CHICAGO WHEAT MARKET.

CHICAGO, ILL., Aug. 27.—Close wheat, easy cash, 1.06¼; September, 1.06¼; May, 1.13.

SPANISH EDITORS IN TROUBLE.

NOGALES, A. T., Aug. 27.—Robert Bernal, editor of the Spanish paper published in this city, while on the Mexican side on Thursday, was arrested and thrown into prison on a charge of using abusive language at the customs official with whom he had a quarrel yesterday afternoon. Christopher Aguirre, Bernal's partner in the newspaper, while on the Mexican side, was also unceremoniously locked up in the same prison in which his partner is incarcerated. No charge has been made against Aguirre. While both men have been residents of the United States for several years, they are not citizens. Their paper has always been somewhat hostile to the Mexican administration, and this fact has doubtless led up to the present trouble.

MISSOURI HAS NO LAW ON THE SUBJECT.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Aug. 27.—Governor Francis has refused to proclaim Sept. 1st, or Labor day, a public holiday. He says his refusal is the only alternative he has under the laws of the state.

GOOD SPEED ON A TRIAL.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Aug. 27.—The San Francisco's trial trip this morning was successful. In a four hours' run she made an average speed slightly over 19½ knots per hour.

THE CHICAGO STOCK YARDS.

CHICAGO, Ill., Aug. 27.—At the stock yards this morning while business was not at a stand still, operations were not being conducted with their former facilities.

TO VOTE ON STATE CONSTITUTION.

SANTA FE, N. M., Aug. 27.—Governor Prince has issued a proclamation calling upon the people to vote for or against the state constitution at a special election to be held October 17th.

FOREIGN.

BUFFALO BILL AND DR. CARVER—ALL IS NOT LOVELY.

NEW YORK, N. Y., Aug. 27.—A Hamburg cablegram says trouble has occurred here between Buffalo Bill and Dr. Carver. Members of each troupe have declared their intention of fighting for their respective masters, even if the quarrel ends in a general fight. The place is in a state of siege, and the people are affraid to come out of doors after dark. Bloodshed has been so far avoided by the civic authorities. Carver has been following Cody all through the latter's tour of the cities of the continent, and his performances have been so much better patronized that Buffalo Bill's jealousy was aroused.

HEAVY PUNISHMENT OF AN ARMY OFFICER.

CITY OF MEXICO, Aug. 27.—The court martial to hear the retrial in the case of Lieut. Augustine Deyturbide for criticizing superior officers was convened here yesterday morning and Deyturbide was found guilty of the charge and sentenced to three hundred and forty days imprisonment, dismissal from the army and incapacitation from holding public office for a period of ten years.

CRIMINAL.

SEVERAL ALDERMEN ARRESTED.

BIDDEFORD, Maine, Aug. 27.—A sensation was created this morning when U. S. Marshall Saunders, of Portland, placed under arrest seven aldermen of Biddeford. The aldermen are charged with neglecting to strike from the Biddeford voting lists the names of persons not legally entitled to vote, and for conspiracy in arranging a place on the list for names of persons not legal voters.

HIGH OFFICIALS ARRESTED.

SANTA FE, Aug. 27.—Two warrants are held by the U. S. Marshal against Francisco Chavez, sheriff, for malfeasance in office, and also on Romulo Martinez, ex-U. S. marshal, Luciano Baeco, probate judge, Juan Ortiz Rodriguez, justice of the peace, Jose Ortiz Baeco, chief of police, Francisco Chavez, sheriff, and eleven others, charging them with being accessories to and some of them principals in the murder of Faustin Ortiz on March first last.

POLITICAL.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Aug. 27.—The Democratic State convention met at noon to-day and J. M. Marrow, of Sparta, was made temporary chairman. The mention of Grover Cleveland in his opening speech was received with the greatest enthusiasm. His denunciation of the Bennett compulsory school law was also vociferously applauded. The convention will, without doubt, demand its repeal. The usual committees were appainted, with Hon. W. F. Vilas as chairman of the committee on resolutions.

ACCIDENTS.

LOSS OF LIFE AND PROPERTY.

MANSFIELD, Ohio, Aug. 27.—The boiler of a locomotive on a freight train on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad exploded this morning by which the engineer and firemen were instantly killed. The fire communicated to the oil cars and fifteen were destroyed.

STATE.

YAMHILL KICKS ON THE CENSUS.

MCMINNVILLE, Or., Aug. 27.—The board of trade telegraphed to the Oregon delegation at Washington that specific facts had been presented to Special Census Agent Leland which he had wired to the department that Yamhill county was nearly three thousand short by the census count and urged them to press the matter for correction so as to maintain our legislative standing.

