YELOBANS CAPTURE YESTERDAY'S GAME BY NARROW MARGIN

Close Decision In the Ninth Coupled With Weak "Sticking" Is Cause

On account of a close decision on the part of "His Umps," when Foster, pitcher for the visitors, was called safe at first upon a fly to right, fielded by Jones in the first half of the ninth, and an unfortunate chain of circumstances which brought the weakest end of Salem's batting order around to the closing chapter of the game, when good stickers were most needed, Salem lost yesterday's game to the McMinnville Yelobans by the score of 3 to 2. It was one of the cleanest and most exciting games yet played on the local grounds and was witnessed by the largest and most enthusiastic crowd of the season.

One feature of the game was the dedication of the "kids" bleachers which was donated by the Elks' lodge, in playing the part of "Big brother" for the benefit of the kiddets and the occasion was honored by a motely crowd of "Young Americas" who showed their appreciation of the honor bestowed by yelling and rooting lustily upon any and every occasion. The Elks' band discoursed music at intervals during the game and livened the spirits of the players and spectators appreciably. "Jimmie" Richardson, the ex leaguer, officiated as "umpe" to the satisfaction of all concerned and, while it was charged that he favored the visitors a shade in some of his decisions, particularly in balls and strikes, he was in the game from start to finish and everybody was satisfied that he intended to be absolutely impartial.

The first real thrill of the game came in the third with the visitors wielding the willow when it looked as though the Yelobans were bound to score, but, in spite of error on the part of Miller, at short, and Humphreys at third, Hott having been given a pass the second man up, the bases were full and one risen down. Hott was caught at home on a forced run and O. Nickerbacker fanned. It was a pitchers' battle then with good support on both sides until the sixth, which marked the run getting for both teams.

Porter, the Yelobans' pitcher, got to first on Miller's error, was advanced to third by K. Nickerbacker and Hott, and scored on a passed ball which was difficult to handle and went through Holman. Salem responded with a series of bombardments which resulted in two scores. Reinhard got to first on a muffed third strike, was advanced around by Humphreys and Funk, but was put out at home. Humphreys scored on Jones' sacrifice hoist, and Funk scored on Wilson's long drive to center. The inning was closed by Bell being thrown out at first by Hunt.

In the first half of the ninth Porter of the Yelobans, hit to right field and although the ball was fielded perfectly by Jones and returned to first, Richardson gave the runner the benefit of the doubt and thereby hangs the tale. K. Nickerbacker sacrificed and Porter went to second; to third on Hott's out at first and scored on Bishop's drive to right field. Bishop was scored by a two-bagger by Baird. When Salem came to bat in the last half Miller and Bell both fanned and Holman was thrown out at first by O. Nickerbacker.

Craig, for Salem, pitched a good game although he walked two men in the early part of the game, until he was struck on the knee by a batted ball from his own stick on the sixth and was relieved by Wilson. Wilson also gave passes to two Yelobans but he held steady and pitched a good game. Porter, for the Yelobans, played a steady game throughout and was touched up for five hits, as compared to two off Craig and three off Wilson.

The total paid admission at the game was 612 of which McMinnville fans contributed fully 250 and was the largest attendance so far this season. The McMinnville enthusiasts came by special train and automobile and proved loyal booisters for the home talent. Salem will play a return game at McMinnville on Sunday, July 25. It is expected that a big crowd will go over from Salem to return the compliment.

Watching the Scoreboard

And now we call them Vernons.

Maybe the name change will be a Soka killer. They conquered Salt Lake Bees yesterday 5 to 1.

Cack Henley did it. He pitched 42 centimeter ball, made his bat kiss the horsehide twice, scored a run and almost scored a second, getting nailed at the plate.

Meanwhile the Oaks were laid to rest by their neighbors the Seals who made it three straight. Fanning had the Oaks helpless until the ninth when he let 'em score a couple just to keep Elliott from getting mad and issuing a general release.

Again we desire to call your attention to the Beavers. Their machine looked Chevrey a few days ago, but McCredie had patched up the tires where they whistled and feels good for a few more laps, thank you.

