SOME COMING EVENTS.

July 4. Grandest celebration in Oregon at Salem.

GILBERT & PATTERSON,

Dealers in Groceries, Crockery, Glassware, Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Brushes, Windowglass, Etc. Sole Agents for Epicure Tea and Big Can Baking Powder.

ARTICLES FILED.—The Marion Fruit and Investment company filed articles of incorporation to-day in the secretary of state's office, with Joseph Cook, L. A. Walker, and J. J. Hunsaker, incorporators; principal place of business, Marion, Marion county; object, owning and cultivating fruit land and fruit trees; capital stock, $10,000. Also the Mellis Mercantile company, with F. R. Mellis, F. W. Mellis and Sam Bernstein; object, to carry on a general merchandise business at Baker City; principal office, Portland; capital stock, $20,000. Also the Scow Bay Foundry company, with J. L. Lovell, Jas. Allan, and John W. Welch, incorporators; object, the manufacture of all kinds of castings; principal office, Astoria; capital stock, $3000.

WORKS OF ART.—At 277 and 279 Commercial street to-morrow morning Dalrymple puts up the finest signs at the above place that your scribe, who has seen signs from the Atlantic to the Pacific, has ever laid eyes on. They are perfect beauties. They are a carved letter, inlaid with gold leaf under plate glass, on a showy ground, an expensive kind of a sign, but very durable and very beautiful. They will attract a great deal of attention and very properly. This is a fine lead towards putting all signs below the windows and Mr. Dalrymple shows enterprise. These works of mechanical art are turned out by Warren and Winstanley.

PUBLIC IMPROVEMENTS.—By reference to the council proceedings it will be seen that the grass is to be cut and cleared from Willson avenue before the Fourth. The JOURNAL is glad of this, as it will improve the looks and the comfort of that pleasure ground wonderfully. The matter of taking the fence away from around Marion square was discussed last night, but a protest was voiced from the people of that vicinity, who urge that if the fence is removed the park will be the rendezvous for teams and thus become a nuisance. This, however, could be easily prevented by an ordinance.

DEVORATIONS.—The promise of work going on already is that Salem will present a grand sight Friday. Workmen are to-day building high arches in the center of the intersection of State and Commercial and Court and Commercial streets, and many teams are engaged hauling in beautiful fir trees and other evergreens to be set up in front of business houses along the several streets, besides which, the flower garden, conservatory and shrubbery will be called upon to contribute to the the scene of joyous demonstration.

GOOD SCHOOL.—Prof. P. L. Campbell, President of the Normal college at Monmouth, is among the number of educators present at the State Teachers' meeting now in session here, and the JOURNAL acknowledges a pleasant call from him. Prof. Campbell is one of the most advanced thinkers of the state and takes a deep interest in all matters pertaining to the education of the youth and the finished training of teachers. The Monmouth college, under Prof. Campbell, promises a most prosperous future.

FINE CATTLE.—David Looney, of Looney's butte, near Jefferson, came home last evening from Monmouth, Illinois, where he purchased several head of full blooded Jersey calves and yearlings, the greater portion for his own herd and a few head for his neighbors. He had them in a car attached to the passenger train, as he was in a hurry to get them off the road.

AN INVITING PLACE.—Messrs. Robert M. Thompson and William Driver have opened up a neat, clean and comfortable restaurant on the east side of Commercial street next Simon's cigar store, where they are well prepared to furnish excellent meals at all hours. They have the room nicely fixed up, will give its management their personal attention and will spare no pains to give entire satisfaction. See their advertisement.

INSANE COMMITMENT.—George Corder, of Glendale, Douglas county, aged 28 years, was brought to the asylum for insane to-day, having been insane at intervals the past seven years. He has spells of violence and it took seven men to restrain him the twenty-four hours preceding his commitment.

STATE TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

They Meet in Annual Session in Salem, The Great Educational Center of the Northwest.

AFTERNOON SESSION—JULY 1.

The afternoon session was opened by an instrumental duet by Misses Steiner and Stratton, of Salem, who played with their usual celerity, which pleased all.

D. W. Jarvis, of Umatilla county, read a paper, "How to Make Teaching a Profession." Institutes have become permanent, and are an important feature in our educational system. Pay teachers well and a new era will dawn. The day is not far distant when those who are engaged to teach will have to be thoroughly educated and will be compelled to attend the normals and institutes. Good teachers should be retained in the same school as long as the work is done satisfactorily.

