"FOR RENT."

A "Sound Money" Object Lesson Man Has a New Sign in the Window.

W. W. Martin's jewelery store on State street, made a "sound money" object lesson in the window during the Presidential campaign. It was furnished by a National bank of which Mr. Martin was a director, to prove the awful consequence of flooding our country with 50-cent dollars. Shortly after McKinley went in, Martin closed out under an assignment, and the "object lesson" disappeared. The only remaining feature is a silk badge with a picture of McKinley lettered as follows:

Republican Nomination!
For President
WILLIAM McKINLEY.
1896.
SOUND MONEY.
PROTECTION.
PROSPERITY.

The two lines "sound money" and "prosperity" have been erased and underneath in big letters is "FOR RENT." The erasures tell their own story.

This is a shameful treatment of Mr. Martin, who was a loyal supporter and advocate of the gold standard and McKinley. He should have been allowed to run a year at least, or until the promised prosperity has been restored. To turn a man out with nothing but "Protection" staring him in the face is hard usage.

GARDNER

Guilty of Rape as Charged.

Proceedings in the Marion County Circuit Courts.

Late Wednesday afternoon the case of State vs. L. F. Gardner, charged with rape, was concluded and within five minutes after leaving the court room the jury brought in a verdict of "guilty as charged in the indictment." The case is said to have been a clear one against Gardner and his acquittal of the charge seemed highly improbable. Gardner will be sentenced at 9 a. m. on Wednesday the 14th inst.

The action for damages, instituted by A. Bisker vs. T. F. Smith in the Linn county circuit court was taken up for trial in Judge Burnett's department this morning on change of venue and before the following jury:

D. S. Kain, Henry Brown, J. Harding, Marion Eakin, Oliver Eiers, E. A. M. Cone, L. C. Russell, James Coleman, Lewis Schunckenberg, Earl Race, Jno. Van Wagner and Joe. Seindler.

The case occupied all the forenoon in introducing testimony for the plaintiff. At even adjournment was taken until 1 o'clock when the case continued. Hume and Hall, of Portland, and Webster Holmes, of this city, are counsel for Mr. Bisker while Mr. Smith is represented by Messrs. Weatherford and Wyatt of Albany.

A new case has been docketed in Department No. 1: A. Bush, doing business under the firm name and style of Ladd & Bush vs. Richard Craig, confirmation.

When court convened at 1 o'clock counsel for defendant moved that the case be nonsuited, as the testimony introduced by the prosecution was not sufficient to warrant a possible cause of action under that of malicious prosecution.

Judge Burnett, sustained the motion and nonsuited the case, and the jury was discharged.

Adjournment was then taken until 9 a. m. Wednesday the 14th inst.

Judge Burnett, this afternoon made the following entry:

A. Bush, vs. Richard Craig, confirmation: sale confirmed.

IN DEPARTMENT NO. 2.

After the foreclosure suit instituted by S. P. Minkers vs. E. O. Hyde, et al, had been argued before Judge Hewitt until late Wednesday afternoon, the same was taken under consideration.

Judge Hewitt made the following docket entries, Wednesday afternoon.

Fremont Arnold, insolvent, vs. F. J. Bolter, assignee, assignment; continued.

A. T. Savage, insolvent, vs. L. C. Griffith, assignee, assignment matter declared settled and assignee discharged from further duties.

Kate G. Marinan vs. Joseph F. Marinan, divorce; demurrer of defendant over ruled.

A. I. Wagner vs. J. B. Nye, action for money; demurrer of defendant sustained.

Judge Hewitt made the following docket entries this morning:

Sarah E. Babcock vs. Sylvester R. Babcock, divorce; default of defendant.

Laura Hill vs. Thomas J. Hill, divorce, decree of divorce on the findings.

Ida Head vs. William N. Head, divorce; decree of divorce on the findings.

Jno. G. Steinbreuner vs. Henrietta W. Steinbreuner, divorce; decree of divorce on findings.

SONNEMANN THE GROCER.

POLICE COURT.

Herbert Winslow Finds Guilty to Larceny of a Bicycle.

The police court was quite lively for a short time this morning. Three cases came up before Recorder Edes.

George Francis, was the first man brought up. Francis was charged with assault and battery on Geo. Burns, committed Sunday forenoon. He plead guilty and a fine of $10 and costs was imposed. He went to the county jail.

J. W. Smith, better known as "Nigger" Smith, was next arraigned charged with petty larceny. He plead guilty and was fined $10 and costs in default of which he goes to the county jail for twenty-five days. Smith, is the man who purchased goods from Freeland's second hand store on the installment plan and before completing his payments, disposed of the goods and left the city.

