Three-bagger Makes Three Runs, Which Prove Decisive, Though Hartman Pitches High-Class Game for the Beavers.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 29.—(Special.)—Charley Street broke up the game this afternoon in the seventh inning, when he lined a three-bagger to the clubhouse, chasing in Williams and Henley, both of whom had singled up to that time. Southpaw Hartman was pitching the real high-art brand of ball, and apparently had the Indian sign on the Seals.

A piece of real hard luck lost the game for Portland in the opening round. With two down, Jones walked Bassey, Donahue and Atherton in a McCredle sent a hot grounder or its way past short, but Donahue ran into it, making the third out. This init would have been good for two runs PORTLAND

ARE READY FOR THE CONTEST

Major Reid and Carl Nelson in Condition for Broadsword Meet.

Major Reid and Carl Nelson, who are to battle for the mounted broadsword championship of the world at Multnomah Field next Monday afternoon, have decided to close their train-ing quarters tomorrow and, with the exception of some limbering-up work on Sunday, will rest until the time to enter the arena.

To the credit of both men, they have trained faithfully for the contest, and are in the best physical condition possible. Unlike similar affairs held in this city, everyone is satisfied that the combat is strictly legitimate and the best man will win. The fact that Company F. Third Regiment, Oregon National Guard, is back of the contest is in itself a guarantee that the public will not be disappointed in any particular. Captain O'Dale, commanding the military organization, has made elaborate preparations to handle the vast throng that is sure to attend. It is the intention of the commanding officer to detail his entire commanding officer to detail his entire company in uniform in the grounds to preserve order and keep the field clear.

The abundance of Nelson money in sight has caused the odds to drop from 10 to 9, with the local Guardsman fa-vorite. This fluctuation in the betting is not regarded as having any particular significance, and it is expected that even money will be legitimate figure on the day of the contest, as the men are regarded as being evenly

There has been a large demand for tickets, and it is expected that the crowd in attendance at the contest will be greater than the throng at the last football game. Tickets are on sale at Woodard, Clarke & Co.'s, Schiller's cigar store and the Northwest Gun Store. The general admission has been fixed at 50 cents, and reserved seats 25 cents. DAY'S HORSE RACES

Robert Hanna, Pioneer Steamboat Captain.

COLFAX, Wash., Aug. 29.—(Special.)
-Robert Hanna, of Colfax, father of E. K. and R. M. Hanna, died at Berkeley, Cal., August 23, aged 82 years.

Mr. Hanna was one of the ploneers of the Pacific Coast. He was born July 13, 1825, at Steubenville, Ohio, and in his younger days was a steamboat captain on the Mississippi River. In 1852 he came to Oregon via the Isthmus of Panama, and was the captain of the first steamboat run on the Walamette River. Mr. Hanna resided in the Willamette Valley from 1852 until 1891, and took part in the development of that val-ley, having engaged in merchandising and farming during the greatest part of that period. In 1891 he moved to and has since resided in Whitman County, Wash. In May last he went to California for his health and was preparing to return home when attacked by pneumonia, which re-sulted fatally. He married Miss Lucy E. Moore, of Oregon City, on November 28, 1863. His wife came to Oregon in 1848. She died a few years prior to his death. In addition to his two sons above mentioned he leaves surviving him a daugh-ter.
