T. HOLVERSON'S.

Mrs. G. L. Brown, accompanied by her nephew Lloyd Brown, went to Stayton today to remain until after the Fourth.

Geo. Judd, of Aumsville, was a Salem visitor today. Mr. Judd was a member of A. Geuter's surveying crew that returned home Thursday.

Miss Belle Willis has resigned as night operator for the W. U. Telegraph Co., and has gone to her home in Roseburg. She is succeeded by Allie Churchill of this city.

"Doc" Mason and family arrived last evening from Eastern Oregon, and are now the guest of his brother, Geo. F. Mason of South Salem. He reports the mountain roads to be in very bad condition, but the valley roads not nearly so bad.

Supt. Ed. M. Croisan at the state reform school has reconstructed the force of employes and made some needed changes. A new cow barn to be built and the dairy put in first-class shape. In Mr. Croisan's hands, the property of the state will be well kept up. Mr. Hendricks made many improvements of a permanent character and will be well seconded by his successor. Mr. Croisan is a man of enduring rather than showy qualities and his firmness of character will make itself felt on the institution.

Prof. J. O. Hall has returned from Whatcom, Wn., where he has been for the past two weeks in attendance at a state teachers institute. He was also at Fair Haven, and spent three days at Seattle, where he found great life, activity and hopefulness. He says Seattle gives the impression of boom times. There is a hum of industry and a life on the streets beside which Portland is dead and dull. He met Rev. A. L. Hutchison who has great confidence in Seattle as the future city of the coast.

An Indian Fight.

Considerable confusion was caused at the Indian camp, on the Willamette river bank, just north of the city, this morning, when two squaws came to blows. One of the women accused the other of having alienated her husband's affections and proceeded at once to emphasize the accusation by cruelly beating her rival. Not having a hatchet, scalping knife or other weapon of Indian warfare, the enraged woman seized a broad board that she found near at hand and proceeded to convert the same into kindling wood by breaking it over the head and body of her opponent. The badly bruised squaw immediately came to Salem and related her sorrowful tale to City Recorder Ed N. Ellis. The case will be disposed of before "his honor" late this afternoon.

PICNIC—The Presbyterian Sabbath school expect to have their picnic in Yew Park on Monday, July 5—weather permitting. The children and their parents are all expected to come prepared with dinner and enjoy a pleasant time.

A SACRED CONCERT.—On Sunday evening at the First Christian church will be given a sacred and patriotic concert. Among those who will sing are Mrs. Hallie Parrish-Hinges, Miss Alderson and Prof. Z. M. Parvin. There will be no admission.

On a red hot day Hires Rootbeer stands between you and the distressing effects of the heat.

On the Webfoot Politicians.

Independent Comment on People in State and Nation.

The Portland Oregonian has a stinging, stilted editorial against the pie hunter in politics. It concludes:

When a pie hunter sticks up his head he must expect to get it thumped and thumped hard.

We here and now raise a black flag against pie hunting leaders.

The proper place for them is in the old parties.

Our mission is to "trip 'em up the back."

Salem Independent: Hon. C. B. Moores, of this city, is now in Spokane. He will remain there for some time, in the expectation of regaining his health which has been bad for some time. We trust his fondest expectations may be realized.

* * *

Salem Statesman: One of Salem's most forceful pulpit orators is Rev. Geo. W. Grannis, of the First M. E. church. Mr. Grannis is a deep thinker and studiously prepares every sermon he delivers. He is original in his expression, graceful in manner, of pleasant address, and as a natural consequence his words carry great weight.

The Eugene Guard, worsted in its recent fight against corrupt political methods in the state university, expresses this sound sentiment: "We claim and shall exercise the right of giving our views on public events, and public men when it becomes necessary. A newspaper of the lick spittle description—lacks the respect even of those who may use it for personal ends. We are not of that class."

The worst that can be said about Col. Jim Eddy of the Oregon railroad commission is that he holds down the job just as well as any other politician would under the system of office holding palmed off on the people of Oregon.

Why cannot all our public officials act like Secretary Kincaid, fight for economy, try and save the country something instead of robbing it? Why?—Independent.

Kincaid will have to quit acting that way or he will utterly destroy his political standing with the old Republican guard at the capital city.

The Journal says we have not strength enough to run a footrace, but are able to fight flies successfully. You bet. There are no flies on us. If the Journal could only say as much, wouldn't it be happy?—Independent. For a man who hasn't got any more meat on his shank than a bean-pole, you talk very sassy, Governor.

SALEM VS. MONOGRAMS.

Interesting Game at Gervais Saturday—Fred Ross in Pitcher.

For the past two weeks the local baseball nine has been practicing daily, for the match game of ball with the Monograms of Portland to be played at Gervais on Saturday afternoon. The home boys realize that it will be the hardest game of the season and will "play ball" in earnest.

The local team was not a little disappointed on Monday when it was learned that the pitcher, J. R. Evans, would be unable to be here for the game, it being necessary for him to attend the O. N. G. encampment at Hood river. Manager Doug. Minto at once wrote to Fred Ross, of Toledo, to come at once which he did, reaching Salem yesterday afternoon. A delegation of local baseball enthusiasts was at the depot and gave Ross a warm reception. Ross is a pitcher of more than ordinary ability for one of his age and with Max Miller behind the bat, Salem's battery will be all that could be asked. Ross and Miller were the battery for the Salem juniors two years ago and the team was exceptionally successful, not meeting with a single defeat throughout the season. Time has only improved these two young players and their performance at Gervais tomorrow will be an interesting feature of the game. A large number of Salemites will go to Gervais via the morning overland but the greater part of the local excursionists will not go down until the afternoon local.

