friends of Sacred Heart Academy to the commencement exercises at the Grand Opera House, Thursday evening, June seventeenth. The invitations read eight o'clock, which is through an error on the part of the printer, the program not to begin until half past eight o'clock. The event will be invitational, this being done so that all who attend may be seated.

Patrons of the Oregon theater were pleased with the program Thursday and Friday evenings, when a benefit entertainment was given for the "Nike Klahanne" camp fire girls. Assisting the group in vocal and violin solos and dances were Miss Inez Dennison, Miss Marion Emmons, and small Jeanette Sykes. Mrs. George Fox is guardian for this camp fire which is composed of the following daughters of well-known people: Marjorie Brown, Louella Patton, Lucille Jones, Beulah Fox, Dorothy Buckner, Mary Talmadge, Valeria Briggs, Eva Randall, Gladys Riches, Marie Briggs, Margaret Legge, and Lucille DeWitt.

Miss Dorothy Steusloff accompanied her mother, Mrs. William H. Steusloff, home from her visit to McMinnville, and with her parents will attend the graduation exercises of the Oregon Agricultural College in Corvallis next week at which time Miss Dorothy Stusloff will be graduated. Miss Jessie Harriett is the other Salem student to be graduated with the 1915 class.

Mrs. Thomas H. Galloway will sing favorite songs at the social service meeting at the Unitarian church Sunday evening. Although quite a recent addition to Salem's musical circles, Mrs. Galloway already occupies an enviable place. She has a very beautiful contralto voice. Her numbers will be "At Dawning," a charming Cadman composition, and the lovely "Four Leaf Clover," the words of which are by Ella Higginson, whose exquisite verse has made her quite as popular as her prose. It has been a long time since this song was heard on a public program in Salem, and the singing of it will no doubt give much pleasure.

Mrs. E. A. Stinchfield, of Mayville, Oregon, will pass the week-end with the Jesse Steiwers of East State street.

A fashionable audience will greet Mme. Anna Pavlowa on the opening night of the famous Russians dancer's engagement in the Baker theater June 7, in Portland, the list of reservations already resembling a few well-selected pages from the blue book. Salem society will be well represented along with that of Portland.

Dr. Clement B. Shaw who recently presented Bellini's opera "Norma," at the First Christian church for the High School Dramatic Club, singing the solos of "Oroveso," the high priest, and accompanied by M. A. Goodnough, pianist, met with such success that he has been engaged to give his scenic and dramatic projection of Frithiof's "Saga," the national epic of Scandinavia, which he gave to a capacity house at the Portland Y. M. C. A. hall recently. The event will take place later and will be presented locally under the auspices of the Swedish Methodist church.

Mrs. Walter C. Winslow and Mrs. Roy Shields gave a delightful afternoon affair Thursday at the attractive home of the Winslows, 775 North Church street, the guest list including members of the Willamette Embroidery club and their husbands, with Mrs. Lila Swafford Moser, of Tacoma, a former W. U. student, who is visting here as honor guest. A lovely color scheme of pink was carried out in all the appointments. Rose blooms were used about the rooms and also ornamented the luncheon table, dainty hand painted cards designating the places for twenty five. The earlier part of the afternoon was passed informally, the men joining the group at the serving hour.

Invitations were issued to Mr. and Mrs. Carle Abrams, Dr. and Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. John Evans, Dr. and Mrs. Wilson H. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Guy O. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Unruh, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Emmel, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Siewert, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo White, Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Reeves, Mr. and Mrs. Ter, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Thompson, James Heltzel, Dr. and Mrs. Floyd Ut-

Mr. and Mrs. David Hanna, distinguished Eastern visitors of Woodlake, Nebraksa, who passed several days in Salem the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson of Market street, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson of North Summer street, were noticed with numerous delightful attentions during their few days here, and many former residents of Cherry county, Nebraska, were brought together again to recall pleasant reminiscences of former days. Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson opened their home in their honor, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. E. Young, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Vincent, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pettyerew, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ricket, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Query, Misses Vivian Young, Mabel Ricket and Minnie Moeller. Sunday the Johnsons gave a twelve cover dinner for them, Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. E. Young entertaining with a ten cover dinner in their honor. An eight place dinner complimentary to them was given Friday. Tuesday of this week Miss May Rutherford entertained with an informal tea for them at her home 1565 North High street. Additional guests were Richard Rutherford, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Johnson, and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Rutherford.

Wednesday Mr. and Mrs. D. Query of Lovesley, claimed the guests for dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Hanna departing for the south Wednesday evening, planning on attending the two expositions.

