. A SCENE FROM THE "GINGERBRBREAD MAN."

GNIGERBREAD MAN AND LOTS OF COOKIES

Very few comic operas of recent years have given such unboundid satisfaction as the "Gingerbread Man." This piece was originally presented some three years ago by a millionaire at Maldan, Mass., by the name of Converse, who put something like one hundred thousand dollars in its production and the first year that it toured the country the entourage was so elaborate that no theatres could hold sufficient money to pay the expenses. It of course made an unusual hit as the production was magnificent. It also demonstrated the fact that the music was of unusual quality and so pleased everybody that they were anxious to see it again and again. Some of the numbers were classics in a way and formed part of the nucelus of many individual music writers. Music stores had a large sale and everybody was whistling the "Gingerbread Man." The book by Frederick G Ranken is rather fantastic in character, yet it served to hinge together a lot of clever lyrics and some very funny comedy, and the characters of "Malgery Daw," "Simple Simon," "Jack Horner," "King Bunn," regained their standing in almost every household that had been represented at the performance of this clever opera.

The "Gingerbread Man" received a royal welcome everywhere and its catchy songs and amusing sayings were repeated by everybody. "Every Little Something" "Do You Believe in Santa Claus," "Old Pamelee," "John Dough" and other songs in the piece were frequently quoted and seemed to have an uncommon gogue for a lingtime after the opera had left the city, and demonstrated the fact that the whole fabric of the piece is built on uncommon lines and the genuine comic opera properly presented has longevity and will continue to please long after the so-called musical comedy has passed out of vogue.

The original No. 1 company will be seen on its presentation here at the Grand Opera House, Friday night. Seats on sale at box office Friday at 9 a. m.

No true heavy weight is available, and Guy Flaherty, the football tackle, will be entered in both the 175-pound and the heavyweight division.

Coach Vance expresses himself as being highly pleased with the work that the men have been doing, and says that he is confident they will make a good showing against the Oregon "Aggies."

WHEAT GOES ABOVE ONE TWENTY-EIGHT

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Chicago, April 8.—Not satisfied with his enormous profits made during the spectacular rise of the price of May wheat yesterday, James A. Patten, the stock broker, who has recently amassed thousands on grain, continued today to unload his holdings. Patten made aproximately $1,500,000 in May wheat yesterday, and as it was quoted at $1.25¼ at the opening today he stands a fair chance to double this amount.

At noon there was a great sensation when May wheat dipped to $1.24⅝. This falling off in price was only temporary, as it soon climbed back to $1.25.

The Patten interests' sales during the morning were so large that no estimate could be made of their total amount.

After setting another high price record, $1.28⅝, May wheat dropped this afternoon under the heavy selling of the Patten interests and closed near the low figures of the day, which was $1.24⅝.

Humphrey, general counsel, Louisville; J. K. Weaver, secretary, Louisville, and H. A. Humphrey, Jr., Louisville, attended the meeting.

No important chances were made in the directorate of the company.

A NICE LITTLE FAMILY

(United Press Leased Wire.)

San Francisco, April 8.—A three-months-old baby, youngest of the 35 children of Jesus Grigohli, was found today by H. R. Bogart and Dr. Elizabeth Keyes of the Associated Charities, nearly dead of pneumonia in a miserable hovel near the corner of Clayton and Grove streets. Despite the protests of the mother, Grigohli's consent was obtained to take the child to the Children's Hospital.

Grigohli comes of an old Spanish family, and conducted a restaurant in the Latin quarter before the fire. He has been married twice.

SAYS HER HUSBAND WAS BAD

(United Press Leased Wire.)

Los Angeles, Cal., April 8.—"My husband has been cruel to me, and for that reason I have field my suit for that reason I have filed my suit the case. I fully expect large allmony."

This statement was made today by Mrs. Martha Summers Myers, the beautiful wife of A. D. Myers, millionaire and pioneer mining man of Goldfield. Before her marriage to the wealthy miner, Mrs. Myers was Martha Summers, society belle of San Diego.

During their married life, Myers and his wife have lived in the palatial $300,000 home which he built for his bride at Long Beach. Here they have been practically shut off from the outside world, few guests ever entering the magnificent grounds.

Myers now leads a solitary existence in his great palace, while his wife makes her headquarters at the Hotel Lankershim, in this city, pending the hearing of her suit, which was filed yesterday.

NELLIE MOORE IS NOW NO MORE

Seatle, Wash., April 8.—The body of Miss Nellie Moore is at the morgue here today, where it was brought from a Third avenue hotel last night. The girl had shot herself through the head, and had been dead several hours when found. She arrived in the city from Aberdeen, Wash., three days ago.

Letters found in the woman's room were adressed to Miss Nellie Moore and Mrs. Nellie Arousou. A note to the police stated that the woman's brother, John Arousou, of Lima, Mont., would bury her.