He has clipped the Angels wings, all right, but Dillon's cherubs fought hard against it.

It was a pitchers' battle with Higginbotham of Portland getting better support than Love.

They played nine innings in less than two hours. Why this unseemingly haste?

Fifteen to four was the terrible score (poetry) when Detroit licked the Red Sox (prose).

Only 11 men faced Greg in the sixth and but six got hits. How stingy of Gregg.

By coming through with a cluster of batting rallies, climaxed by O'Mara's and Daubert's two bagger, Brooklyn Dodgers over hauled the Cubs in the tenth and won 8 to 7.

Changing the name of Venice to Vernon certainly got a few good results, from a Tiger standpoint.

While the Tigers were taking both Sunday affairs from the Salt Lake Bees a number of old-timers in the grandstand must have murmured "just like old times."

The Vernons had large gobs of luck in both battles, so the jinx undoubtedly is shelved for the present.

Oakland and the Seals divided, splitting the series 4-3.

By defeating Portland twice the Angeles climbed until they were only half a game behind the league leading Seals.

In the first game, the Beavers worked hard, but showed many hobbles and a lot of looseness in the second.

After Falter, of Chicago, had disposed of two Washington batters the Senators whaled him out of the box.

Crandall, of St. Louis, kept the Pittsburg Federals' hits scattered while the St. Louis Feds were busching theirs. Score, 4 to 1.

Jack Ness May Beat Record Of Ty Cobb

Oakland, Cal., July 12.—Jack Ness may hold a world's record tomorrow. If he sicks a Salt Lake pitcher for a kill on Tuesday's game he will pass Ty Cobb's record of hitting safely in 40 consecutive games. Jack connected safely in both games yesterday and tied the record of the Georgia peach.

Cobb has it on Ness for the aggregate number of hits driven out during the string of 40 games. Ty registered 78 hits against Jack's 68. For sustained slugging, however, Ness is confident that he will pass Cobb's mark. In recognition of his great work the Oakland first baseman will be honored here Thursday. This will be "Ness Day" and Jack will be presented with a diamond ring by the club owners, while the players are understood to have raised a fund for other gifts.

Ness started his run of hits May 21. Since then he has been at bat 152 times, scored 32 runs and registered 68 hits for a percentage of .429.

BOISE POLOISTS BEAT SPOKANE

Spokane, Wash., July 12.—With the northwest polo championship won, the members of the Boise club were enjoying social relaxation today after Sunday's hard riding.

Boise defeated Spokane in the last minute of play in the deciding match when Cranley shot the ball squarely between the goal posts.

The final score was 7 1-2 to 7.

HAWAIIAN SWIMMERS ARRIVE

San Francisco, July 12.—Seven Hawaiian athletes, headed by Champion Duke Kahanamoku, are here today to participate in the exposition swimming championships which will open Friday. The Illinois Athletic club team of eight crack swimmers also arrived today. The New York Athletic club team is due here tomorrow.

Panama-Pacific Tennis Tournament Opens Today

San Francisco, July 12.—Singles in women's play opened the third day of the Panama-Pacific tennis tournament here today. The day's program includes singles for the men and women and the start of the doubles.

The two feature matches of the day are between W. M. Washburn, one of the eastern champions, and Dr. Melville H. Long. Maurice McLoughlin, former national champion, will meet Carl Gardner, of San Francisco.

In Sunday's matches, C. F. Griffin beat A. Gorrill, 6—3, 3—6, 6—2. Dr. M. H. Long defeated Sherwood Chapman, 6—2, 6—2; William Johnson defeated Normal Kendall, 6—0, 6—1; J. A. Strachan won from Morgan Fortrell, 6—0, 4—6, 6—4; W. M. Washburn beat Joseph Tyler, 6—3, 6—2; R. T. Murray won from Ward Dawson, 6—4, 6—4.