Mrs. Blanche Liston Niemeyer left Thursday for Portland, where tonight, in the East Side Congregational church, she will give a recital. She will remain in Portland until after the Rose Festival, and will be entertained as the guest of Mrs. A. J. Lennon and Mrs. A. R. Manley. She will be among the Salem folk attending Miss Billie Burke's and Pavlowa's performances. Mrs. Niemeyer has just returned from Klamath Falls, where she passed three weeks the guest of Mrs. Louis Gerber, the Dr. C. A. Whites and Dr. Truxess. She was extensively entertained during her stay there, motor trips being taken to Pelican Lodge, Klamath Falls and numerous other points of interest.

Mrs. S. R. Jessup expected to leave for Portland today, where, on June 19, she will attend the wedding of Miss De Etta Brodie to Dr. Warren E. Forsythe, a faculty member of the Pennsylvania State college. Miss Brodie is the daughter of George A. Brodie, of Portland, and a granddaughter of Mrs. S. A. Carpenter, of Salem. Her mother was formrely Miss Georgia Carpenter, of this city, and the family is well known here.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Kaiser, of Macleay, and Mrs. Mildred Sluffer, of Salem, motored to Eugene today to pass the week-end with relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. C. Hoeflior, of Portland, who has been the house guest of her sister, Mrs. F. W. Spencer, returned to her home today.

Seventy-five members of the Parent-Teachers circle and mothers organization of the Lincoln school filled the floral decked home of Mrs. Luther J. Chapin, when the mothers of the southern portion of the city gave an at home for the pleasure of the instructors of school Thursday. Roses, nasturtiums, and vining greenery made a most attractive setting, Mrs. Chapin asking Mrs Fred McIntire, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Sr., Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. R. C. Hunter, and Mrs. A. F Fellows to assist her. Mrs. Frank C. Frickey delighted the callers with piano selections during the receiving hours, and an especial feature of the occasion was the presentation of a handsome signet ring and leather covered book to Miss Emma Kramer by the mothers club, in appreciation of her efficient and conscientious work as principal of the school. Much of the success of the affair is attributed by the members of the various organizations to Mrs. J. C. Spencer, who headed the gift committee and her assistants Mrs. George W. Hobson, Mrs. John Pollock and Mrs. E. A. Rhoten.

Miss Alice Skiff, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Will Skiff, has commenced her vocal training work with Frank X. Arens, the distinguished vocal instructor of New York city, who passes his summers in Portland.

Mrs. Blanche Liston Niemeyer will give a recital in the East Side Congregational church in Portland tonight, recently returning from a several weeks' visit in Klamath Falls.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Miss Holdah Hoven to Frank Smith of Silverton, the wedding to be an event of Wednesday afternoon, June 16, at the home of the bride's parents, east of Salem.

* * *

Miss Theodosia Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Bennett, will pass her summer vacation in Salem. She has been with the Jefferson High school Portland, teaching Physical Geography. A graduate of Willamette University she has been an instructor in both the Silverton and Salem High schools. She will be present at the Alumni banquet of Willamette University.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, and their son, Franklyn, started yesterday on a two thousand mile motor trip. They plan to make their first stop in the Dalles going from there through Prineville, Lakeview, Eastern Oregon, Reno, Nevada, Lake Tahoe and the Yosemite Park. In Merced, California, they will be the guests of relatives, the R. H. Renshaws and they will spend some time in the exposition cities. The return trip will be by Crescent City and Grants Pass. They plan to be away a month or more, and upon their arrival home will be met by their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Jackson (Miss Maude Durbin) and her husband, of Chicago, who will remain in Salem for the summer.

* * *

Miss Adelti Nye will be entertained as a week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ohling (Miss Margaret Poland) of Albany.

* * *

Miss Gladys Cartwright, who finishes her work as an instructor in the Dallas High school shortly plans to take work under Dr. Axson, the well known exponent of English, who is identified with the summer school conducted by University of California at Berkeley. Miss Margaret Rhose, of Portland, who has been teaching German in the McMinnville High school, and who is well known here will accompany Miss Cartwright.

* * *

Miss Eleanor Rogers, who has just finished her second year at Miss McClintock's fashionable girls' school, Boston, arrived home Tuesday, to pass the summer with her father, J. P. Rogers. Later the two plan a trip to the Panama-Pacific exposition.

* * *

Complimentary to Mrs. George Palmer Putnam's house guests, Miss Louise Halverson and Miss Pearl Hightower, of Bend, Mrs. Harvey Wells gave a charming one o'clock luncheon Thursday. Graceful snapdragons in shades of yellow festooned the table, and all the appointments were perfected in this color. Places were marked for the following, besides the honor guests: Mrs. Putnam, Mrs. Henry J. Schulderman, Mrs. William C. Knighton and Mrs. William Burghardt, Jr.

