ENFORCING THE ORDINANCE.—The new city ordinance which was ordered published at the last meeting of the city council, but which has not yet been published, is being rigorously enforced in some respects. This morning the proprietor of the Willamette was fined $10 and costs and license fee—total $39,85; for employing a runner at trains in violation of the new ordinance. The city officials claim they are enforcing the new ordinance all around, but it seems to many unfair to do so when it has not been published, and the people do not know its provisions. The JOURNAL will heartily sustain enforcement of laws when the citizen is given a fair chance to know what the new law is. Mr. Wagner is very much cutraged at the action against him, and proposes to lend his influence to see if gamblers and other law breakers cannot be looked after as well as respectable law-abiding citizens.

RIVER NEWS.—The independent steamer, Manzanillo, went back down the river with a raft of logs for the paper mills at Oregon City yesterday afternoon. She stopped for a short time at the wharf in this city. The Oregon Pacific steamer, Wm. M. Hoag, passed down the river about 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon. She seemed, headed for Portland, and desired to get there without delay. The river is still slowly falling, but the register still shows several feet above low water mark. The steamer Northwest left Portland for Salem this morning and can be expected here this evening. She is owned by the Kellogg Transportation company.

BRIDGE COMPLETED.—The bridge over the Willamette river at this place is about completed and will be ready to be turned over to Marion and Polk counties Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Marion county court sent word to the Polk county authorities to meet them at the court house in this city at the appointed time Monday, for the purpose of making an examination of the structure. Engineer Grondahl was notified to be here also and to explain any question that may be asked.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.—State School Superintendent E. B. McElroy is arranging for next spring's series of district teachers' institutes. There are spring institutes for each of the seven judicial districts, but the times and places of the institutes have not as yet been determined upon. Salem being an educational center, and the many public institutions being located here, will almost necessarily make her the seat of one of the institutes.

THE FROSTS.—There is much discussion just at present among the farmers as to whether the frosts will harm fall grain. It is a general belief that it will not, yet there is one crop this frosty weather is helping, and that is the large crop of customers at T. Holverson's. They are getting the benefit of those winter-killed prices.

CLOTHING FOR THE POOR.—Some of the good ladies of Salem have collected and on hand quite a supply of warm clothing, which can be had by anyone who is needy by applying at the JOURNAL office. Anyone knowing persons thus in need can do a good work by siding in the proper distribution of these supplies.

UPHOLSTERY.—Keller & Marsh have secured the services of Mr. Cottrell, of Buffalo, N. Y., an experienced upholsterer of twenty years in fine work. Work of any description will be attended to at reasonable rates. 1-8-tf.

WANTED.—Fifty dozen old hens and fifty dozen young roosters. Highest cash price will be paid at Davidson & White's fish, game and poultry market, 94 Court street.

Jas. Denham & Co.'s leaders on ladies' and gents' shoes are bringing the largest run of trade that firm has yet had. They have one special bargain that pleases every lady buyer.

NEXT WEEK.—Fresh onions, lettuce, radishes and fine celery at Stout & Gile's. 1t

DOINGS IN SOCIETY.

The Week has Been Quiet in Social Circles—The Iron Work's Reception a Success.

GRAND RECEPTION AND BALL.

