KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—Twenty-six years ago yesterday the first organization of the Knights of Pythias was started in Philadelphia through the efforts of a man named Rathbone, and the anniversary of the event was celebrated last evening in a most pleasing manner by Central lodge No. 18, of this city, and its invited guests. The original intention of the lodge was to have a grand celebration, in which the Knights of surrounding towns were expected to participate, but the floods and attendant mishaps destroyed those arrangments and confined the attendance to local Knights and their friends. But the event was a grand success just the same. When the hall was comfortably filled with ladies and gentlemen, Hon. Frank C. Baker called the house to order and delivered a short address of welcome, after which Diamond's orchestra, with Miss Pearl Scott at the piano, furnished music. J. Benson Starr's rich baritone furnished a delightful song which was highly applauded. Dr C. H. Hall was then introduced as orator of the evening, and gave a short, but interesting history of the order, its aims, objects and rapid growth, closing with a happy allusion to the prodigal son and the fatted calf which brought down the house. This was followed by the appearance of Miss Hallie Parish, who sang in her charming manner and was encored so persistently that she responded again with her usual good nature and set the audience in rapture. More orchestral music and then the banquet hall was thrown open, revealing a sumptuous spread of most delectable delecacies, which received due attention until all present were served to satiety. The work of clearing the hall was quickly performed and in a short time the dancing began. This was the order of the evening until a late hour, when all retired, thankfully sensible of the "Friendship, Charity and Benevolence" of the open hearted Knights of Pythias.

ANOTHER JAIL DELIVERY.—Yesterday morning, when the sheriff at Eugene went to serve breakfast to his six prisoners, he was startled to learn that during the night they had made their escape. They evidently had assistance from the outside, for they had a piece of a spring made into a saw with which they cut through the boards on the inside and then removed a stone from the wall making a hole barely large enough to crawl through. At present there is no clue to their whereabouts but the officers commenced searching for them as soon as it was learned that they had escaped. Reed, the timber land swindler was the worst man in the lot and he has gone with the rest. Most of the others were waiting for the grand jury on a charge of larceny. —A description of the escaped persons has been telegraphed all over the country as follows: Fred Reed, 5 feet 8 inches, dark curly hair, sandy moustache, striped pants; Ed. Gerald, 5 feet 9 inches, brown hair, lump on right side of neck, aged 25; Fred Cooper, 5 feet 6 inches, regular tramp, stoop shouldered, aged 21; Jos. Chapman, 6 feet, wears red shirt, aged 26; Geo Bearsfield, 5 feet 5 inches, dark complexion, little eyes, aged 20; Wm. Putman, 5 feet 5 inches, red shirt, aged 20.

THE SALEM FOUNDRY.—The death of H. C. Wandt, partner with O. D. Hutton in the Salem Iron Works, left the latter gentleman without a blacksmith fully conversant with the details of required work, and to fill the position has been Mr. Hutton's great anxiety. He has succeeded. Mr. A. S. McCarl, brother of J. A. McCarl, engineer at the asylum, has accepted the position and arrived from Albina to-day, intending to move his family here as soon as possible. Mr. McCarl came last year from Glasgow, Scotland, where he learned his trade and spent nine years in one shop. He started in as a common blacksmith at the Albina car shops, and in less than the year's time was promoted to head blacksmith with six fires under his control. Mr. Hutton was fortunate in securing such an accomplished workman, which will insure the continuance of the excellent reputation enjoyed by the Salem foundry for fine work.

SALEM'S GATHERING STRENGTH. —The Dallas Times-Mountaineer: "Every citizen of Salem, without a single exception, rich or poor, says the bridge must be rebuilt. Such unanimity augurs well for the future of Salem. She will gather strength from her losses, rebuild better and grander than before, and the spirit of enterprise thereby infused will push the city and country forward at a rate that will discount any past period of development."

A COMMON SIGHT.—A man going into the country with a load of fruit trees—"I'm going to raise fruit for the cannery."

LITERARY ENTERTAINMENT.—A literary entertainment will be given by the joint societies in the University chapel on the evening of Feb. 22d, to which all will be welcome. These exercises are given to allow the public to see what the societies are doing in a literary line. Those who desire to hear a good programme should avail themselves of this opportunity. The following is the programme: Music, by University band; oration, Vergil Peringer; Poem, Sue Harrington; instrumental duet, Misses Mamie Parvin and Mary Steiner; essay, Carrie Royal; quartette, Misses Adams and Brown, Messrs. Ginn and Steeves; recitation, Miss Jenne M. Long; music, band. Exercises will begin at 8 o'clock.

NOMINATIONS.—The telegraph wires announce the fact that the president has seen fit to nominate John Kelley supervisor of the census, for the first district of Oregon, in place of Hon. H. Shupe, who declined to qualify. Mr. Kelley is one of Oregon's early pioneers who came across the plains in 1849, and, has since been identified with the republican party. He served one term of eight years as Register of the land office at Roseburg, and was afterwards collector of customs at Portland. His home is now at Springfield, Lane county.

The ladies of the M. E. church will give a musical and literary entertainment in the parlors of the church to-morrow evening at 7:30. A good programme will be provided. After the rendition of the programme a social time will be spent in forming acquaintances and partaking of a good supply of home-made candy, prepared by the ladies themselves, and freely distributed. Let each consider this a personal invitation to be present.

SERIOUSLY ILL.—Mrs. S. A. Leach has been very sick the past few days, but is to-day much improved and hopes are entertained that she will soon be able to be in the family circle again.....Miss Ella Thompson has been unable to be present at her rescitations the last few days at the University, being detained on account of sickness. Dr. Rowland informed her she had la grippe. She is improving nicely and will in a few days be with her classmates.

FALSE ALARM.—Last evening, a few minutes past seven there sounded a fire alarm, turned in from the fourth ward. In a short time the streets were thronged with people eager to know where the fire was. The alarm was a false one. The burning out of a chimney in the Chemekete hotel had been noticed by someone who turned in the alarm.

TO QUENCH THEIR THIRST.—The Albany Herald says: "Samuel Adolph, of Salem, is in the city looking for a location to start a brewery. He expects to invest about $30,000 in the business here." Mr. Adolph is a man of ample means, good business qualifications and a pleasant, genial gentleman and a good neighbor.

PROBATE COURT.—In the matter of the estate of Lavina Stratton, deceased, Julius Stratton, appointed executor by will, could not serve and recommended P. H. D'Arcy as administrator with will annexed, and County Judge Shaw made the appointment accordingly.

BODY FOUND.—The body of W. C. Turner, the young man who was recently drowned in the Wild Cat creek, Linn county, was found last Thursday on a sand bank about a mile and a half or two miles below where he was drowned.

WILLING TO SETTLE.—A JOURNAL reporter was informed this afternoon by one of the city councilmen that Mayor Williams has been instructed to settle with Irving Claggett by paying him $125.

MUST CLOSE OUT.—Two hundred choice twenty-five-cent novels are offered at Patton's for fifteen cents each. They will not be on his counter long at that price.

Mr. Reiner, of Monmouth, Ill., is visiting with his Aunt Mrs. Cox 229 Front street. Chas. Armstron is also with him, but leaves for Portland this morning.

In Memory of Miss Osborn.

On Saturday evening between sunset and dark, Miss Lillie Osborn, aged 20 years, committed suicide by drowning herself. Cause reported to be dispondency, brought on by poor health. She was the joy of her home and beloved by all who knew her, and she leaves many friends to mourn her death. She was the daughter of Perry Osborn and wife.

Yet again we hope to meet thee
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed.
