Rollman Cherry Seeder

THIS perfect Cherry Seeder does not crush the cherry or cause any loss of juice, a practical machine for large, small or California cherries. The seed extracting knife drives the seed into one dish and actually throws the cherry into another. The marks of the knife can scarcely be seen on the seeded fruit. It seeds from 20 to 30 quarts per hour.

SALEM WINS AGAIN

Beats Roseburg Handily in Saturday's Game

A Soaking rain Sunday Stopped the Game in Time to Save Salem a Bad Beating

Saturday's Scores.

Salem 9, Roseburg 7; Eugene 3, Albany 2.

Sunday's Scores.

Salem 2, Roseburg 5, no game; Eugene 4, Albany 2.

The Salem Raglans and the Roseburg Grays met on the A. A. C. diamond, in this city, on Saturday afternoon in a hard-fought game of baseball, resulting in a score of 9 to 7 in favor of the home team. Of this score Salem players made eight runs in the first inning, and one in the seventh, the balance netting only goose-eggs for the Raglans. Roseburg scored four times in the third inning, twice in the fifth, and one in the seventh. Reed pitched in the first inning for the visitors, but was withdrawn and Drubot substituted, while White was catcher for the Grays. The Salem battery was: Lucas, pitcher, and Gains, catcher.

Sunday's game attracted a large crowd to the park, and though the weather was threatening, the game was called promptly on time, Roseburg going to the bat first, and was struck out in a short time. The last half of the first saw good ball, and the friends of the Raglans at once became enthusiastic, for after Teabo had made third and Patterson first, Haynes sent an elegant fly into the field, bringing Teabo in from third, and Patterson from first, Haynes himself making second. The inning closed with a splendid catch by Griffin, Roseburg left fielder, who picked up Downie's fly to left in a manner creditable to himself and his team. The second inning netted nothing but goose-eggs to both sides, and in the third Roseburg made one run, leaving Salem still in the lead.

At the beginning of the fourth trouble commenced. White, Roseburg's catcher, after running from second ot third, made some comment on the decision of the umpire, and for this act of defiance was ordered to the bench for the rest of the game. The trouble arose over an error made by Griffin at the bat, in trying to steer clear of a curved ball, the latter struck the bat back of Griffin's head, and was held to be a dead ball, but the batter ran to first, and White, on first, made for third. When the umpire sent Griffin back to the bat, and ordered White to first, the defiance of the latter caused the trouble ending in White's retirement from the game. Roseburg, in spite of the trouble, made four runs during the inning. At the close the rain was falling so as to make it impossible to continue on the diamond, and the game was declared off, and will be played over at some future time.

Reed pitched for the Roseburg team and White wore the catcher's mit while Ross did some elegant work in the box for the Salem team, and Teabo, the sensational Indian catcher, did splendid service behind the bat.

On account of sickness, Sam Morris could not pitch for Salem. There was a good attendance, and had it not been for the rain the game would have been a good exhibition of baseball.

Next Saturday and Sunday Salem plays Roseburg at Roseburg, and the game promises to be the best of the season.

MUST CONVINCE.

Salem People Must Believe the Testimony of Her Best Citizens.

Testimony like that below cannot fail to convince Salem people, because a Salem man is the speaker and he is a man of reputation in the community. Jacob E. McCoy, bridge builder and contractor, residing on Capital street, second house beyond Mill creek says: "I have always enjoyed good health up to five or six years ago. Along about that time my kidneys commenced to bother me. There was not so much backache, but the principal symptoms were in connection with the kidney secretions. A strain or over-exertion very often caused hemorrhages of the kidneys. I cannot say that it was so painful but it was very annoying. I used various remedies and while some gave relief others were worthless. In some way Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my notice and when up town I dropped into Dr. Stone's drug store and procured a box, taking them as directed. A few doses gave me very convincing proof that they were going to the right spot, and though I can't say they have cured me, as I may never be cured, I can state that they gave me wonderful relief. I have a high opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills and cheerfully recommend them."

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

When the stomach is overloaded, when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R.