Recovery In Market Follows German Note

New York, July 12.—The recovery on the stock exchange which began with the public's first reading of the German note, continued today, and the market closed with a vigorous show of strength. The day's advances were irregularly distributed, but the tendency was unmistakable. What last week's market anticipated in its numerous severe declines, while awaiting the message, Wall Street would probably have found it difficult to say. There was no great chance that the note would be actually provocative in language; all that was known to have happened in the previous fortnight of discussion with Berlin made that wholly unlikely. Still, there was a chance, and undoubtedly this was "discounted" in the market. If so, undoubtedly the friendly and conciliatory tone of the communication settled that apprehension.

It requires a little reminiscence to realize how far the controversy has moved away from the status of a month or six weeks ago when a good part of our people were insisting that war was inevitable, and when another part was indulging in the theory that Germany was deliberately trying to force us into war.

SILVERTON WINS GAME.

The baseball game between the North Howell and Silverton teams in this city last Saturday was not so good an exhibition as was expected. For some reason the visitors were badly out of form and seemed unable to handle the sphere to any advantage whatever. The locals were not in the best of form, either. Jenkins was not in condition for pitching and Carl Moser was placed at that position. Carl is a mighty good man wherever placed and did a good job of twirling. The home boys pounded the Howell pitcher unmercifully and continued to pile up the scores at a great rate.

About the fourth inning Moser was replaced by L. Wolfard, and he also pitched a good game. While the visitors were able to connect frequently, they could not place the ball where it would do them the most good, and the score stood 7 to 19 in favor of Silverton at the close of the game.—Silverton Appeal.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC AGENT GIVES SOME TIMELY HINTS

(S. P. Co. Bulletin.)

Agent R. B. Houston, of Salem, Ore., submits hints for shippers and receivers of freight. Here they are:

See that the bill of lading for shipment is not partially short. See that the number of packages check properly and that all errors are corrected.

Accept a bill of lading where the marking on the goods corresponds exactly with the address on the shipping order and bill of lading.

Note on the bill of lading the exact time the shipment was accepted and say and all exceptions as to conditions, etc.

Offer nothing for shipment unless in a safe condition to insure against leakage and damage.

See that the car number and initial are entered on bill of lading.

Have shown on the bill of lading the correct routing and junction points on all interline shipments.

Hints for the Receiver.

Give proper receipt at the time of accepting freight.

See that freight is checked to you at the time of receiving same, paying careful attention to all marks.

Have noted at time of delivery, on both original and duplicate delivery receipts, all exceptions as to loss or damage.

Have weighed, if not satisfied, at time of receiving freight, each piece that is damaged and have noted on the delivery receipt.

Pay particular attention to perishable freight and make arrangements to receive same as soon as transportation company can deliver it to you.

Prevent an order bill of lading properly endorsed when calling for shipments billed to the "Order of Notify," or in other words billed "C. O. D."

BRYAN LIKES QUIET SWIM.

Hermosa Beach, Cal., July 12.—William J. Bryan, who is guest of his son here, planned to go surf bathing and fishing today. He was very cautious about the surf bathing.

"I prefer to mix the sea with a bath," he said to reporters, indicating that he did not care to have a "gallery" in attendance.

STATE WATER BOARD IS UP AGAINST MARSH LAND WATER PROBLEM

In the story of the use of water on marsh land, for reclamation by both drainage and irrigation purposes, the state water board is confronted with a new problem which not only involves the future development of the agricultural resources of that vast empire comprising south central Oregon but also affects future development of transportation facilities for that section very materially. State Engineer Lewis, accompanied by James T. Chinnock and George T. Cochran, water commissioners, comprising the state water board, will leave on Monday for an extended tour of central Oregon to make a special study of the situation.

"If twice the amount of water needed is decreed to these marsh lands," said Engineer Lewis last evening, "it will cut in half the area which can ultimately be reclaimed in this section. Owing to the extensive marsh areas the problem presents a serious aspect from the standpoint of the ultimate development of the state, for, without prospects for increasing the irrigated area, railroad and other development may be indefinitely postponed." The water board had under special consideration the adjudication of water rights for marsh lands along the Lost river, Chewaucan river and Silvies river in Lake and Malheur counties.

State Engineer Lewis left last evening for Medford where he will spend several days inspecting progress of road work in Jackson county before making the central Oregon trip.