The opera house was packed to the very door Wednesday night by the friends of the Salem Iron works who had come out to hear the program which had been arranged for the occasion. The program was opened with an overture by the Second Regiment band which was all that could be desired in that line. Prof. J. M. Cooper was almost overwhelmed in applause on rendering a cornet solo. The vocal solo by Mr. J. H. Ross was received with wild enthusiasm. Miss Leona Willis added laurels to her fame for her power of rendering poetry in song. The recitation by Miss Jennie Booth was accorded hearty applause. Miss Grace Seriber maintained her good standing as master of select reading. Messrs. J. H. Ross, Lee Steiner, Henry Kundret and Jacob Wenger, Salem's favorite male quartette brought a roaring applause and was not permitted to quit with a single applause, but were compelled to return the third time. Misses Mabel Hutton and Linnie Stutesman executed in fine style a piano duet. The Street Scene in Salem was the fun provoking part of the program and was acted out to perfection. The scene represented an Italian with a trained bear with the usual number of small boys, tin whistles which accompany such a show on the streets. Frank Holman was the trainer and Allie Waller was clothed in a bear's garments and looked very much like the animal in question. This performance closed the literary part of the program. The auditorium was immediately cleared and the ball begun and a couple of hours was spent very pleasantly in keeping time to as fine music as was ever given to a Salem dancing party. Many who did not take part in the dance stayed for an hour or more to enjoy the music. The music for the dance was furnished by the Second Regiment, or more familiarly known as the H. A. C. band, the pride of the capital city.

NEW OFFICERS.

The Knights of Pythias at their meeting last Tuesday night installed the following officers for the ensuing year.....O. A. Waller, C. C.; A. Simmons, V. C.; W. Galliher, P.; W. H. H. Brown, L. F. Conn, and P. H. D'Arcy, M. of V., 1, 2 and 3, respectively; F. Folsom, tyler.

ALKA-HESPERIANS.

The Alka-Hesperian literary society held their election of officers for the ensuing quarter last night in their commodious hall in the Insurance building. The result of the election was as follows: President, Wm. M. Kaiser; vice president, Rev. Robt. Whitaker; secretary, Frank Davy, treasurer, C. B. Brown; librarian, N. R. Gaylord; sergeant-at-arms, Hon. Tilmon Ford. The officers elect will be installed at the meeting next Friday night, at which time a full attendance is expected, and friends of the society are invited to be present. The question of prison reform was discussed last night in an interesting manner. C. B. Brown and John O'Shea argued in favor of reform while Frank Davy and N. R. Gaylord negated the question. The decision was given by Dr. Cusick, the president, in favor of the negative. The question for discussion on next Friday night is: Resolved, "That the State of Oregon should Appropriate $250,000 for the exhibit of this State at the Chicago Columbian Exposition."

LOUISE HUMPHREY-SMITH.

The following is the program for the reading of Mrs. Smith at the opera house to-night:

"The Sun Dial."
"Au Revoir."
"The Secrets of the Heart," Austin Dobson.
"Good Night Babett."
"Mice at Play" Forest.
"Love Among the Ruins."
"Herve Riel." Robert Browning.
"The Broomstick Train." Holmes.
"The Curse of Conemaugh." Clara Mascelle Greene.
"Carcassonne." Mrs. Sherwood.
"Aunt Polly's George Washington." Anon.
Casket scene from the "Merchant of Venice." Shakespeare.

THE SWEDISH OCTETTE.

A fair audience greeted the Swedish ladies last night at Reed's opera house. The octette singing was grand. The melody of voices was not broken from the deep rich alto to the high musical soprano. Their voices blended together to perfection and the timbre was complete. All their selections were well chosen but their last rendition, "Sleep in Peace," was sublime. They are the best combination of singers that ever visited Salem. The solo singing was good. The soprano solo by Miss Sandius, and the alto solo by Miss Sohltorn, were heartily encored. The alto solo was the richest in tone and harmony. Not a single selection was allowed to pass without a response to continued applause. Mr. Day maintained his part well as the mirth provoking part of the program. The audience got even more than they had expected.

COMING EVENTS.

Among the coming events by home talent are, the recital in the University chapel next Wednesday night. Then comes the "Crowning of the Queen of Fame" in the opera house under the auspices of the Christian church. On the 28th of the month the Philharmonic society will give a grand concert in the chapel of the University. On the 21st Rev. C. E. Cline gives his famous lecture on "The Birth of an Iceberg" at the M. E. church. Aside from these will be the reading of Mrs. Smith, of California, at the opera house to-night. During the session of legislature numerous attractions both by local talent and traveling companies will be here.