Mrs. Florence B. Martin, of the Failing public school, Portland, took up the subject of "Physical Culture in Schools." We are glad to see that public sentiment is being aroused on this subject of bodily training. Much can and ought to be done to incite in our children the desire for physical culture and bodily improvements. If you stand and see the children go out or in one of our great public schools you can, if a close observer, learn much of undeveloped physical organism, by noticing children with hollow chests, the result of insufficient physical training. In the rushing hurry in obtaining an education the muscular system is often overlooked.

A. J. Garland, of the North Brownsville schools, read a paper on "Technical Grammar." He showed the necessity of less technicality and more practical grammar and better methods of teaching it.

W. A. Hadley, of Minnesota, gave an address on "Libraries in Public Schools." He gave the results of the work as he had observed it in his state. The address was full of live thought, which is worthy the consideration of our public school authorities.

Prof. S. A. Starr, of Marion county; Prof. P. A. Getz, of Jackson; W. S. Gilbert, of Benton; Prof. J. Burnham, of Multnomah, and Miss Ella Hadley, of Yamhill, were appointed a committee for the establishment of libraries in the public schools.

SUPERINTENDENTS' CONVENTION.

The committe on text books to be used in the States Teachers' reading circle recommended Quick's Educational Reformatory, Shaw & Donnell's school room devices and Reed & Kellogg's English lectures.

Prof. J. R. Horner, of the class of 1888, of Willamette university, now principal of the Roseburg public schools, was unanimously elected secretary of the "Reading Circle" for the ensuing year.

The convention adjourned to meet one day prior and at the same place that the Teachers' association may meet, which will be some time during the summer months of 1891.

EVENING SESSION.

The program was preceded by a musical concert by the 2nd Regiment band, assisted by a few vocal selections by Prof. Parvis and Miss Harris of this city.

C. E. Bolton, of Ohio, gave an instructive talk on "Russia and Romanoffs." The lecture was beautifully illustrated, showing historical facts of the Russian empire, and some of her illustrious personages.

The lecture was a novelty in that line, and the audience was highly pleased.

WEDNESDAY MORNING.

G. A. Walker, of the Albany public schools, opened the program by reading a paper on "Compulsory Education." What right have we to allow a whole brigade of street Arabs to grow up in our midst. To compare the educated with the uneducated is to compare the strong with the weak; civilization with barbarism. Our public school system is worth more than whole armies and all the police force to suppress the ignorant. Many parents keep their children away from school for a pecuniary benefit, or for their own happiness, to the injury of that of the child in all his consequent life. The subject was discussed at length with reference to the results attained by other states where this system has been employed.

Miss Olive, of Canyonville, not being present, her paper which had been sent, was read by Mrs. M. H. Vanderpool, of Portland, the subject being "Shyness," which was well written.

P. A. Getz, of Ashland, opened the discussion of the subject of "Mistakes in School Management; Causes of Failures in Teaching." A number of prominent teachers made short speeches on the subject, among the number being the following: Prof. Ackerman, of East Portland; Mrs. M. H. Vanderpool of Portland; Supt. Carter, of Union county, a graduate of Willamette university; President VanSoy, of Willamette university; Frank Rigler, Oregon City; Prof. W. S. Arnold, of Willamette university, and Miss Cornelius, of Chemawa.

The association adjourned to meet again at 1:30 this afternoon. The last program of the session will be given this evening commencing at 7:30.

News For the Fourth.

See here boys! You must dress up for the Fourth. The Capitol Adventure Co. have just opened up a big line of new suits and pants which are selling at prices that will astonish you.

OFF FOR NEBRASKA.—Mrs. Geo. P. Litchfield, accomparied by her little son and daughter, Frank and Helen, took the overland train last evening for a visit of two or three months with her husband, who is now at the Santee Indian agency in Nebraska, in his capacity as Special Indian agent. Mr. Litchfield has been away now about fourteen months, and in that time has traveled over a goodly portion of the states of the Mississippi basin. He writes home that those who have lived here since childhood cannot appreciate the paradisic character of the Willamette valley, without living a while in other regions. Mrs. L. has never been out of Oregon before, and will see many strange features on this trip.