WASHINGTON

PACIFIC COAST MEMBERS WILL FIGHT.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 27.—This afternoon in the house a personal affray was had between Representative Wilson, of Washington, and Beckwith, of New Jersey. The former struck at the latter, touching him on the breast, and other members then parted the contestants. Wilson said afterwards in explanation of the difficulty that Beckwith had applied the most offensive epithet to him and on the spur of the moment he struck at him.

Public Examination.

A large number of applicants appeared before his honor, Prof. D. W. Yoder, at 12 m., to-day seeking admission to explain how much they knew and to be given the proper papers allowing them to wield the rod of obedience and to instruct the rising generation in the path of knowledge.

The following are the names of those who registered:

ED. CAPITAL JOURNAL:—Noting the article on the subject of "the Desecration of Sunday," by "Rusticus," please allow another "country subscriber from the Waldo hills," a word in the matter. I have been a bit of a baseballist myself; have played on Sunday; have went on pleasure excursions (same as "R," no doubt), have hunted and fished on Sunday and sometimes did ordinary work on Sunday. All of which I conceive that I in common with every other citizen of the United States have a "moral, social, and financial," and also a natural right to do. And so long as I do not abuse this right by tresspassing upon the rights of others, it is none of Rusticus' business what I, or any one else does. At least it has always appeared so to me, and does yet. And when the morality and integrity of people are called in question because they exercise the same right of choice in these matters as does Rusticus and his confreres, it is pertinent to ask by what right our motives or moral characters are thus called in question. Will Rusticus please answer?

Rusticus says: "The JOURNAL did not give us the names of those business men who rallied to the support of the baseballists, nor did it publish the names of those who cursed that alleged preacher. The names of these individuals would doubtless be instructive." Are we to draw the same inference from Rusticus witholding his name?

But please allow me to ask Rusticus a question or two and perhaps I can be set right and will "see the error of my way" and reform. What does he mean by "Sunday desecration," and "the sanctity of the day?"

Why call upon Dr. Stratton? Is he running Salem's affairs? Is he a moral, social and financial dictator in these matters? If Rusticus will inform us regarding these matters he will be doing a missonary work at home. And please don't sail under the false colors of a nom de plume and then cast reflections on others whose names the JOURNAL did not publish. He is doubtless one "of that class who represent the material and moral interests of the the country of to-day," and his real name "would doubtless be instructive." F. S. MATTSON.

WALDO HILLS ITEMS.

Plums are going to waste in these Hills, and being given away for lack of a market. Many cherries went the same way. Pears and apples will fall in due time. Cause why? The price offered is not sufficient to pay for transportation. With a cannery or drier near, this would not be.

Threshing is about done in these Hills and, farmers are praying for rain, as about now it would benefit hops. This continued dry weather will ripen them too fast, and lessen the yield. Jupiter Pluvius, withhold not thy hand!

I got a letter of inquirey regarding this country, from Chas. W. Smith, of Berlin, Conn., who is in charge of the Connecticut Valley Orchard Co's orchard, and he wants to come here and get employment in an orchard, to see how things are run here. I recomended him to subscribe for the CAPITAL JOURNAL and make inquiries through it.

The China pheasant has become the game bird of this valley. They appear to be thoroughly established and make themselves at home. The hens are now laying, or incubating their third hatch, for the season. We have raised one brood of eleven, from the first laying, have one bird of the second hatching, that we keep in a mocking-bird's cage, for a pet, and nine eggs of a third laying, that we will set under a hen. M.

Blood Poison

Is very likely to follow contact of the hands or face with what is known as poison ivy, especially in hot weather or if the body is perspiring freely. The trouble may subside for a time, only to appear in aggravated form when opportunity offers. The great purifying powers of Hood's Sarsaparilla thoroughly eradicate every trace of poison from the blood, as the cures it has accomplished conclusively show. It also cures scrofula, salt rheum and all other affections arising from impure or poisoned blood.

SALE POSTPONED.—The sheriff's sale of the property of Geo. A. Vawters, on decree of judgment secured by Geo. G. Bingham, which was to have taken place last Saturday, has been postponed one week.

Startling Discovery.

The discovery by the inhabitants of a healthy Indiana invalided to the pestilent swamps of Texas and again, that it exists in their very midst, is decidedly startling. Such discoveries are made every season in every part of the United States, and wherever it is ascertained that a remedy is in existence which has been tested by years of experience and found to be reliable experience of some one who has been benefited and cured, this Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is a thoroughly efficacious eradicator of the miasmatic poison, and a means of fortifying the system against it, a healing medicine to the weakened and debilitated, throughout the whole neighborhood. Indigestion, biliousness, nervousness, and all forms of malarial disease, from ague and aguecake are relieved by the potent action of the Bitters, to which testimony is given in addition to a remedy for constipation, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, debility, kidney trouble, and all diseases impairing the organs of digestion and assimilation.