* * *

The names of Richard Hutton and Gordon West have been selected for the twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Ben W. Olcott. Hutton is in honor of Mrs. Olcott's family, West complimenting Mrs. Olcott's sister, Mrs. Oswald West.

* * *

Yellow roses and place cards of the same hue made attractive ornamentation for the table when Miss Rita Steiner entertained with a dinner Thursday evening for Miss Helen Whitney, of Portland, who has been the house guest of Miss Ellen Thielsen the past three weeks, leaving for her home yesterday. Covers were laid for the following guests: Miss Whitney, Miss Thielsen, Miss Althea Moores, Miss Jennie Fry, Miss Veda Cross and Miss Marjorie Marvin.

* * *

Mrs. M. J. Creighton and her daughter, Miss Mabel, Portland visitors, house guests of Mrs. Creighton's daughters, Mrs. W. H. Dancy and Mrs. W. Al Jones, were honored with a delightful Kensington Wednesday afternoon, given by Mrs. Harry H. Olinger. The Creightons are former Salem people, and have been much appreciated during their stay in the city. Mrs. Olinger decked her home with fragrant sweet brier and Carolyn Testout roses, and she asked Mrs. Dancy, Mrs. Milton Meyers and Miss Jessie Meyers to assist her. The guest list included Mrs. W. D. Matthews, Mrs. Dancy, Mrs. W. Al Jones, Mrs. M. M. Chapman, Mrs. Eugene Breyman, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. E. C. Small, Mrs. A. J. Monroe, Mrs. J. A. Baker, Mrs. Lot L. Murphy, of Portland.

* * *

Miss Elene Fawk, who has been passing several weeks touring California with friends from Denver, is at present in Santa Cruz. She will be away a month longer, much of her time during her absence being spent in San Francisco. Mrs. Henry W. Fawk leaves today for Corvallis to remain several days with her brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. James Richards.

* * *

Mrs. Thomas F. Ryan and her son, Donald, are home from a three weeks' stay at Newport in the Ryan cottage. The family will return later for a longer sojourn.

Thursday evening St. Josepa's choir surprised their director, Dan F. Langenberg, with an informal gathering in his honor, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. The hours were spent with cards, high honors falling to Mrs. H. Brians and Mr. H. F. McIntuff, consolations to Miss Mary Schoettle and Mr. E. A. Pruitt. In behalf of the members of the choir, Rev. Father Moore presented a token of remembrance and appreciation to Mr. Langenberg, the gift of the guests. Mr. Langenberg is decidedly popular with his choir and has accomplished much since being director. His ability is recognized by all music lovers. The personnel of the choir is: Mrs. F. X. Albrich, Mrs. H. Brians, Mrs. M. J. Petzel, Mrs. A. E. Pruitt, Miss Leita Hays, Miss Johonna Domogalla, Miss Lou Davey, Miss Petzel, Mr. M. J. Petzel, Mr. H. F. McIntuff, Mr. F. Meier, Mr. Domogalla, Mr. Spencer, Mr. Weller Chamberlin, Mr. F. Walsh, Leona Wiedmer, organist.

There was a large number to regret the departure of Mrs. Alan N. David, and her small daughter, Jean Frances, for their home in Atlanta, Georgia, Tuesday. As a farewell attention for them Mrs. Paul Schmidt, entertained with a ten-cover dinner Monday evening, the affair also being complimentary to Mrs. R. B. Houston in commemoration of her birthday. Carolyn Testout roses were used as a centerpiece for the table, tiny Cecil Brunner buds being scattered about the cloth. The pink color effect was further suggested in the candle shades. Covers were laid for Mrs. David and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Houston, Mr. and Mrs. Lilburn M. Boggs, Miss Ruth Boggs and Frank Schmidt, of Seattle.

Complimentary to Superintendent and Mrs. O. M. Elliott, who are quite recent arrivals here from Twin Falls, Idaho, Mrs. B. J. Miles and Mrs. Beulah W. Miles entertained with an attractively planned dinner last night at the Miles' suburban residence on South Commercial street. Handsome red roses graced the center of the table and available places about the rooms. Hand tinted roses decorated the place cards, the feminine guests finding beside their covers, lovely full blown roses, the men being given smaller buds of the same color as boutonniere favors. The list of guests included Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Boss, recent arrivals here from New York city. Mr. Boss possesses an excellent voice and was a contributor to the impromptu program which followed later in the evening. Other guests were: Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett, Miss Regina Long, Miss Enid Elliott, C. Rauch and Jack Elliott.

* * *

Mrs. R. L. Studley and Mrs. W. W. Calkins, of Eugene, are guests at the Charles H. Fisher residence. Mrs. Studley will remain for the week-end.

Miss Mary Stevens, of Albany, will spend the week-end with Miss Margaret Putnam.