TRAIN REGULATIONS.—Many readers of the JOURNAL may not be aware of the regulations governing the trains under the new schedule. The overland trains carry mail and express, pass and let off passengers at county seats and crossings, but at no other points. The Albany local runs out a short time ahead of the overland and carries passengers only. If there are passengers at way stations who have through tickets they are picked up by this train and dropped off at the first stopping place of the overland. The Roseburg train carries passengers, express and pouch mail. Reference to the time card will show when these several trains pass here.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.—It has been accepted pretty generally as a foregone conclusion that Gov. Pennoyer would appoint Lark Bilyeu, of Eugene, to fill the vacancy on the circuit court bench of the second judicial district, occasioned by the election of Judge Bean to the supreme bench, but last night a general surprise was given to the public, when his excellency gave the appointment to Martin Luther Pipes, of Corvallis, for a long time editor of the Benton Leader and one of the most graceful democratic writers in the state. Mr. Pipes is a deep thinker and a fair minded man. His decisions will be honest and thoroughly independent.

POSTERS ALREADY UP.—Mr. L. A. Vierani, advance agent and one of the managers of the Chicago Comedy company, arrived in the city last evening, and immediately set the bill posters to work, putting up fine lithographs announcing the appearance of that popular company, now stronger than ever, for a week's engagement commencing Monday evening, July 7th, the opening play to be "The Black Flag," an English melodrama in five acts. Several new artists have been added to the company, and all new plays will be presented.

EXTENSION SURVEY.—The Capital City Railway Company is about to put engineers at work immediately to survey the route, make measurements and a profile for the extension of the electric street car line to the asylum, and in a short time it is expected a decision will be made as to the most feasible route to the rural cemetery and South Salem, and that the work of construction will not be long delayed.

NARROW BRIDGES.—A reporter of the JOURNAL to-day found a farmer kicking vigorously on the Twelfth street bridge near the depot, because he couldn't cross it with a self-binder his team was hauling. The bridge was doubtless supposed to be built 16 feet wide on the clear, but on actual measurement found it to be scant 15 feet, and the man had to go a long way around to get into the city.

SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.—Capt. J. W. Crawford, chairman of the G. A. R. committee, requests all old soldiers, sailors or marines, resident or sojourning in the city, to come out on the morning of the Fourth and join the procession, thus showing a full and undiminished enthusiasm in celebrating the natal day of American independence.

ATTRACTING ATTENTION.—The singers of the city are invited to meet at the M. E. church Friday morning at 9:30. A number of prominent singers from abroad will be there at that time and assist in the choruses of the day. This part of the program is attracting much attention, not only in Salem but in our neighboring towns of the valley.

COMING.—Dr. S. M. Campbell of Astoria answers favorably a telegram from the first Presbyterian church of this city inviting him to preach here next Sunday. This gentleman was formerly pastor of Rochester, N. Y., was twelve years at Minneapolis, and is well known in this state.

CORSETS MADE TO ORDER.—For corsets, ladies' and children's waists and underwear, call at the Corset store, 153 Court street, Salem. Mrs. Frank Cooper. d tf.

NOTHING LIKE IT.—For genuine amusement the equal of Simon Simon in "Painter's Wife" Friday night has not been seen or heard in Salem. You'll never forget him.

IMPORTANT.—Remember you can get a good Fourth of July dinner at the W. C. T. U. Hall for 25 cents.

How to Cure Nervousness.

A body with a nervous temperament will make known itswants through its natural medium—the nervous system. If it fails to receive proper nourishment the nerves will be the first to cry out. Dr. Hiller's Hypodolite Restorative ensures perfect nutrition to those who take it, and a perfectly nourished body cannot be nervous. For sale at D. J. Fry's.

OBSTACLES REMOVED.—A meeting of the tax-payers of this school district was held at the opera house last evening to take some action in the matter of bonds for the building of the new school house in North Salem. Previously the board was not allowed to pay more than five per cent. interest on the bonds, and the lowest bid they received was for six per cent. bonds, so their hands were tied. Last night's meeting authorized the directors to have the bonds bear six per cent., so that now they can accept the bid, obtain the funds and proceed with the work without delay.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Prof. Van Scoy is having some much needed improvements and repairs made in and about the Willamette university. A new sewer is being put in and the building is receiving a general overhauling, which will add much to its appearance and the comfort of the school.

Prof. E. L. Wiley, who has successfully managed the Capital Business college of this city, has bought the Green Mountain Business college of Chattanooga Tenn., to which place he will depart in about a week. In the departure of Prof. Wiley, Salem will lose an estimable family.
