Armenian Priest Says They Circulate Charge of Blackmailing.

SPIES SWARM IN NEW YORK

Former Treasurer of Hunchakist Declares Agitation Started to Discredit Patriotic Movement. His Own Life in Danger.

NEW YORK, July 26.-Rev. Lovent Martogessian, once treasurer of the Hunchakist, the Armenian society which outsiders say has fallen from its high estate of patriotism to the practice of blackmail, gave today a new twist to the District Attorney's investigation of the organiza-

The priest had been subpensed to tell what he knew. This was to the effect that the present agitation, directed by reputable Armentans against a band of assassins, was inspired by the Turkish governsins, was inspired by the Turkish govern-ment, whose hired spies systematically sought to discredit the patriotic Arme-nians in this country. The paster of the Armenian Apostelic Church had, be ad-mitted formerly been a member and the tressurer of the Hunchakist, but some time ago withdrew. He knew nothing of the murder of the rug merchant. Tavshan-jian, who had refused to pay $10,000 for his life, and, if extortion had been prac-ticed, he knew nothing of it.

Persecuted by Turkish Spies.

On the contrary, he told the District Attorney that he himself was the object of persecution on the part of the Turk-ish government. Pressed to throw light workings of the conspirators, the priest replied:

"You are a rich and powerful Nation, and you can find out more than I can." The priest brought with him a letter not s)gned, in which a threat to take his life was made. He turned it over to the District Attorney.

After leaving Mr. Smythe's office,
Father Martogessian said: Father Martogessian said:
"I answered every question asked me without hesitation, and without any intention of concealing anything. I have nothing to conceal. I am a priest, an Armenian by birth and an America citizen. I came here this morning, although I am not under arrest and I did not have to appear anything. I would be to America. to answer anything. I wrote for Assist-ant District Attorney Smythe and signed my name several times.

Says Turks Hound Him.

"I am entirely innocent of these insinu-ations which have been cast against me. All my troubles have been cast against me.
All my troubles have been brought on by Turkish spies. There are 50 of them in this city, and they are constantly hounding me. I never demanded money fromanybody and have never gone to any wealthy Armenian for any.

"The Turkish government is behind it

The Turkish government is behind it "he added, "I am in danger of my n life. I have been threatened many times, and I intend to go to Police Com-missioner Bingham and ask him for a permit to carry a revolver."

Mr. Smythe sald tonight that he had not secured evidence upon which to ask the grand jury to indict any one. He is examining many Armenians, but is having some difficulty in securing translations of latters and papers received by lations of letters and papers received by him. Three letters found upon the body of Tavshanjian were translated today and found to contain nothing bearing on

The defense tells you that outside "The defense tells you that outside of Orchard's testimony there is nothing here to prove a conspiracy. What more do you want? We put Orchard and Simpkins and Moyer and Haywood and Petthone together in Denver. Now, witch them as they move to the scene of Frank Steunenberg's murder."
He showed the friendship among these and then he quoted Pettibone's letter, written to Orchard at Caldwell, saying: "Friend Tom, that was sent to Jack

'How," exclaimed Mr. Borah, "did Pettibone know that Orchard, under the name of Tom Hogan, was at Caldwell? Why did Haywood send a draft for $190 to Jack Simpkins on December 21? Has Petitione come here to say a word as to this? Now, watch these co-conspirators, how quickly they act. Scarcely had the of Tom Hogan's arrest been flashed to the world than atturneys for the Western Federation of Miners flocked into Caldwell from three directions."

Where Simpkins' Trail Leads.

Jack Simpkins was the man who went to see Fred Miller at Spokane, Jack Simp-kins was the man who sent the myste-rious and unexplained cipher telegram to Haywood. The wording of Simpkin's telegram, Mr. Borah declared, showed that he knew Haywood had full knowledge of the case. And Haywood "got edge of the case. And Haywood "got busy" The he said:

"Follow Simpkins, Orchard, Moyer, Maywood and Pettibone from Denver to the death of Steunenberg at Caldwell, review the testimony, watch their actions, and I say to you that an absolute and concerted conspiracy has been proved.
"They killed Steunenberg to show to the world that they never forgot an enemy.
"Why is Pettibone afraid to speak?
Where is Jack Simpkins, who was at Where is Jack Simpkins, who was at Caldwell with Orchard and could tell so much? He is in a corner and afraid to come to say a word for his life-long friends."

Borah said he was ready to admit that Harwood was shrewd, keen and possessed of brains. "Of course, he has brains," he exclaimed: "He had brains enough to start a defense of the Western Feder-ation of Miners the minute he learned that Orchard, the hired assassin, had fallen into a trap.

"Did the Pinkertons send anybody to defend Orchard? Did the mineowners? it was the Western Federation of

"And," cried Mr. Borah, "when Orchard gets ready to leave San Francisco, where himself at first to the proposition of the defense that Orchard was a Pinkerton detective. Far from having any such connection, the Senator insisted that Orchard through four years of crime and conspir-acy was perfectly loyal to the Western Federation of Miners and the leaders of acy was perfectly loyal to the Western Federation of Miners and the leaders of the organization. If Orchard had had any sisister motive against Moyer, Haywood and Pettibone, if it had been his purpose to gather evidence against them, he had almost unlimited opportunity to do so. But, on the contrary, it had been shown that every piece of evidence which came into Orchard's hands was destroyed by him even to the letter received from by him, even to the letter received from George A. Pettibone in the Caldwell fall. Never at any time did Orchard undertake to build up a case against Haywood or any of his associates.

