BY HOFER BROTHERS.

THURSDAY, MARCH 11, 1897.

While the steamer Altona is undergoing repairs, steamer Pomona will leave Salem for Portland on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, at 7:45 a. m., returning on the following days.

NEW BELTS.

The latest novelties just received, including the Royal Highness and the Princess belts.

Rain and Sun Umbrellas.

Just opened a new line of umbrellas and sun shades. See the Directoire shades, black coverings parasols, children's sun shades from 75c up; and a big line of exceptional values in fast black umbrellas for ladies and gentlemen.

Neckwear, Collars and Cuffs.

The grandest line we have ever shown in ladies and gents 4-in-hands, collars and cuffs.

J. J. Dalrymple & Co.

Senator J. H. McClung, of Eugene,

Reduced Prices on Everything in the house during our great removal sale.

All the new Spring stuff included. Fine dress goods, linings, kid gloves, corsets, hosiery, laces, ribbons, silks, velvets, prints, muslins, sheeting, etc. Fine shoes of all kinds, clothing and hats and furnishing goods.

WILLIS BROS. & CO.

Court and Liberty, the Cash Dry Goods, Clothing and Shoe House.

AT HALF PRICE.

Only a few more jackets and capes left; they are all good, stylish garments but we don't want to carry them over. Any cape or jacket in the store at half price. They are bargains. Call and examine them before they are all gone.

We also have some shoes left in manufacturers which will be sold at a great reduction.

T. Holverson.

was in the city last evening between the arrival of the Salem local from Portland and the departure of the California overland.

President J. H. Albert of the Salem Water Company, went to Portland this morning "to get a good drink of water and a clean bath, a la Wagner" as he stated it.

E. R. Wallace, who has been employed in the Gen. Meyer tonsorial parlors, went to Albany this morning. After a short visit there he will go to Astoria where he will locate.

Thos. McNary is just recovering from a weeks indisposition. He was threatened with a siege of typhoid fever but this was happily averted by taking timely precaution.

Messrs. John McCrow and F. W. Steusloff and Attorneys P. H. D'Arcy and Sam T. Richardson returned this afternoon from Eugene where they have been in attendance at circuit court.

W. A. Rice, of the Oregon Land Company, arrived in the city yesterday from Iowa with a new emigrant from Perry. This new-comer is a lady, and will remain; in fact the lady will hereafter be known as Mrs. Rice, and will be a welcome acquisition in Salem's social circles. Some of the real estate men say Mr. Rice made a sale to the lady and had to throw himself in to close the bargain. His company don't let a little matter stand in the way of a sale.

Fanny Rice.

It will be remembered that Fannie Rice, who is to appear here in the great laughing success "At the French Ball" on next Wednesday night at Reed's opera house had the honor of being chosen as one of the ten representative American stars to make up that famous all-star cast, which toured the country in a gorgeously equipped special train last May, and presented in the large cities only, one performance of Sheridan's immortal comedy, "The Rivals" (at $5.00 a seat) and which performance was conceded to be the most distinguished event and one of the greatest successes in the history of the American stage. The members of this great cast were as follows: Joseph Jefferson, Wm. H. Crane, Nat C. Goodwin, Mrs. John Drew, Fanny Rice, Julia Marlowe, Francis Wilson, Robert Taber, and Joseph and E. M. Holland. Seats are now on sale.

A DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR.—For several weeks past that popular fraternal order the A. O. U. W. has been initiating scores of new members into the order and in order that the new members might become thoroughly acquainted with the remaining members of the lodge, a social was planned for last evening that proved a delightful affair. After a short business session, the members of Protection Lodge No. 2, and Degree of Honor Lodge No. 19 met in joint session for a social time. After the rendition of the following literary program, a delicious luncheon was served:

Instrumental and vocal music.... ..... The Misses Raymond
Recitation ..... D. A. Dinsmoor
Reading ..... E. H. Flagg
Music. Harry and Marguerite Wilson
Banjo Solo ..... A. L. Brown
Piano Solo ..... Maude Flagg
Duet. Messrs. Tobriner and Kundret

This was concluded by stereopticon views.

DEEDS AND MORTGAGES.—A deed, transferring lot No. 4 and the south half of lot No. 3, in block No. 34, in the city of Salem, Or., known as the Club stables, from J. C. Smith and wife to E. J. Rowland, was this morning filed with the county recorder. The consideration was $2,200. A mortage satisfaction for $150 was also filed this morning. Three mortages, aggregating $1,765, were also filed with the county recorder, this morning.

RIVER RAISING.—The O. R. & N. guage registered about 6.5 feet above low water mark, this morning, and steamboat men predict a further raise of several feet. The foothills are covered with several inches of snow, which will pour into the Willamette as soon as the weather moderates. The boats are running on their regular schedule time, both freight and passenger traffic being lively for this season of the year.

DELICIOUS FRUIT.—Branson & Co have the first cranberries of the season, also pine apples, oranges and lemons in abundance.

JOURNAL "X" RAYS.

Directed Upon the Oregon Politicians and Public Men.

The streets should be cleaned and the alleys graveled.

