EVANGELICAL CONFERENCE.

Latest News From the Stormy Albany Gathering.

BRETHRRN ONLY TO SOME EXTENT.

A Full Explanation to be Made at 2 O'Clock p. m. this Afternoon.

ALBANY, Or., May 5.—The city is still highly agitated over the events concerning the unfortunate church affair. The public is becoming more and more interested. Everybody acknowledges that it is not an affair of small interests.

GOOD WILL.

The members of conference and the Bowmanites meet and greet each other as brethren and it is evident deep wounds have been made on both sides. Of course the hot-headedness of some prevent them from being truly friendly. The ex-bishop when told by one of his opponents "that we are brethren still" answered with emphasis, "only to some extent." Because men think that he is not a bishop any more they are his brethren "only to some extent."

FALSE CLAIMS.

It is remarkable how different the Bowmanites act now in comparison with their actions before the organization of conference. They tell all around that there was no danger at all in the direction of which the anti-Bowmanites speak now. They would even misrepresent facts They claim that the conference (as it was) is nearly equally divided and send out such statements. To make the public and their friends believe that five to eleven is "nearly equally divided" is just one more of the many misrepresentations that have been used all along in this church controversy.

"BISHOP BOWMAN SWORE."

The "boy" of the town reports all around that Bishop Bowman swore. When suspening J. Bowersox, he exclaimed with vehement gesture and oratoric power "In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ I suspend you." Bowman, no doubt thinks that this was not taking the name of the Lord in vain.

WILL EXPLAIN.

This afternoon at 2 p. m., Bowman will give a history of the difficulty. This will no doubt necessitate the conference to give its side of the situation. It is a pity that not every member of the Evangelical church knows all about this long continued agitation that has been destroying the peace and harmony of this church for some years.

SUNDAY SERVICES.

W. C. Kautner, president of Lafayette seminary, preached to a large and interested congregation at the M. E. church South. Though we may be forsaken by the "bishop," it was evident that the Lord was still with us.

J. Bowersox preached the ordination sermon at 3:30 p. m. J. M. Beauchamp, H. L. Pratt, and W. L. Beaumont were ordained elders.

The missionary meeting in the evening was addressed by J. M. Dick, W. C. Kautner and J. Bowersox. In a short time about $200 were secured for the missionary cause.

The work of conference will hardly be completed before Tuesday evening. Everything is being done very cautiously.

The Bowmanites have elected H.I. Bittner presiding elder of the entire conference. Their would-be conference is doing very little official work.

Our members and friends at Salem will have an opportunity given them to hear a full explanation of the difficulty that brought this division.

KATIE EMMETT.—Those who witnessed the "Waifs of New York" Saturday night as played by the Katie Emmett troupe were unanimous in praise of the star, whose name the company bears. She is a whole troupe in herself. One feature of the play, a coarse ballet dancer, could have been omitted with pleasure to the audience, but the rest were all fair and some exceedingly good, the prominent characters of merit being Katie Emmett, as the boot black and newsboy, and G. W. Thompson, as the German character. La petite Lillie, as the little waif, was also good.

There will be more money invested in Salem real estate this year than in any other year before. Now the question to ask yourself is, whether you want to buy now at present prices or wait till next week or next month and pay more. That is, do you want to wait and pay the other fellow a profit which could have belonged to you. We are sure you will feel better to have the profit jingle in your own pockets. If you can't buy a large place, buy a small one. You can hardly fail to make money. But whether you buy or not, do not forget to keep your eye on the Garden road. Salem Land Co., Postoffice Block.

The Standard.

"I regard Hood's Sarsaparilla as having passed above the grade of what are commonly called patent or proprietary medicines," said a well known physician recently. "It is fully entitled to be considered a standard medicine, and has won this position by its undoubted merit and by the many remarkable cures it has effected. For an alterative and tonic it has never been equaled."

GREAT CRIME UNEARTHED.

A Detective Gets Indictments Against Ohio Murderers.

HERMANN FOR FREE SILVER.

Arch-Bishop Ireland Speaks in Washington for the Blacks. Other Matter.

CRIME UNEARTHED.

FINDLAY, Ohio, May 5.—This city is excited over the sudden and mysterious death of Henry Strickler, a detective, who at the January term of court succeeded in having indictments found against eight prominent and well known citizens as principals in the celebrated Oman robbery, which occurred one night in February and subsequently the death by poison of a detective who traced the crime to them.

