died in this city after a short illness of pneumonia. Mr. Mack was well known in Portland, where he resided for several years. He had resided in this city for the past eighteen years, and was widely known throughout Eastern Oregon. He was born in Northfield, Vt., in 1851, and came to this city in 1884. He leaves a wife and daughter.

A COLLISION ON THE OCEAN

The Clyde and the Hamilton Meet in a Fog

THE FORMER WAS SUNK

Within a Few Minutes and Twenty People Were Drowned

BOAT LOAD OF COLORED WOMEN LAUNCHED FROM SINKING STEAMER WAS DESTROYED AND ONLY FEW OF OCCUPANTS ESCAPED — THE CAPTAIN SAVED.

NORFOLK, Va., May 5.—A collision at sea that cost the lives of twenty or more people and the sinking of the Clyde steamship Saginaw by the Old Dominion steamship Hamilton, occurred between the Winter Quarter lightship and the Fenwick Island lightship on the Virginia coast at 4:40 o'clock this morning.

The Hamilton left New York yesterday afternoon for Norfolk and the Saginaw passed out of Virginia Cape last night for Philadelphia. The fog was so thick that objects a ship's length away were invisible and, when the two crafts hove in sight of each other, the Saginaw veered, but the knife-like prow of the Southern-bound vessel struck the Clyde ship on the stern, cutting the entire rear of the ship away. The inrushing water caused the Saginaw to settle rapidly at the stern and the Hamilton lowered her life boats. The panic-stricken people rushed over the decks of the Saginaw and scrambled toward the bow. The life boats were lowered, and into the first fifteen colored women were placed.

The boat was swamped as it struck the water and the occupants were thrown into the sea and drowned. To the floating wreckage the people in the water clung with desperation, and many of them were rescued by the boats from the Hamilton. The others were drowned.

Before the life boats of the Hamilton had reached the Saginaw the latter had disappeared beneath the waves and nothing but her top-masts were visible. To these several men were clinging, one of whom was the aged captain, J. S. Tunnell. When he was taken off it was found that he had suffered severe internal injuries.

Columbia the Best Boat.

Glen Cove, L. I., May 5.—It required just twenty minutes today for the peerless cup defender, Columbia, to demonstrate that, in a light wind and beating to the windward, she is a better boat than the new Herreshoff's cup yacht Reliance. Starting from a point to the leeward and slightly astern to the Reliance, the Columbia sailed through the new boat's lee, tacked across her bow, and in the next log of a mile and a half increased her lead to nearly a quarter of a mile. The Reliance then withdrew. When the Columbia went through her lee the Reliance kept off and voluntarily gave up the advantage of her wind position, but she was none the less decisively and emphatically out-sailed. She was a quarter of a mile behind after the twenty minutes racing.

ORDERS IN PROBATE

ESTATE OF JOHN SAPPINGFIELD APPRAISED AT $5960—GUARDIAN APPOINTED.

J. A. Levesque, of Woodburn, was yesterday appointed by the Marion county probate court guardian of the person and estate of Andrew Arens, an insane person. The estate consists of personal property valued at about $291.

Alex Thompson, Grover Simmons and E. M. La Fore, the appraisers of the estate of John Sappingfield, deceased, filed their report in the probate court yesterday, having appraised the real property belonging to the estate at $5590, and the personal property at $370.75.

In the matter of the estate of William Fowler West, deceased, the court appointed the clerk of the superior court, of Santa Barbara county, California, referee, to take the testimony of Anna E. West, on certain issues in the proceedings of this estate.

In the matter of the guardianship of Elmo S. Miles, a minor, the sale of certain real property belonging to the estate, by the guardian, Alice A. Miles, to Fred de Vries, was confirmed by the court.

The inventory and appraisement of the estate of Cornelia H. King, deceased, was filed in the court, the estate consisting of real property in Salem, which was appraised at $1600. J. R. Linn, James M. Kyle and Thomas Kay were the appraisers.

The sale of twelve acres of land in section 29, township 8, range 1 west, belonging to the estate of J. W. Kirkpatrick, deceased, was confirmed by the court.

An order was made authorizing and directing W. B. Van Cleave, the administrator of the estate of Thomas Van Cleave, deceased, to sell at private sale, eighty acres of land in township 6 south, range 2 west; belonging to the estate.