Wallace and Klinger stand up for their respective beverages.

* * *

Salem can't be too clean, too healthy, or have too good water.

* * *

How descriptive are names: Little Doc Smith! Big Booby Ike.

* * *

The doctors all agree that Salem is a healthy town. Then what's the matter with the doctors?

* * *

Western Oregon has not had the usual amount of southern breezes and customary precipitation.

* * *

There is just as much sickness in the little country towns as at Salem, and they don't drink Salem water.

* * *

Mayor Richardson tackled low and hard in his message on several subjects. Let him tackle our filthy streets and alleys.

* * *

The Salem Bimetallic club discusses McKinley's message tonight. Will the wild man from Colorado favor the audience with a few remarks?

* * *

The sidewalk farmer at the reform school is to take a walk. For God's sake gentlemen appoint a farmer who can farm or sell your state lands.

* * *

Banker John Albert has a lot of cut about the legislature in the Oregonian. Is it to strengthen his agency for dealing in claims against the state?

* * *

The Statesman informs the little fraction of the public that reads that paper that all the water used is perfect and the city is perfectly clean. The Statesman is also perfect.

* * *

Let the boards and commissions go by the board. Don't uphold these barnacles when there is no law or appropriation for it. Messrs. state officials, or the people won't uphold you.

* * *

There will be other delegations of politicians at Salem to wait on the governor and secretary of state the next few days. You will not be met at the train with a band in their efforts to pile up bills against the state.

* * *

The convicts, insane, reform school boys and old soldiers will not be turned out without state care or provision; but the normal schools, railroad commissions, land attorneys and other unnecessary luxuries and soft snaps generally will not be aided in fabricating claims against the state by Secretary of State Kincaid, or Governor Lord either.

CIRCUIT COURT.

The following entries were made on Judge H. H. Hewitt's docket for department No. 2, Marion county circuit court at Wednesday afternoon's session:

H. S. Jordon vs. State Insurance Co., receivership; all Oregon and Idaho claims allowed except that of R. E. French upon which there is allowed $82.37. The claim of Mrs. G. M. Beeler & Co. is disallowed. All claims of W. W. Pierson and Geo. M. Wood are disallowed. Cause continued.

Santiam Lumbering Co., plaintiff, vs. G. N. Hensley, defendant; injunction; decree on findings. The plaintiff is the owner of the right-of-way and the defendant is perpetually enjoined from interfering with or obstructing it.

J. A. Baker vs. Williams & England Banking Co., receivership; findings filed and order as prayed for in the petition. Setting order aside and directing the receiver to take such proceedings as are necessary to cancel the release executed on October 19, 1896.

E. W. Copps vs. A. E. La Rocque, suit on bond; decree rendered on findings.

Wednesday afternoon, having made the above entries, court adjourned until Tuesday, March 16, 1897.

Mr. McCrow Wins.

Attorney P. H. D'Arcy and Sam T. Richardson and Messrs McCrow and Steusloff returned this afternoon from Eugene where they have been on business before the circuit court. Mr. McCrow was plaintiff in a suit instituted against Henry Spoers to recover on a promissory note, Mr. McCrow being the accommodation maker.

It amounted to $1315. It was argued before Judge Fullerton and a jury which after a few moments deliberation brought in a verdict in favor of the plaintiff. D'Arcy and Richardson, of this city, were counsel for Mr. McCrow and were warmly congratulated upon their success when they returned home this afternoon.

WOMEN.

Are Protesting at Eugene at not Being Allowed to Vote.

Mrs. L. Bilyeu, Eugene's woman lawyer writes:

"The women taxpayers of Eugene, legal voters under the school laws of Oregon, were subjected to the most disrespectful and contemptuous treatment and outrage last Monday at the polls.

"Women of education, with unquestioned intellectuality, who have been taxpayers for years and years and who are raising and educating families, were forced to submit, through timeliest judges, to the resolutions passed by two—a majority—of our board of directors, one of whom has proven, by not educating any one of his four children, that he is not in sympathy with education, while but very little, if anything more can be said of the other.

"This resolution was passed, and executed to the letter, although all local attorneys, but two, protested against the legality of the matter and pronounced it a "high-handed proceeding," etc.

"This truth is, these men knew the only way they could elect their man, was by prohibiting taxpaying women from voting, and rallying for their candidate every male citizen over 21 years of age, regardless of the property qualification.

"This they did, and voted besides one idiot. No pen can describe the enormity of this indignity. It was one of the most lawless proceedings from beginning to end that can be conceived. The law, indeed, was utterly ignored, and that, too, in a town in which the state university is situated. Talk about the citizens of the South, Indian Territory, etc., taking the law in their own hands! Attorney-General Idleman sent his opinion here, which was as pronounced and plain as anything could be in regard to rights of women in the premises."

CAPITOL.

NORMAL SCHOOLS.