JUBILEE CONCERT.

Mr. Wm. B. Dunlington has organized a troup of 16 colored men and the organization is called the Willamette Jubilee Concert and Minstrel Co. Seven of the performers are late members of the leading Pacific coast colored minstrels, the rest are Portland and Salem talent. The new company includes much good vocal and instrumental talent and will be heard at Reeds opera house Jan. 22. Reserve a place in your affections for the new company on its first appearance.

MONDAY NIGHTS DANCE.

The married people's dance which was given in the hall of the Salem City band on last Monday night was largely attended and a good time was had. A few hours was very pleasantly spent by the young married people of the capital city in a dance of their own. In fact not only were young married people there but older ones who enjoyed the evening as much as any one present. The dance was voted by all a decided success and that married people were not strangers to getting up a successful dance.

LAWN TENNIS.

The Salem Lawn Tennis club held a meeting at the residence of Mr. G. C. Litchfield, on Tuesday evening. It is needless to say that the forty members of this social circle of Salem's most esteemed young people, had a pleasant time.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Joseph Baker, left this afternoon for the new state of Wash.

Gov. Pennoyer went down to Portland this afternoon.

If you want a fine table fowl call at Jas. McCourt's 91 Court street.

Senator C. B. Crosno, of Benton county, came in on the afternoon train.

W. A. Munley, Gov. Pennoyer's private secretary, is in Portland this afternoon.

Geo. W. Waggoner, clerk of the railroad commission came in on the one o'clock train.

Jasper Wilkins, representative from Lane county, came down to Salem this afternoon.

Mrs. Smith's entertainment last night in Portland, was one of the most pleasant, and gives to the most cultivated audience ever assembled in that city.

Mrs. Louise Humphrey-Smith is visiting with Miss Stella Ames at the Woman's college during her stay in Salem. Hear her at the opera house to-night.

Mr. Newman, formerly editor of the Bunch Grass Blade, of Eastern Washington, is in the city, paying his respects to the legislature. He will be hear several days.

Miss Allie Bowman, who has been spending the past two years in the medical school, at Battle Creek, Mich., will arrive home in this city, this evening, on the local train.

Miss Ella Sykes is lying at the point of death at her home in Zena, Polk county. She has been teaching school at Zena till about a week ago when she was taken sick with erysipelas.

Mr. Wilkin, one of Oregon's delegates to the World's Fair Commission came down to Salem from his home in Lane county to-day. Mr. Wilkins has not been able to be away from home for some time on account of poor health.

The World Enriched.

The facilities of the present day for the production of everything that will conduce to the material welfare and comfort of mankind are almost unlimited, and when Syrup of Figs was first produced the world was enriched with the only perfect laxative known, as it is the only remedy which is truly pleasing and refreshing to the taste and prompt and effectual to cleanse the system gently in the Spring-time or, in fact, at any time, and the better it is known the more popular it becomes.

AT THE STATE HOUSE.

The Oregon Law-Makers in the Lobby—Numerous Aspirants for Positions.

A large number of the law-makers are already in this city. The first to meet them when they arrive at the state house or the hotels are about a score of young lads with their cards of introduction and announcing themselves as candidates for pages of either the senate or house. These little fellows are very persistent in being heard. The next to approach the solons are the older aspirants for positions of clerkships of various kinds. The way in which the legislators are sought out makes them feel the importance of their positions. The caucuses are being held in all the rooms about the state capitol. What the results of some of these will be is yet very indefinite. The main question before the caucus at present is that of president and speaker. Joe Simon, of Portland, is being talked up by his friends and it is also rumored that the six democrats in the senate will probably support him for president of that body. T. T. Geer, of Marion county, now appears to be the leading candidate for speaker. Some of the candidates who have heretofore been spoken of for that position have withdrawn from the contest. The indications are that Mr. Geer will go in with an easy vote.
