CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

Polics Doubt Kelly's Story.—That J. J. Kelly, manager of the Kelly Paint Company, 482 East Washington street, voluntarily gave Lynn Williams, colored, a check for $20 and that Kelly was not held up at all is the firm belief of the police. Captain Balley, to whom Kelly reported his case, discredits his sensational yarn, and Chief Gritzmacher says he strongly doubts it. Williams is under arrest, charged with highway robbery. Kelly reported to the police early yesterday morning that he had been held up by a negro at the east end of the Steel bridge, and that the highwayman forced Counting-Room

ARMY OCCUPIES SCHOOL LAWN.—L. T. Poery, member of the Eexecutive Board, yesterday morning came very near colliding with the United States Army, or a portion of it, at the southwest corner of Williams avenue and Russell street. The mounted officers of the Third Battalion of the Fourteenth United States Infantry came north on Williams States Infantry came north on Williams avenue to the corner of Russell street, and seeing the vacant school ground rode and seeing the vacant school ground rode their horses on to the grassy lawn and dismounted. Mr. Peery saw the action and declared it ought not to be tolerated, and asked for a policeman to eject the officers. While he was skirmishing around for a policeman 200 brown troopers came marching up the avenue guns on came marching up the avenue, guns on their shoulders, and took possession of the school lawn. That was too many to the school lawn. That was too many to fire off the ground by the whole police force, "Besides," said Mr. Peery, "I can't fight the whole United States Army. I guess they'll have to stay till they get ready to move on." He ceased looking for a policeman, and the "army" moved

DEMAND FOR OREGON PAMPHLETS.-Th demand for the books on Oregon recently published by the Chamber of Commerce continues unabated. Yesterday a leading continues unabated. Yesterday a leading real estate firm of Portland secured a supply of 3000 of the books from the Chamber, which they will distribute throughout the Middle West by means of agents whom they have sent out. Recently the Chamber sent supplies of the book to the leading hotels and railroad offices in the city, with a letter asking them to distribute the books to the best advantage. Yesterday morning the them to distribute the boas of the day advantage. Yesterday morning the Chamber received a letter from R. F. Holder, general agent of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, in which ne quotes from a letter from the passenger traffic manager of the company, who says: "If the Portland Chamber of Commerce will furnish us with a supply of the books, I shall take pleasure in dis-tributing them over our lines and throughout the East. We can use 5000 to 10,000 as well as not if they have that many to spare."

BIDS FOR ARMORY REPAIRS.—Bids for repairing and making alterations in the Armory at Couch and Tenth streets were opened yesterday by the County Court. The lowest bid is that of Anton Teiler. The lowest bid is that of Anton Teller, who offers to do the work according to the specifications and plans of architect Richard Martin, Jr., for $13,840. The highest bid is that of D. C. McDonald, who asks $25,450 for the work. G. Zanello offered to do all the brick work on the addition to the Armory for $2597, but did not bid on the balance of the work. The other bids were as follows: Brown & Hepp, $14,650; J. L. Hand, $17,503; Langford & Walker, $16,600; McInnis & Reed, $13,502, not to include plumbing & Reed, $13,500; not to include plumbing and wiring; Palmer & Ellison, $18,600; W. R. PORTLAND-GROWN TOBACCO.—There is on display in the permanent exhibit in the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce a tobacco plant which was grown in East Portland by H. Raifschneider. It is of them ashore. He was a medical stuthe Connecticut variety and would make perfect cigar wrappers. The leaves are about two feet long by about 12 inches in width and the texture is of the finest quality. Another display in the Chamber is a sheaf of oats grown by Scott Hayman at Clackamis Station. They are of the "American Wonder" variety. Both exhibits are attracting a great deal of attention.

STEEL BRIDGE CARS DELAYED .- A derailed car on the east end of the Steel bridge held up traffic for over an hour last night. The car was west-bound and got off the track midway between the draw and the east end of the bridge. All cars of the Woodlawn, Russell and Sha-ver, Alberta and Vancouver divisions are now coming west over the Steel bridge and traffic is unusually heavy. The de-railing of the car held up a string of cars several blocks in length.

AD CLUBS INVITED .- Yesterday the Chamber of Commerce sent a telegraphic invitation to the Associated Ad Clubs of America to hold their next convention in Portland. The association is now in session in Cincinnati, O., there being about 500 delegates in attendance. The benefit to be derived by Portland from a ing of this kind is immense. A. W. Lafferty, a young Portland attorney with offices in the Fenton building, has prepared and submitted to Attorney-General Bonaparte a report on the interest of the Oregon & California Railroad Company in Oregon land grants. The report has been printed and appears in book form.

Mr. Lafferty makes a somewhat Mr. Lafferty makes a somewhat revolutionary suggestion as to the disposition of the lands now held by the Oregon & California Railroad Company in this state. He points out that the railroad was made trustee of the land grants, with certain definite instructions as to their disposition. Having failed to perform its trust, Mr. Lafferty advises that the railroad be removed as trustee and that the courts appoint a beard of trustees, composed appoint a board of trustees, composed of disinterested persons whose duties it shall be to dispose of the lands included in the grants in accordance with the letter and spirit of the acts of Congress of April 10, 1869, and May 1879, under which statutes the O.

pending the sale of the lands to actual settlers by the new trustees.

The report says that the patents held by the Oregon & California purport to convey the fee simple title of the lands embraced in the land grants to the company, when the intention of the acts of Congress and their actual wording is to the effect that the railroad is made trustee and is obliged to sell them to actual settlers at $2.50 an acre. Mr. Lafferty points out that the patents should have been worded differently, but he is confident this matter can be corrected by the court.

The historical aspect of the Oregon land grants held by the Oregon & California Railroad is also dealt with as well as the legal phases of the subject. Each event leading to the building of the railroad and the granting of the his tracts to the community of the his tracts to the community.