CROP OUTLOOK BAD.

LAFAYETTE, Or., May 5.—The hop crop seems to be in poor condition. While some of the yards are better than others, most of them are backward, the vines which have started are puny and stunted and of uneven growth. In many yards there are missing hills, and the present prospect would indicate a very light crop for this year, unless the present warm weather should bring on new vines. It is safe to say that the crop will be lighter than for several years.

LARGE CROWD WAS PRESENT

Players Engaged in Practice on University Grounds Yesterday

THE AMUSEMENT LOVING PEOPLE OF THE CAPITAL CITY ARE DEEPLY INTERESTED IN THE COMING CONTESTS—GOOD MATERIAL TO PICK FROM.

(From Wednesday's Daily).

A large aggregation of baseball enthusiasts, including the officers of the Capital Amateur Athletic Club, assembled on the University campus at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon to witness the try-out of a number of local players who are candidates for positions on Salem's league team. The large crowd which assembled was ample evidence of the deep interest being taken by the Capital City's amusement loving people in the project recently inaugurated, and is further evidnce that all the necessary backing, financially and otherwise, to make Salem's nine a winning team, will be forthcoming. The prospect for a friendly contest for baseball superiority between four of the most prospering towns of the Willamette valley has appealed strongly t othe enterprising business men of this city, and their interest in the matter is daily increasing. The capital stock of the C. A. A. C. will no doubt be increased to $1000, and there is plenty of assurance at hand that the promoters will have no trouble in disposing of the additional shares. The matter has been launched in a business like way, and the executive board of the club being composed of some of Salem's most substantial and conservative young business men inspires a confidence that is bound to insure the financial success of the newly organized athletic club.

Some of the players who engaged in practice yesterday afternoon did excellent work, and demonstrated that there is an abundance of excellent material in this city from which to pick a winning nine.

The ministers of Eugene are taking steps to prevent the playing of games in that city on Sunday, but Manager Griffin of the Eugene team gives assurance that all games will be played in that city according to the schedule arranged..

GREATLY ALARMED.

By a Persistent Cough, But Permanently Cured by Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Mr. H. P. Burbage, a student at law, in Greenville, S. C., had been troubled for four or five years with a continuous cought, which he says, "greatly alarmed me, causing me to fear that I was in the first stage of consumption." Mr. Burbage, having seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised, concluded to try it. Now read what he says of it: "I soon felt a remarkable change and after using two bottles of the twenty-five cent size, was permanently cured." Sold by Dan J. Fry, Salem, Ore.

INSULTED HIS SISTER

DEFENSE OFFERED BY NEGUS FOR SHOOTING KEBABIN AT SEATTLE.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 6.—Because he alleged that Edward Kebabin had offered an insult to his foster sister, I. O. Negus shot and fatally wounded Edward Kebabin. At the hospital last night it was stated that Kebabin could not live but a few hours. Negus was arrested a short time after the shooting. Negus accused Kebabin of offering the insult, but before the man had time to reply pulled his revolver and shot three times. But one shot took effect. The girl who was insulted refuses to talk of the case. The police say that Negus has been in trouble before, and they discredit the story of the insult.

TERAZAS A REFORMER.

DENVER, May 6.—A special to the News from El Paso, Texas, says: It is learned from absolutely reliable sources that Don Luis Terazas, the new Governor of the state of Chihuahua, will not only refuse consent for prizefights to be held in his state, but will also endeavor to suppress all forms of gambling. The stand taken by Governor Terazas necessarily puts an end to the movement to hold prize fights in Juarez, Mexico, across the border from this city.

FIRE AT CARSON.

BAKER CITY, Or., May 6.—Advices reached this city today of a fierce conflagration which raged yesterday afternoon at Carson, in Pine Valley, east of here, which burned the handsome dwelling of R. T. Langrell, together with the contents and three outbuildings. The damage is placed at $4500, with $1000 insurance. The cause of the blaze is not known.

INVESTIGATING LAUNDRIES.

TACOMA, Wash., May 6.—Labor Commissioner Blackman is in the city investigating charges that have been made in regard to women being forced to labor more than ten hours in some of the laundries of Tacoma.
