California has been called the "Mecca of the winter tourist" Its hotels and stopping places are as varied as those of all well regulated cities Visitors can always find suitable accommodations, congenial companions and varied, pleasing recreations.

Will be glad to supply some very attractive literature, describing in detail the many delights of winter in California.

The Christmas Journal of 24 pages was about as big a paper as any booster edition that was published in the state. The fact is the two Salem dailies cannot be matched in any city in the world the size of Salem. Following from The Dalles Optimist is very much appreciated:

"The Christmas edition of The Daily Capital Journal, published at Salem, appeared on our desk this week, and would be a credit to a much larger city and Editor Hofer is to be commended for his enterprise in giving to his readers such an excellent publication."

HOUSE STILL SORE AT THE PRESIDENT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, Jan. 9.—In carrying on the fight in the house of representatives against President Roosevelt, in connection with his alleged insult to congress, Representative Tawneytoday introduced a resolution providing for the appointment of a select committee of five to inquire into the question of appropriations for the government secret service.

The resolution was promptly passed, indicating a disposition on the part of the majority of the house to take advantage of every opportunity to rebuke the President for intimating that certain members of congress need watching by secret service detectives.
