CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR CONTEST.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Pleasant Grove and Stayton have decided to join the Aumsville society in a local contest between the three societies the winning society to be entertaind at the end of an appointed time by the two losing societies with a special picnic and program. The points to be used for this will in part be taken from the state contest.

Pleasant Grove has a very lively society with Mrs. F. W. Lathrop as president, and Stayton, well, we will not say as to what it is, but they sent three delegates to the C. E. convention at Eugene this year; you may guess the rest.

We as the home society should know what our own society is and what it can do. Each member should help to put enthusiasm into the work. If you see some part that is not getting its just attention get in and take hold, it will do both you and the society good.

The time appointed for the contest to start is the first of March, with Miss Viva McNeal, ex-president of the society, as leader. She is preparing a special program to start with and hopes that each succeeding meeting will have something new and interesting enough to make everyone who comes take special interest in what the young people are doing and make them want to come again.—Aumsville Record.

AUMSVILLE SCHOOL NEWS.

All are keeping in touch with the current events; the wars, fairs, etc.

An entertainment will be given by the high school, March 12th and the following program will be rendered: Debate, "Resolved, That the policy excluding Chinese laborers from the United States should be maintained and rigidly enforced." Leader of affirmative, Lee Sutton, assistants, Hattie Myers and Archie Eberhardt; leader of negative, Bliss Smith, assistants, Lora Pound and Nettie Eberhardt.

The boys are playing ball as though "Sweet Summer's never gone away," but is here with its store of bees, honey, peaches, crabapples, sour grapes, etc. Oh you sweet summer is coming, boys, but don't get rushed.

The school paid tribute to the "Father of Our Country," with exercises in the morning and enjoyed a half holiday in the afternoon.

A program was rendered last Friday afternoon by the intermediate room which was enjoyed by all present. In the debate judgment was rendered in favor of the affirmative by the judges. The question "Resolved, That the eight hour law should be passed," was competently handled by the debaters.—Record.