Herbert Winslow, 17 years old, was arraigned charged with the larceny of a bicycle. He plead "guilty" and Recorder Edes give sentence at 7 o'clock this evening. On Sunday evening the bicycle of J. Wm. Sagers was stolen from in front of Derby & Co.'s office on Commercial street and nothing more was seen of it until Winslow was seen riding the wheel up State street Wednesday afternoon when he was immediately placed under arrest and taken to the city jail where he frankly acknowledged the theft of the wheel. Winslow is the son of highly respected Polk county people who live just across the river on the Wallace road. Last year he attended Willamette University and was also a member of the First Methodist church choir. His kleptomaniac tendencies have finally gotten him into trouble. On the same evening O. L. Foreman's bicycle was stolen from in front of a business house on State street but was afterwards recovered at a Center street boarding house. Winslow admits stealing both wheels but Chief Dilley is of the opinion that he has an accomplice and after his arrest put him through a thorough "sweating" process but he refused to divulge the name of his "pal" if, in case, he has one.

STATE HOUSE NEWS.

Lloyd Reynolds, a son of Dr. John Reynolds and a graduate of Willamette, was today appointed member of the State Board of Horticulture for the second district, to succeed C. L. Dailey who has resigned and gone east. Mr. Reynolds holds office until April 1, 1899.

The state weather bureau forecast is as follows: Friday fair warmer.

W. P. Keady, ex-speaker of the legislature, and H. L. Barkley, were state house callers today. The latter has just returned from holding the biennial conference of his church at Walla Walla.

B. L. Glisan, of Portland, was today commissioned a notary.

Hon. D. P. Thompson, Joseph Paquet and W. F. Burrell today filed articles of incorporation of the Columbia Construction Co. with a capital stock of $100,000. The articles give the corporation authority to engage in almost any business that can be named and cover such a broad scope that it is not certain what the principal object of the corporation is.

Prof Joseph Widmer, of the Seattle public schools, was a state house caller and visited friends in Salem yesterday and was a passenger to his home near Eugene in Lane county, by the overland train last evening. Prof. Widmer says that although Seattle is a hilly town there are over 1000 bicycle riders and excellent bicycle paths are maintained to important points, this too in the face of the facts that it rains much more in Seattle than Oregon, notwithstanding Oregon's misnomer of "Webfoot" land.

The penitentiary stove foundry will shut down for a month, while the cupola of the building is being repaired. About 100 more convicts will be idle during the time.

The Oregonian today says: "Further protests are being filed with the chairman of the board of education against the present method of issuing state teacher's papers. The claim is made that the desire to pile up fees accounts for the large number of state papers."

State Supt. Irwin says the diplomas are issued exactly in conformity with law and points out the section.

Governor Lord has appointed as delegates to the National farmers congress at St Paul in September, C. W. Paget of King's Valley, and Richard Baird of North Yamhill. Others will be named.

The Jewell Cemetery Association, and Leach & Brown, of Portland, millers, have filed articles of incorporation.

J. W. Barrow, of Hubbard, was made a notary, today.

Ex-Senator Voorhees, of Woodburn, was a Capital caller, today.

NO TRIAL.—We will not stand trial, but will at once plead guilty to serving the best 15 cent meal on the coast. Call and be convinced.—George Bros.

BRYAN

Will Speak at Salem July 12.

In Spite of Slurs From Goldite Papers the People Will Hear Him.

W. J. Bryan will arrive in Albany next Sunday morning at 6 o'clock on the overland and will take breakfast at the St. Charles hotel at 7 o'clock. He will then be taken to Lebanon in a private conveyance and spend the day with Hon. M. A. Miller. Probably the biggest crowd ever gathered in Linn county will hear him at 8 o'clock Monday morning. From Albany, people can make the round trip to Lebanon for 70 cents. The train will leave here at 7:30, earlier if possible. Those desiring to come back in the forenoon can do so on the Bryan special by paying the regular return fare. The coming of Mr. Bryan is attracting a great deal of attention.

Farmers are going fifty miles by wagon and on horseback to hear Bryan. Nearly enough tickets have been sold to fill a special coach at Salem to hitch onto the Bryan special for Oregon City. Democrats, Republicans, ladies and young people are going on the Bryan train.

People save a half day by going down on the Bryan special at noon, and returning on the boat for Salem that leaves Oregon City immediately after the speaking.

There will be an immense crowd at Salem to greet Bryan. If a special car can be filled for Oregon City THE JOURNAL has assurances that while the train is being made up, Bryan will talk to the crowd ten or fifteen minutes. He will probably not be in Oregon again until 1900.