The Salem team will line up as follows: M. Miller, catcher; F. Ross, pitcher; Russell Coleman, short stop; Bod Stateseman, first base; C. Brown, second base; C. G. Murphy, third base; W. Evans, right field; Doug Minto, center field; Tom Townsend, left field.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

The state weather forecast for Saturday is fair.

Governor Lord leaves for the Hood River school of instruction, O. N. G. on Saturday morning.

J. O. Hamaker of Lake View, was commissioned a notary public today.

The Carter Lane Co., of Ashland, and the Umatilla Pub. Co. to publish the Tribune at Pendleton, have filed articles of incorporation.

REPAIRS.—The Salem flouring mills company has been making some repairs to its mill-race. About 100 feet of the old flume just east of Fourteenth street has been replaced with a new one. Workmen are preparing to build a new pen-stock at the large mills on Trade street. The old pen-stock was built 18 years ago and the timbers are badly rotted making the repairs necessary. The work will require about one month for completion during which time the water supply will be turned off just below the water works station.

A TEMPERANCE ADDRESS.—Rev. W. A. Lindsey, pastor of the Baptist church, will deliver a Fourth of July temperence address in Marion square Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock. He will also favor the audience with a solo. Everybody attend and bring Gospel Hymns No. 5. 7-2-2t

A HOLIDAY.—According to law the postoffice will observe Monday, July 5, as a legal holiday. The First National bank, the Capital National bank and Gilbert Bros. bank will observe Monday as a national holiday. It is probable that day will also be observed by the county, city and state offices.

GROCERY CONTRACT.—John Hughes has awarded the contract today for supplying groceries to the State Reform school for one year, he being the lowest bidder out of six firms in this city.

GOPHER SCALP BOUNTY.

Marion County Pays Heavily for Extermination.

This forenoon County Clerk Ehlen paid out $32.55 for gopher scalps. The youths of the county evidently intended celebrating the Fourth of July judging from the following sums drawn:

Samuel Beer	$3 45
Pearl Wood	1 10
Virgil Duke	2 00
W. Huntly	1 30
Archie Humphreys	1 05
A. Hobart	1 20
Jas. A. Shafer	6 30
W. Curl	11 75
Clayton Rodgers	1 65
Jos. Lafleume	1 40
W. C. Graves	1 55
Total	31 55

MARRIED.

PLATT—SMITH.—At the residence of the officiating clergyman, corner of Oak and Twelfth streets, at 9:30 p. m. Thursday, July 1, 1897, Miss Mary Platt to Homer Smith, Rev. Walter Reynolds, officiating.

The bride is the daughter of a well-to-do and prosperous Linn county, farmer. The groom is the junior member of the Yew Park grocery firm of McAtee & Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith went to Portland this morning where they will spend a few days after which they will begin housekeeping in this city.

MORRIS—DAVIDSON.—At the home of the groom in South Salem at 8:30 p. m. Wednesday June 30, 1897, Mrs. C. G. Morris to A. D. Davidson, Rev. A. Kershaw, officiating.

In Probate Court.

Judge G. P. Terrell sitting as probate court today heard motions for the appointment of a guardian for the person and estate of Catherine Reiling, an aged person. Some time ago Jos. Neibler petitioned the court for the appointment of Rosa Reiling as guardian of the estate of Mrs. Reiling and shortly thereafter, Mrs. Reiling petitioned the court for the appointment of J. H. Settlemier as guardian of her person and estate. D'Arcy & Richardson appear for Mr. Neibler while Carson & Fleming, of this city and John Manning are attorneys for Mrs. Reiling. The case was opened before Judge Terrell at 10 o'clock this morning and at press hour the introduction of the testimony had not yet been completed.

DISCHARGED.—"Not guilty" was the given virdict in the case of state T. J. Sullivan, charged with the larceny of a coat and vest, the case being heard before Justice H. A. Johnson, Thursday afternoon. According to the testimony introduced at the examination, it was quite evident the case was a bit of spite work. Such cases should not be allowed to occupy the time in the justice court, and have the expense of the same assessed to the already burdened taxpayer. P. H. and W. J. D'Arcy fought very earnestly for their client and succeeded in establishing his innocence of the charge.

TRANSFERS GRANTED.—Patrons of the Salem & Suburban railway lines will be pleased to learn that hereafter transfers will be issued from one line to the other so that for 5 cents a passenger may ride from the terminus of one line to that of the other. These transfers are issued that the street railway company may comply with the provisions upon which the recent franchise was granted it.

TAX MONEY.—Sheriff F. T. Wrightman turned over to County Treasurer G. L. Brown $415.57 in delinquent taxes for 1893, to be credited to the following funds: Poll tax $1; City of Salem $6.70; school district No. 20, 64 cents; school district No. 24; $5.20; school district No. 78, $54.66; state county and state school, $347.37.

$400.00 not $200.00

Two San Francisco grocers—Ring Bros. and T. Salomon—won $100.00 each because they sent the most yellow tickets before June 15th.

But grocers and clerks can get more tickets than other consumers; so we also paid $100.00 each to the two persons named below:

Mrs. Wm. Funk, Winnemucca, Nevada, 132 tickets.
Mrs. L. During, 819 Bryant Street, San Francisco, 72 tickets.

Mrs. During got a number of friends in San Francisco and near by (one keeps a boarding house) to give her their tickets; and she used the tea herself.

By the way, she uses Schilling's Best baking powder and extracts—too bad she doesn't know how good Schilling's Best spices are! But she says the extracts and baking powder are wonderful.

A woman in Stockton, who keeps a restaurant, came very near getting a prize. She deserves one for supplying her customers such good tea.

Better read our advertisements every day—some contain suggestions how to win the prize.

By the way, grocers can't compete for the two $150.00 prizes offered for the most yellow tickets in one envelope between June 15th and August 31st. They can, however, compete for the $1000.00 prize. B4