President Campbell and J. V. B. Butler and Judge Flynn, regents of the Monmouth normal school, were at the capitol and got the views of the secretary of state's duty, under the law, toward the Monmouth school. The secretary of state considers the normal school appropriations merely biennial donations, and that he has no right to recognize the schools, when the appropriation is lacking. If this position is sustained, the normal schools are without state aid, and, like other schools, will have to exist on their merits, at any rate until some future legislature again appropriates for their benefit. The amount the state will save in the normal school item, upon the basis of the last appropriation, is as follows:

Monmouth, general expenses	$18,000
Deficiency	8,520
Weston, general expenses	12,000
Purchase of land, improvements, etc.	4,000
Total	$42,520

BORN.

GILLETTE.—At the family home, on Mill street, in Salem, Oregon, on Monday, March 8, 1897, to Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Gillette, a son.

MARRIED.

PORTER—HIGGINS.—At the home of the bride's parents, near Zena, Polk county, March 10, 1897, Ida M. Higgins to E. A. Porter, of Selma Fresno county, California, Rev. W. C. Kantner, D. D., of Salem officiating.

DIED.

HEATER.—At the family home eight miles east of Whiteaker in the Waldo Hills, Friday, March 6, 1897, at 1:30 p. m. Sophia Morley, wife of E. D. Heater.

After an illness of eight years, the companion of an old pioneer of Oregon, passed away. They crossed the plains in 1852, and settled on the old place. Mrs. Heater led a very quiet home life and never moved widely from the sphere of household duties.

She was a native of Ohio, born May 9, 1814, she moved to Illinois with her parents when a child. At an early age she became a member of the United Brethren church. She was married in Illinois, in 1843, to L. D. Heater, who survives her of a family of five children, four are living as follows: Peter, of Whiteaker, Mrs. Anderw Hess, of Washington county, Mrs. John Tongue of Clackamas, Mrs. J. F. White of Brooks. The deceased was laid to rest in the Union Hill cemetery, services conducted by Rev. Young.

REVIVAL.—Revival services at the Christian church tonight at 7:30. Sermon by Rev. Kantner. Song service conducted by Rev. Steele. After meetings conducted by Rev. Denton. Meetings so far have been good and are taking hold. Come and look for a blessing.

A SMALL SUM.—Fifteen cents appears to be a small sum for a good substantial meal but that is just what you get at George Brothers lunch counter on State street.

DIED AT MACLEAY.

Wm. Taylor, an Old Marion County Pioneer, Passes Away This Morning.

Wm. Taylor, one of Marion county's oldest pioneers, died at his home in Macleay about 9:30 a. m. today after an illness of la grippe of several weeks duration.

Mr. Taylor was an old and highly respected pioneer of Marion county, having resided in and about Macleay for the past 52 years. He leaves a large family to mourn the death of an affectionate husband and father.

Funeral services will be held from the Macleay church at 2 p. m., Sunday, and the remains will be given interment in the Macleay cemetery.

CONSTRUCTION AT WHARF.—J. H. Stevens and W. S. Trainer, two contractors of Albany in the employ of the O. C. & E. Co., arrived in the city today and began the construction of a wharf on the east bank of the Willamette at a point between State and Ferry streets to be used by the steamer Albany, that company's craft plying on the upper Willamette. The new wharf will occupy the same sight of the old one that was so badly damaged during the high water two years ago. The work will require several days for completion. Since the old wharf was destroyed, this company's boats have been using that of the O. C. T. Co.

TAX COLLECTIONS.—Thus far Sheriff F. T. Wrightman has issued forty tax receipts for taxes for 1896. Taxes are coming in slowly.

Railroad Wreck.

PRINCETON, Ind., March 11.—One of the worst railroad wrecks that has occurred in this vicinity for many years happened to the Pittsburg and Nashville limited, northbound over the Evansville & Terre Haute road, one mile north of Hazelton. The train was made up of an engine, in charge Engineer John M. McCutchan and Joseph Bowman, fireman; a combination baggage and mail car, smoker, ladie's coach and one sleeper.

Great Northern's Betterment.

CHICAGO, March 11.—The Great Northern is about to expend $100,000 on the improvement of the equipment of its passenger trains. These are all to be vestibuled according to latest and most improved methods, and new equipment will be added.

Blow at Quack Druggists.

ALBANY, N. Y., March 11.—Governor Black signed the "knockout" bill, which makes it a felony for a person other than a licensed druggist or physician to have in his possession or to administer to any person a drug or narcotic.

Reinforcements.

MADRID, March 11.—The Spanish government has decided to send 15,000 marine forces to the Phillipines.

A great depth of snow has fallen in the Granite country, and, in fact, all the mountains, and it is perdicted that the placer season of 1897 will be the most successful one for years, and possibly since the early days of 1850.

ATTENTION—UNEMPLOYED.

Who Said So?

The man who said that the handiest part of an eastern trip came after leaving the Mississippi river, never journeyed between Minneapolis or St. Paul to Milwaukee or Chicago over the lines of the Wisconsin Central. For the accommodations over this route are unsurpassed, the connections are close, thus doing away with wearisome delays. The dinning car service is the remark of all travellers who go this way; a good square meal at reasonable prices. For particulars address Geo. S. Batty, General Agent, 246 Stark street, Portland, Oregon, or Jas. C. Pond, General Passenger Agent, Milwaukee, Wisconsin, or apply to your nearest ticket agent.