FOR FREE SILVER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—Congressman Hermann in an interview on the proposed republican silver bill says:

"I feel myself in accord with the platform recently adopted by the republican state convention of Oregon, which declared "in favor of the free and unlimited coinage of silver, and denounce any attempt to discriminate against silver as unwise and unjust." Our people of the West demand the remonetization of silver. They think it has been unjustly, unnecessarily, injudiciously and too long demonetised. I believe the bill at present agreed upon is the nearest approach to a practical realization of this declaration of the Oregon platform and the public demand at the present moment, and is a fair and satisfactory compromise until the near future shall justify a more radical course.

FOR SOCIAL EQUALITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—Archbishop Ireland, of St. Paul preached in the colored Catholic church in this city yesterday. His address was mainly devoted to urging social equality between the black and white races.

IN THE HOUSE.

WASHINGTON, D. C. May 5.—In the house upon Information of the death of Senator Beck this afternoon the speaker appointed a committee to take charge of the funeral arrangements on the part of the house, and then adjourned in honor of the deceased.

HONORS TO BECK.

WASHIGTON, D. C. May 5.—In the senate a formal announcement of Senator Beck's death was made by his colleague Blackburn. A committee was appointed to attend the funeral at the senate chamber at one o'clook to-morrow.

TO SAVE KEMMLER.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 5.—Another writ of habeas corpus has been issued in the case of Kemmler, returnable before County Judge Underwood at Auburn Saturday. It is issued to dispose of the question as to whether the warden of State Prison can legally execute Kemmler. The claim set up is that nobody but the sheriff of Erie county can execute him legally.

A GREAT INVENTION.

TURCKEE, Cal., May 5.—A. W. Chellis has invented an electric mineral ball which unerringly indicates the location of gold and silver coin when buried, and of ledges of gold and silver ore. He has given several tests before a select number of witnesses, always meeting with perfect success. To-day over 100 citizens witnessed two trials under test conditions. The inventor was carefully blinded and a large sum of money was concealed below the round house. By means of his ingenious apparatus the hidden treasure was found inside of ten minutes. The experiment was repeated and the same result was given.

OREGON RAILWAY INTERESTS.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 5.—General Manager A. N. Towne, who has just returned from Portland with Mr. Huntington speaks highly of the appearance of general prosperity noticeable throughout the Willamette valley. He said that nothing at all definite had been arrived at concerning the building of a branch to Astoria. Citizens of that place had visited Mr. Huntington with offers of a bonus if a line were built, but no promises had been made.

The Oregonian Railway, the somewhat neglected narrow-gauge system, running from a point on the Willamette river a few miles south of Portland to Coburg and Arlie on either side of the Willamette valley, which was purchased a short time ago for $1,000,000 by Mr. Huntington and his New York associates, is not the property of the Southern Pacific company, and may or may not become so. It was purchased by Mr. Huntington, and Stillman & Hubbard, Mrs. Hopkins-Searles' managers, who invested both Mrs. Searles' money and their own in the enterprise. Neither Mr. Stanford nor Colonel Crocker has any interest in the road. The work of broadening, improving and equipping the road will proceed this summer.

As some matters are yet under discussion and no order to resume work has as yet issued, the carpenters' council sent out word and called off the mistaken workers. It is thought work will be resumed by Friday.

MURDERER'S RESPITE TO MAY 19.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 5.—The United States Supreme Court has declined to grant a writ of habeas corpus for the murderer, Kemmler, under sentence of death in New York by electricity, pursuant to order of Judge Wallace, but decided to hear motion for a writ of error, May 19.

FARMERS' ALLIANCE IN TEXAS.

NEW ORLEANS, May 5.—The Picayune's Austin, Tex., special says the Farmers' Alliance in Texas is in trouble and some sensational developments are rumored. In 1887 the leaders organized at Dallas an exchange, with a capital of $500,000, the stock being taken by the subordinate lodges. The exchange lasted about two years, during which time, it is alleged, nearly $250,000 was squandered, and there was nothing to show for it but about $40,000 of property. The farmers who contributed the money are anxious to have an investigation, and will institute suit to recover certain property in Dallas now occupied as the Alliance and Commercial agency.

House and four good lots in Capital park only $800. Property near Minto's in South Salem, fine location. Two choice lots in Highland, liberal discounts for a building, and a nice house and lot in Englewood on the installment plan. By the way, Englewood property is selling right along. It is without doubt gilt edge property and will yield a big profit to the man who invests now. Come and let us show you around. Salem Land Co., Postoffice block. 5-3-tf.
