The Oregonian says: "Hail the Chinook!" That was the trouble recently, there was too much hail. What the cry should be is: "Reign the Chinook."

T. Jenkins Hains, acquitted of murder yesterday at Flushing, L. I., says he is going to write a book on the "Unwritten Law." Now a great wave of regret that the jury did not hang him will sweep the country.

Arizona and New Mexico will probably be admitted into the Union as states this year. They will not come in joined together, not even as Siamese twins.

Seattle gas is strong and pure enough that it is actually dangerous to breathe it for any great length of time. It is a rare brand.

If the news associations will kindly forget there is such a person as Harry Thaw they will perform a genuine public service.

Jenkins Hains is free, and so, thanks to the jury agreeing, are the great mass of newspaper readers. To have had a third dose of Hains would surely have brought the public to the gagging point.

"A NIGHT IN BOHEMIA" ALONG WITH THE ELKS

Many new song hits will be introduced in the Elks' show, "A Night in Bohemia." Among them will be heard "Violet," "Rosy Rambler," "Toot-Toot," "Good-bye," "Come Back," Strong for You," "Fickle Little Willie," "Indians on Broadway," "Take a Car," and several others. The "Rag Bag Man" will be sung by Miss Faye Hutchins, and the dancing pony ballet, composed of the followng young ladies: Misses Alice Bingham, Hazelle Erixon, Claudine Rose, Priscilla Fleming, Maude Durguson, Freda Hoover, ETAOINN bin, Zoe Olmstead, Catherine Carson, Esther Ferguson, Freda Hoover Lena Kershaw, Mable Smith, Vera Martin, Genevove Frazier, Velma Hoover, Hazel Downing and Constance Cartwright. These young ladies will also be seen in the march of the "Teddy Girls," a real good marching number, full of pretty pictures, and the girls will no doubt surprise local theatre-goers. "A Night in Bohemia" is a musical comedy in two acts, replete with new songs, pretty dances and local witticisms and contains that touch of nature that "makes the whole world kin." "Take a Car" will be sung by Mr. Louis Steelhammer, assisted by 40 ladies and gentlemen. The finale of the first act will be one of the prettiest ensembles ever seen on the Grand Opera House stage. In this picture the young ladies form a living boat in the center of a tastily arranged group of ladies and gentlemen, while hundreds of yards of various colored ribbons are thrown from all over the stage. The first performance will be held Tuesday, January 26th, and as the Elks expect capacity houses at both performances the public is advised to make their seat reservations as early as possible on the morning of the above date.

Seats on sale at box office January 26th, at 9 a. m.

BAKER STOCK COMPANY ATTRACTION

Portland's Popular Bungalow Theater to Have a Beautiful Play for the Coming Week.

Next week, starting Sunday matinee, January 17, Manager Baker will offer his patrons of the Bungalow and Baker stock company, Portland, a play that has been requested time and time again since its initial appearance here over five years ago. This is Robert Marshall's comedy satire, "A Royal Family," which was seen at Baker theater in September, 1903, with Lillian Kemble and Chas. Wyngate in the leading roles. It plays upon the artificial etiquette pursued by small principalities in arranging diplomatic marriages, and it abounds in delicious comedy and romantic scenes, chief of which is the leafy bower of the royal lovers in the gnarled old oak, beneath which the Royal Family is discussing luncheon. To settle little disputes in his petty monarchy, the King of Arcacia determines to wed his wilful daughter to the Prince of Kurland, which plan the pretty Angela strongly opposes. It is also little to the liking of the Prince, who comes incognito to inspect his bride to be, falls madly in love with her, and after a series of trying and comical events wins her love which fortunately survives the lovers duplicity and the play ends amid the chimes of wedding bells. No prettier story has been staged since childhood's fancy erected a mimic stage for the scene of the fairy tales of yesterdays. Miss Jewel as the mischeivious Princess, Mr. Ayres as the handsome Prince, Mina Gleason as the dowager Queen, and all the others of Baker company in splendid roles, will go to make a production the superior of which has never been seen here before. The stage will be under the direction of Mr. Donald Bowles.

Seats for the Bungalow may be ordered by letter or wire and will always receive careful attention.

A Religious Author's Statement.

For several years I was afflicted with kidney trouble and last winter I was suddenly stricken with a severe pain in my kidneys and was confined to bed eight days unable to get up without assistance. My urine contained a thick white sediment and I passed same frequently day and night. I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Remedy, and the pain gradually abated and finally ceased and my urine became normal. I cheerfully recommend Foley's Kidney Remedy. J. C. Perry.

You would not delay taking Foley's Kidney Remedy at the first sign of kidney or bladder trouble if you realized that neglect might result in Bright's disease or diabetes. Foley's Kidney Remedy corrects irregularities and cures all kidney and bladder disorders. J. C. Perry.

In spite of Weather conditions meets with unusual success. Of course there is a reason for it. Never has Salem seen such a showing of furniture bargains as is now in evidence here on these four great spacious floors. During this January sale everything in the house excepting contract goods is reduced from 10 to 25 per cent. If you've had in mind the purchase of housefurnishings later on, it would be well to buy now, and save money. In spite of conditions which seemed to make the matching of values of former years an impossibility, these prices piece for piece will count comparison with the best you remember at previous sales, here or elsewhere.