Haywood's Rights Guarded.

Discussing briefly the Colorado situation, Mr. Borah said the crimes and disturbances in Cripple Creek and Telluride were brought into the case only to show the motive, the conspiracy, the combina-tion and the understanding which finally led to the murder of Steunenberg. The jury was not asked to convict on any other crimes than the last. As to the alleged "kidnaping" of the defendants in rado and bringing them to Idaho he said:

If these men were not legally here, they would not be here. You gentlemen are not concerned with how they got here, or any other question than whether or not this defendant was connected with the event at Caldwell. If he was, then it was our law which was violated. If he was, it was our citizen who was murdered. If he was, it was in our jurisdiction that he raised the red hand, and it is proper that he should be here to answer to an Idaho jury. And you know as well as I do that, while he is a stranger to you, his life and his liberty are just as safe in your hands as they would be with any jury in their home state of Calorado.

Colorado.

Bill Haywood is in no more danger of being convicted in Idaho, unless the evidence shows his guilt beyond a reasonable doubt, than he would be in Colorado. The court, the attorneys for the state, and everybody connected with this case have extended to Mr. Haywood every right, every privilege, every courteey known to the law as the right of the defendant Haywood. Haywood and Moyer on the witness stand were allowed to tell all they wanted to tell, in violation or all the laws of evidence and without a single objection from myself or my associates.

Mr. Borah scathingly arraigned the defense for not putting Steve Adams on the stand. Adams, the associate of Harry Orchard, could, if anybody could, prove that Orchard was telling the truth, especially about the Independence depot affair.

Bitterly Assails Darrow.

'Mr. Darrow gives you as an excuse for the beating of old man Stuart at Cripple Creek the fact that he was a 'scab.'
There, gentlemen, lies the motive for the Independence depot explosion. The 14 men blown to atoms that fateful 6th of June were 'scabs.''
Nearing the close of his argument, Mr.
Borah came to the attempts upon the Borah came to the attempts upon the lives of Governor Peabody, General Sher-man Bell and Judges Goddard and Gabbert, and said they were the result of doctrines such as had been enunciated before the jury by Clarence Darrow, of Chicago. He bitterly assailed Mr. Darrow and declared that, if the Western Fed-eration of Miners regarded constitutions as being only for the rich, the laws as as being only for the rich, the laws as being made only to be broken, it was the most potent motive ever put into the brain of man to take the law into his we hands and go forth to commit crime.

"We are here," he exclaimed, "to de-termine whether or not the State of Idaho can enforce the laws put on its statute books for the protection of life and property. But if the statements of Mr. Darrow in his argument reliect the sentiment of the Western Federation of Miners, there need not be any doubt in your minds as to whether or not the de-fendants at Bar would commit murder upon men who represented the law." At the conclusion of Mr. Borah's argument, Judge Wood announced that he would charge the jury at 10 o'clock tomorrow.

Darrow and Haywood's Praise.

Mr. Darrow said tonight: Borah's speech to the jury was the fair-est and the ablest I have ever heard from counsel in a great murder trial. Mr. Borah might have said more without going outside the record, but it was noticeable that he omitted some things in order to avoid the slightest tinge of unfairness."

onduct of the case throughout. When Haywood reached his cell at the County Jail, after the adjournment of court, he said to Ras Beemer, the Deputy Sheriff in the charge of the jail: Well. I have heard the best of them in the country, but Borah beat them all."

M'GEE GIVES HIMSELF UP

Voluntarily Returns to Answer New Charge of Perjury.

BOISE, Idaho July 26.—(Special.)—Dr I. L. McGee, of Wallace, for whom a second warrant was issued a few days ago for perjury in the Haywood case, arrived tonight and surrendered himself to the Sheriff. He was permitted to go on his own recognizance until tomorrow morn

In an interview the doctor stated that he left here early Wednesday morning. The train was late and he missed the Pendleton connection. Going to Umatilla, he caught a freight to Pasco and there boarded a Northern Pacific train for Spo-kane. At the latter place he found in the paper that he was wanted and started for paper that he was wanted and started for his Summer home at Coeur d'Alene. Af-ter transacting some business there he took his launch for Chatacolet and took the train for Bolse. He did not submit himself to arrest at Spokane, because when he was arrested there before he had when he was arrested there corors he had to pay a deputy to accompany him to Bolse, as he wished to come promptly. The doctor was discharged on this charge of periury last Tuesday. There was dissatisfaction over the action of the Justice of the Peace, and a warrant was then secured from the Probate Judge. It was wired north but none of the effects.

Answering at great length the theory of the defense that attempts on the life of Fred Bradley at San Francisco were acidents and not the design of Orchard, Mr. Borah pointed out that the latter moved directly from Denver to San Francisco. He traced the movements of Orchard in San Francisco and ridiculell the theory of a gas explosion.
