CRIMES AND CASUALTIES

Stubbora Murderer Hung at Vancouver, Wash.

TWO NEGROES FEEL THE ROPE.

A Man in Ireland Butchers His Mother and is Found Eating Her Flesh.

PAYS THE DEATH PENALTY.

VANCOUVER, Wash., July 11.—Edward D. Gallagher was hanged here to-day for the murder of Louis Mar, near Lower Cascades last November.

Edward D. Gallagher, the murderer of Louis Mar, paid the penalty of his crime at four minutes past one p. m. At least fifteen hundred people had come to witness the execution, many climbing the adjoining sheds to see the ghastly spectacle. No further confession could be extracted from the man and at 12:56 Sheriff Fleming, assisted by deputies, marched him out of his cell to the gallows. He walked steadily but resisted when going up. When he had arrived up-stairs he sat down and Rev. Father Schram tried to get him to make his peace with the world, but Gallagher said he was not going to be hanged and don't care about eternity.

The sheriff told him he could say a few words to those present. He made a short stammering speech of no importance, about being sorry to appear before them in that position. An awful struggle then ensued, six men trying to pinion his arms. Gallagher resisted strenuously, but after three minutes, he was securely fastened and his feet tied. The sheriff then put on the black cap and asked the condemned man: "Be a man; tell me where the you killek Mar or not." Gallagher's last words were, "none of your damned business." The trap was then sprung, the man falling seven feet and after eleven minutes life was extinct.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., July 11.—Mrs. Thomas Beanan and Mrs. Henry Van Dozer, who were injured in the railroad accident near Oswego last night, by which three women were instantly killed, died four hours after the accident.

BREWERY BURNED.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 11.—The brewery of the Henry Muller Brewing Co., 31st and Jefferson streets, was damaged by fire this morning to the extent of a hundred thousand dollars. Two men were badly hurt.

COLORED MURDERER HANGED.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 11.—This afternoon Alfred Cooper, colored, was hanged for the murder of Jeff Googer. He confessed his guilt. His neck was broken in the drop.

ANOTHER JERKED TO ETERNITY.

NEW ORLEANS, July 11—William Jackson, colored, who murdered his paramour, Octavia Dillon, alias Mary Banks, April last, was hanged to-day. His neck was not broken, but he died of strangulation.

HORRIBLE WORK OF INSANITY.

DUBLIN, Ireland, July 11.—Intelligence has reached here of a horrible affair at Ballyneale. John Hart murdered his mother and chopped the body to pieces. When discovered Hart was found lying beside the remains eating a portion of them.

SILVER.

The Conference Bill Passes the Senate.

THE ROLL CALL OF THE SENATE.

Senator Teller Proposes an International Bimetallic Conference.

SILVER IN THE SENATE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—Last night the senate resumed consideration of the conference report on the silver bill and was addressed by Morgan in opposition to the report. He expected to-day was to be the crisis in the question of the currency of the United States, as much so in regard to the demonetization of silver and confining of coin to a single gold standard as was the act of 1873. He did not know what would be the effect of the vote to be taken to-day. If it should result in the adoption of the conference bill it would not be really more fatal to the prospect of silver coinage in the future than the act of 1873. The legislation of 1873 had been the cold-blooded assassination of the silver dollar. It had been presided over by the same senator whose fine Italian hand was to be seen in the conference bill. The bill was a total departure from the action of both the house and the senate, and was essentially as new as if it had been a novel written by the senator from Ohio within the last five days.

Morgan went on to speak of legislation on all important matters being now entirely controlled by conference committees and committees of arbitration whose proceedings were secret, and that if such committees were bribed to the extent of hundreds of millions of dollars, no senator would be permitted to find it out.

This statement was challenged and caused some side talk between Morgan, Allison and Sherman.

Morgan resumed his argument against the conference bill, and he called the attention of the friends of free coinage, especially of the senator from Colorado (Teller) to the fact that the same "fine Italian hand" which framed the act of 1873 operated in the conference bill to destroy utterly any hope of the remonetization of silver so long as it remained unrepealed. He predicted that when the others of the conferees came to realize what they had done they would feel like kicking themselves over a ten-acre field. The bill would monometalize the country; it would make gold the only thing with which to pay debts or buy any property. The craft of the senator from Ohio could not "after twelve-months consideration" have fixed up a bill that would more thoroughly destroy silver forever as a money.

Morgan spoke for three hours and closed with an appeal to the senators not to allow the senator from Ohio (Sherman) to thrust his stiletto again into silver.

Call also argued against the conference report.

Plumb spoke in its favor. The conference bill would give the country as much money during the next year as free coinage would give. The bill is a long step in the right direction.

Plumb said it was his belief if the bill becomes a law so nicely and easily will it work and so helpful will it be to all the people of the United States that the next step will be free coinage, he would vote for the conference bill regretting it is no better, and glad it is no worse.

After further debate a vote was taken and the conference report agreed to, yeas 39, nays 26, as follows; yeas.—Aidrich, Allen, Allison, Blair, Casey, Cullom, Davis, Dawes, Dixon, Dolph, Edmunds, Evarts, Farwell, Frye, Hawley, Higgins, Hiscock, Hoar, Ingalls, Jones (Nevada), McMillan, Manderson, Mitchell, Moody, Pettigrew, Pierce, Platt, Plumb, Power, Quay, Sanders, Sawyer, Sherman, Spooner, Squire, Stewart, Stockbridge, Wadleigh, Wolcott—39.

