Portland, Ore., July 17.—Aside from some thousands of dollars worth of stock he sold from the still unexplained "Frank Menefee special account," Oscar Campbell, of Eugene, vice-president and director of the United States Cashier company sold $31,717.50 worth of stock on a 30 per cent commission according to testimony at the fraud trial of the seven former officials and salesmen of the concern in the federal court today.

Most of this stock was sold to people who knew him either personally or by reputation in the lower Willamette valley and in Harney county. The transactions involving Campbell were brought out today through examination of the government's expert, Hiram House, who took the stand after several investors from Harney county and Eugene had told how they came to purchase stock from Campbell.
