No. 4. Henry Carson, larceny from person of Clarence Bell, worth $37 50.

A Library Free.

THE JOURNAL believes in people forming the reading habit. There should be more good reading in families. Contrast the life, morals, intelligence and culture of a family with a library and plenty of good newspapers, and a family without these things. Family life with newspapers but without a library is deficient. Nothing can supply the place of good books for family reading. Children furnished with plenty of good books are elevated, refined and often saved from deterioration.

In the past year THE JOURNAL has distributed thousands of good books to readers of the DAILY. Now we have a plan by which readers of the WEEKLY can secure a winter's good reading for the family by simply paying for their paper in advance. Here is a list of the books offered:

1. The Reveries of a Bachelor, or a Book of the Heart.—by Ik. Marvel.
2. Lays of Ancient Rome,—by Lord Macaulay. Beautifully illustrated.
3. A Tillyloss Scandal,—J. M. Barrie
4. The House of the Seven Gables,—by Nathaniel Hawthorne.
5. Cranford,—by Mrs. Gaskell.
6. The Coming Race,—Lord Lytton.
7. Dream Life,—by Ik. Marvel.
8. Frankenstein; or, The Modern Prometheus,—by Mrs. Shelley.
9. A Book of Golden Deeds,—by C. M. Young.
10. Mosses from an Old Manse.—by Nathaniel Hawthorn.
11. The Scarlet Letter,—by Nathaniel Hawthorn.
12. Essays on Elia,—by Charles Lamb.
13. The Vicar of Wakefield,—by Oliver Goldsmith.
14. Twice-Told Tales,—by Nathaniel Hawthorn.
15. Paul and Virginia,—by Bernardin De Saint Pierre.
16. Story of an African Farm,—by (Ralph Iron) Olive Schreiner.
17. Lays of the Scottish Cavaliers,—by Wm. Edmoustoune Aytoun.
18. Lucile,—by Owen Meredith, (Robert Lord Lytton.)
19. Dreams,—by Olive Schreiner.
20. Black Beauty,—by Anna Sewell.

By paying all arrears and remitting for 1894 in advance, the subscriber secures six of these standard works. Surely all this culture is worth securing for your family.

Willamette Presbytery.

Presbytery opened this morning with devotional exercises led by Rev. F. J. Edmunds and proved to be a very profitable service. The regular business session opened prayer by Rev. M. S. Riddle.

Minutes of previous sessions were read and approved.

The committee on bills and overtures reported favorably upon the circular letter received from Salem Ministerial association; report was adopted.

A motion was made that when we adjourn we adjourn subject to the call of the moderator on the floor of the synod, carried.

A resolution was offered by Rev. E. J. Thompson, D. D., expressing the sincere appreciation of the presbytery in regard to the earnest and thorough work of the synodical missionary, Rev. F. H. Gwynne D. D. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

An invitation from superintendent of the insane asylum was received with thanks to visit that institution; also an invitation from the secretary of the Y. M. C. A. to visit their rooms was received in like manner. The committee on resolutions offered a resolution thanking the church and friends in Salem for their kind hospitality in entertaining the members of the presbytery.

Presbytery adjourned subject to the call of the moderator on the floor of the synod.

The Ladies Presbyterial society gave a popular meeting on Tuesday evening. The program was a very excellent one and a credit of honor to the performers.

A collection of twenty-eight dollars was received for the mission work of the society.

A BRISK RUNAWAY.—This morning A. D. Pettyjohn's team started to run from near the post office, and fairly flew until stopped by an electric pole near Minto's livery barn. They scattered the wagon all along Commercial and Court streets, broke the tongue and harness, besides badly demoralizing the entire outfit.

An Undisputed Test of Merit.

A medicine that has been a household remedy for over fifty years and used in that time by more than $150,000,000 persons must have great merit. Such a medicine is found in Brandreth's Pills. This fact demonstrates the value of these pills better than any statement of the proprietors. It will be observed that the dose required to cure is small. One or two pills taken every night for ten or twenty days will cure dyspepsia, costiveness, rheumatism, liver complaint, billousness, or any disease arising from an impure state of the blood.

Brandreth's Pills are purely vegetable, absolutely harmless, and safe to take at any time.

Sold in every drug and medicine store, either plain or sugar coated.

THE WEATHER.—A detestable subject. It is weather to be patient with. It was not described by Shakespear or experienced by Job. Business is depressed, except the business of eating, drinking and swearing at the weather. A great many good people are learning to swear. The mothers are tried at home by the children who cannot venture out of doors. If a roof leaks this weather finds the spot. Be cheerful. Read the JOURNAL and keep off the blues. Even the weather must come to an end.

STATE VS. SIMON.

A Case in Which Gorvernor Pennoyer Figures as a Witness.

The case of the State of Oregon vs H. S. Simon, tobacconist of this city, charged with offering Supt. Geo. S. Downing a bribe, attorneys for the defense wese Henry McGinn of Portland, and Bonham & Holmes and John A. Carson. For the state, Distribt Attorney McCain and deputy A. O. Condit.

Several hours were consumed in getting a jury, each juror being fought over stubbornly and the trial was just begun as we go to press. Governor Pennoyer was present as a witness.

Several of the jurymen testified that they were readers of a certain newspaper but that it had made no impression upon them whatever.