Nays—Barbour, Bate, Blanchard, Call, Carlisle, Cockrell, Coke, Colquitt, Daniel, Faulkner, Gorman, Gorman, Hampton, Harris, Jones (Ark.), Kenna, McPherson, Pasco, Pugh, Ransom, Reagan, Turple, Vance, Vest, Voorhees, Walthall—26.

The following pairs were announced: Hale and Gray, Chandler and Brown, Paddock and Eustis, Sewell and Berry, Wilson (Iowa) and Wilson (Maryland).

Adjourned.

A BI-METAL CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 11.—Senator Teller has this afternoon introduced a joint resolution in the senate declaring it to be the deliberate policy of this nation to use both gold and silver as full legal tender money, and instructing the president to invite the governments of the Latin union countries, and such other nations as he may deem advisable, to join the United States in a conference to adopt a common ratio between gold and silver for the purpose of establishing internationally the use of a bimetallic money and securing fixity of relative values between those metals.

THE JEFFERSON CASE.

Who Burned out and Robbed the Chinese?

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS.

The Section Foreman Under Arrest as Chief Actor in the Drama.

JEFFERSON, Oregon, July 11.—L. Rayborn, section foreman for the Southern Pacific at this place, was arrested last night for aiding and assisting the three boys in burning the China house last Sunday night.

His preliminary trial is set for two o'clock to-day. The state will prove by the three boys that Rayborn was the principal actor in the affair. What Mr. Rayborn's defense will be has not yet developed.

The trial is now going on and great interest is taken in the case by the whole community, as Mr. Rayborn has heretofore borne a good character and it seems impossible that he would be guilty of so gross a crime.

If About to Travel or Emigrate.

The voyager cannot be provided with a safer remedy and protective medicine than Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. Abundant testimony exists to prove that it nullifies hurtful climatic influences and the effects of exposure, that it reconciles the stomach to unaccustomed food, and prevents injurious results from impure water. Mariners, tourists, emigrants and miners have all contributed their quota of testimony in its behalf, and its protective influence has been most effectually demonstrated in regions and under conditions where, if not purely effective, that fact would long since have been exposed. In no class of disorders have its remedial and preventive properties been more conspicuously shown than in cases of malaria fevers, maladies for which it is the most popular specific in existence, both here and in the tropics, where its reputation is scarcely second to that which it enjoys on this continent. It is, moreover, a most agreeable appetizer and nervine.

EASTERN NEWS.

M'KINLEY'S CONTESTANT.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 11.—There was a supposition, when the democratic congressional convention for the 16th district in session at Oreville adjourned last night, that matters would harmonize and that the nomination would be made during early balloting this morning. This was not the case. They are having great difficulty in setting upon a proper man to pit against McKinley. The two leading candidates are still close together on the 54th ballot. The former is still holding his 52 and the latter has pulled up to 54.

MULDOON REPLIES.

NEW YORK, N. Y., July 11—William Muldoon has come out with a long reply in answer to remarks made by John L. Sullivan in which he says the Mississippi affair has cost him nearly $2,000 besides loss of time and discomfort, yet this great black guard Sullivan has never offered to pay one dollar to defray the expenses of Cleary and myself, his seconds. Now if Sullivan will fight Jake Kilrain again, I will put Kilrain in the ring weighing 155 pounds, and I will bet $2,500 that he wins the fight in less time than it took Sullivan to win the last fight from him. Kilrain can get backers for $10,000. As badly as Sullivan acted throughout the whole matter I dont care to see him whipped by Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rogers went to the home of Mrs. R's father, Doc. Humphrey, in Waldo hills, to attend the funeral of her grandfather, whose death is noticed in this issue.

Capt. John C. Bell, of Astoria, is on our streets to-day; greeting his numerous old friends. Tho' well along in the 70's his step is yet as elastic as that of a man of 50.

The Fourth at Salem.

Three thousand people from Polk county is a low estimate of those at the celebration at Salem on the Fourth. The steamboat Hoag had over two hundred on board. Promptly at the appointed hour the procession formed and its magnificence was an agreeable surprise. When the front part was at the state capitol, the rear was still on Commercial street, so it can be seen what an immense affair it was. A trade display in a procession is always the most interesting and this proved no exception to the rule. When all had assembled at Marion Square the Dallas brass band opened the program. The solos by the singers Miss Adams, Mrs. Strickler, Miss Parrish and Miss Harris were, with the excellent choruses, simply grand. The declaration of Independence was remarkably well read by Will D'Arcy, and the oration by C. C. Stratton was full of patriotic and instructive facts.

The crowd has been variously estimated at from 20,000 to 30,000. It was an immense jam. During the afternoon there were the games of which it was impossible to see all.

In the evening's contest between five bands the Dallas band was deservedly given the first prize. The Independence boys did as well as they usually do, and should have at least received one of the other prizes. One was given to Chemawa and the other to Silverton. The fireworks did not amount to much. Taking Salem's celebration as a whole it was a grand success. Everybody was happy and some even more so. —West Side.
