Food Experts Will Meet.

New York, Feb. 1.—Everything is in readiness for the opening of the great pure food show under the auspices of the New York Retail Grocers' union at the armory of the Sixty-ninth regiment, in Lexington avenue between Twenty-fifth and Twenty-sixth streets. The exhibition, which will be thrown open to the public this evening, is the largest and most complete ever held here and promises to attract intense interest. The new armory is particularly well fitted for the purpose. It has a floor space of more than 45,000 square feet, thus offering sufficient space for the proper display of the various exhibits without requiring too much crowding. The management has made special efforts to make the show attractive in every respect and the enormous hall and the various booths and stalls are handsomely decorated. The lighting arrangements are far superior to those at any previous pure food show in the city.

The exhibition will be open every afternoon and evening during the entire month of February, and J. L. Callahan, the manager of the show, has made arrangements for the attractiveness of the exhibition. During the progress of the exhibition a number of societies, interested in the subject of pure food will hold their annual meetings, which will attract thousands of visitors from all parts of the country. Scientists and pure food experts will deliver lectures on pertinent subjects. There will also be lectures and talks on cooking, and daily demonstrations by culinary experts.

A Good Appointment.

While in this city yesterday State Game Warden J. W. Baker appointed Larry Murphy a deputy for this county. Murphy served this city faithfully for a number of years as a policeman, and will undoubtedly make an efficient game warden.

Secretary Shaw Not Going Out.

Washington, D. C. Feb. 1.—This is the day which Secretary Leslie M. Shaw had originally set for his retirement from the secretaryship of the treasury and there is great satisfaction in government circles as well as in financial circles throughout the country that Mr. Shaw has yielded to the request of President Roosevelt and decided not to resign for the present, at least not until after the adjournment of congress. Mr. Shaw was appointed secretary of the treasury in February, 1902, and succeeded Lyman J. Gage. It was his intention of retiring from the secretaryship on the first of this month, having completed four years as the head of the treasury department. He had already planned a trip to Europe, where he expected to meet his wife and daughters, to go on an extended tour of the continent. It was at the special request of President Roosevelt that Secretary Shaw gave up his plans and consented to continue as the head of the treasury department until the end of the present session of congress and, possibly, even longer.

Fraud Exposed.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on all Dr. King's or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

VOTERS MUST APPEAR

County Clerk Roland today decided that notaries cannot register in the city or suburbs voters who find it inconvenient to appear at the court house during office hours. The law requires that voters in the city where the county clerk has his office must appear in person. The section of the law (2668) which provides: "Every elector may be registered by personally appearing at the clerk's office and complying with the provisions of sections 2666 2667; but if said elector is unable for any reason to conveniently register as aforesaid, he may register, without charge, before any notary public or justice of the peace in the county in which he resides by using one of the blanks designated as A." This provision is held not to apply to city precincts like Salem, and notaries will not be permitted to register voters whose hours will not permit them to appear at the court house. It is intended to extend the office hours later on so as to allow such to register.

Reds After the Blues.

The Reds have their program for tomorrow night almost ready to announce, and say they will beat the Blues "hands down," even though the latter side did import an elocutionist from Portland. The Reds say there will "be nothing to it," and give the names of Mrs. Wiggins, Miss Bushnell, Miss Chapler and Averill as a part of those who will take part. There are two other names which cannot be announced until tomorrow, but they are well-known in Salem, and the mere mention of them will be enough to more than fill the large gymnasium to its fullest capacity.

One of the features of the evening will be the two scenes from the "Spoonendike Papers," which will be presented by Miss Chapler and Averill. Another feature will be selections from the best quartet in the city.

The admittance is free, and every one is invited.

Itch—Ringworm.

H. T. Lucas, Wingo, Ky., writes: April 25, 1902: "For 10 to 12 years I had been afflicted with a malady known as the itch. The itching was most unbearable; I had tried for years to find relief, having tried all remedies I could hear of, besides a number of doctors. I wish to state that one single application of Ballard's Snow Liniment cured me completely and permanently. Since then I have used the liniment on two separate occasions for ringworm and it cured completely. 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale by D. J. Fry, Salem, Oregon.

Closing Entries for Nobel Prizes.

Christiania, Feb. 1.—This is the last day on which the Nobel prize committee of the Norwegian parliament will receive suggestions of candidates for the various prizes under the Nobel endowment, which will be awarded on December 10 of this year. MAY GET AFTER HARRIMAN

(Four O'Clock Edition.)

Washington, Feb. 1.—The Harriman railroad system involving the Southern Pacific and its tributaries, may soon be under congressional fire, just as the Pennsylvania is, though the movement can scarcely be said to have passed the tentative stage. Williams, Democrat, of Mississippi, received a call from an unnamed man who said he charged a merger of the Harriman interests. The Democratic floor leader advised his informant to lay the subject before the Democratic members of the house committee on Pacific railroads. This he did. The committee is looking into the matter, but has reached no conclusion yet.

duct of the officers and crews of the steamers Topeka and Queen, and all causes of the wreck, loss of life and any misconduct or neglect of duty on the part of any one connected therewith. Henry Knox Smith is selected to review the testimony taken by the Seattle inspectors.

(Four O'clock Edition.)

Victoria, Feb. 1.—The tug Lorne has just returned to Bamfield with two bodies. One is Erickson, a second-class passenger. Seven more bodies on the beach are to be brought to Bamfield tomorrow. The Wyadda will bring another body from Pachena Bay. The provincial police offer the Indians $10 for every body brought in.

Montana Sheep Business Big.

Billings, Mont., Feb. 1.—During the season just closed more sheep have been shipped out of this state to eastern markets, it is stated, than in any previous year in the history of the state. One buyer has handled more than 240,000 head. One shipper in St. Paul has purchased, during the year 1905, the enormous number of 460,000 head. Nearly 200,000 of this number were bought in the northern part of the state along the line of the Great Northern railroad. Of the remainder, 250,000 have been shipped from the Yellowstone valley and 25,000 are being fed near this city. They will be shipped in a few days. To transport the vast number of animals above mentioned required about 2850 cars, which would make a single train about 27 miles in length.

Paying Reading Dividend.

Philadelphia, Feb. 1.—The Reading company is today paying its semi annual dividend of two per cent on its common stock to shareholders who were on record on January 15. In June the directors of the company will meet to arrange for dividends for the year beginning with July 1, 1906, the semi annual dividend of two per cent, payable in March next on the first preferred, and the same rate payable on the June estimated, the board will have before it the earnings for the entire fiscal year ending with June 30. For five months the surplus over all requirements is $535,000 ahead of the corresponding period of last year. At this rate the surplus for the year ought to be more than one million dollars ahead of last year. This will mean that more than 13 per cent will have been earned on Reading common stock.

Lounsberry-Perry Wedding.

New York, Feb. 1.—Miss Edith Lounsberry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Purdy Lounsberry, and Henry Pierrepont Perry will be married in St. Thomas church at 4 o'clock this afternoon.
