

SAYS MILK IS BAD

Dr. Cattel Maintains His Position.

PRaises Inspector Bailey

States Department Does the Best It Can With the Equipment It Possesses—Says Milk Causes Typhoid, However.

"There are two things that I want to make myself as plain as possible about," said Dr. W. I. Cattel, Councilman, last night. "One is that impure milk is being sold in Portland every day of the year; and the second is that it is by no means Food Inspector Bailey's fault.

"I seek no quarrel with him. On the other hand, I have nothing but praise for Mr. Bailey, and his department. The fact that there is deadly milk being peddled in Portland daily cannot be told by the means Mr. Bailey has at his command. Milk may come up to the fat test and be free from preservatives, yet cause the death of a baby or a weak adult just as surely as prussic acid would. For instance, take the cases of typhoid caused by milk as just reported by the City Health Department. Mr. Bailey has no means of telling whether milk is pure and fit to use or simply alive with typhoid germs, and full of virulent germs of everything from typhoid to dysentery.

Milk Causes Typhoid.

"Besides the deaths from typhoid reported in the papers yesterday, I know of three other cases, all due to one milkman near Astoria. One can any department under the state or city government tell with the present means whether milk is pure or not? It takes money and men to do that, far in excess of what we now have. Can any man take the apparatus in Mr. Bailey's office and tell if there is typhoid in milk or not? And milk alive with typhoid is certainly not pure in any sense of the word.

"To insure pure milk certain iron-clad rules must be made and rigidly enforced. A well-meaning but ignorant farmer who washes his milk cans in cold well water should be fined a few hundred dollars to teach him that well water, no matter how clean, is full of germs, and that the milk which contains the beginning of death to a dozen or a score of people. Nothing but scalding water should ever touch the inside of a milk can or bottle, or anything that comes in contact with milk.

"Disease germs, under certain conditions, will travel for miles underground in seeping water, and appear in a well all unknown to anyone till somebody gets typhoid fever. The popular idea that sand or charcoal purifies water is an exploded one. Today we know that water can pass through ten miles of sand and anything else except heat and come out as dangerous to the human being as snake-poison.

"Now, just wash one milk can with such water, fill it with milk, let the milk stand for a few hours, and all the fat tests and butter-fat tests that milk from killing almost every baby who drinks it.

Milk Can Be Made.

"It is possible to rig up a manufactured article that is not milk at all that will pass our present milk laws. Take milk of various ages and degrees of richness, mix it with cream through a separator, and you have cream and whey. Now, mix the cream and the whey together again in just the exact proportion to pass the butter-fat test, add a few drops of formaldehyde, and ship to Portland. In a few hours the formaldehyde evaporates, leaving it free from the manufactured dope you now have by no means milk, although it will pass the ordinary milk test for butter-fat and freedom from chemicals. Part of it has been changed into a substance something like rubber, and no more digestible. In fact, a sort of commercial rubber and a substance like celluloid is being made by treating milk with formaldehyde and other chemicals. Fancy putting such substances into the stomach of a sick baby! If that would not be a murder, producing one did it intentionally, pray who would it be?

"Pure milk means pure milk, nothing more or less. It means milk just as it comes from the cow, free from chemicals and disease germs. Milk that sickens or kills is not pure milk, no matter what artificial tests it passes. The one and only test that counts is the stomach, and when the stomach says it is bad—it is bad. That is all there is to it."

AT THE VAUDEVILLE THEATERS:

Comedy Bill at Grand.

It is a comedy bill the Grand gives. James Donovan is one of the best Irish comedians in vaudeville and Al Johnson is considered the foremost of blackface monologists. Duffy, Sawtelle and Duffy have a comedy sketch and Watson and Smith present a singing act which is as delightful as one wants to hear. The comedians are really amusing and the vaudeville acts are of the highest quality. Those who have seen the Grand bill this week declare it is the best they have ever seen in a year. To see a fine entertainment visit

When nominations for president were called for E. W. Rowe was put in nomination, and in a short speech declined to allow his name to remain, explaining that he could not accept the honor again under any circumstances. The board then elected Chester A. Whitmore to the position and chose Julius Meier, S. G. Reed and H. M. Calk vice-presidents. Bury

THE first thing you see when you ride out to Rose City Park is the magnificent layout of graded streets and cement sidewalks. Then you notice two houses just started. Behind them are two bungalows, just completed. To the right, on the crest of the rise, you see two large homes, almost finished. In the foreground stands the neat little office of this company. Visit the same place, two weeks hence, and in probability, you will see about four more new houses started. The principal reasons why people are building are that it is a such a homelike place and so convenient to the city.

At the Theaters

What the Press Agents Say.

"THE PRINCE CHAP" TONIGHT

Cyril Scott Will Begin Engagement in Delightful Comedy-Drama.

Beginning tonight at the Hellig Theater, Fourteenth and Washington streets, the talented actor, Cyril Scott, and his excellent supporting company will commence an engagement of four nights, with a special price three Saturday.

Those who saw "The Prince Chap" either in New York or on the road—the productions being identical—will need no urging, we are told, to witness it again. It comes with the promise of being a sincere success; the style of play that will live long on its own devoted popularity, requiring nothing but the opinion of those who have seen it to insure its success. Genuinely good plays are very scarce; here, reliable report confirms, is one of the best.

Supporting Mr. Scott are such well-known actors as Helen Fullman, Charles B. Wells, George Schaeffer, Cecil DeMille, Duane Wager, Beryl Fullman, Ida Stanhope, Kathryn Elyse, Mary Keogh, Arnold Raye, Albert Powers, F. B. Randel, Gertrude Barrell, etc., etc.

"THE SERENADE" TONIGHT

The Californians in Popular Comic Opera at the Marquam.

Last night's performance of the ever-popular "Serenade" by the Californians was another triumph for the new opera company that has aroused a storm among Portland music-lovers and those who enjoy the best of comedy by comedians that are unequalled in the fun-making line. Harry Cashman, lead singer, and the orchestra, Trust & Savings Bank failure are convulsively funny and his references to the "id" received the greatest kind of applause. Lucille Saunders singing and the work of the chorus carry the audience off their feet. It is a comic opera entertainment that is all that appears to be a comedy, but it is if you want to enjoy an evening of unalloyed pleasure.

"The Liars," at Baker.

Henry Arthur Jones' comedy, "The Liars," at the Baker this week, is a comedy of the highest type, conceived with perfect intelligence and clean thought. To such it is a perfect scream of laughter at times, and at the next moment bordering on the intensely dramatic. The Baker Company is receiving particular ovations at every performance of this, their opening week. There will be a matinee Saturday.

Matinee at the Star.

"Driven From Home," the great rural drama, presented by the French Stock Company, at the Star Theater, is meeting with success in large cities, because the public realizes that this is a good company and the plays are the best obtainable. "Driven From Home" is a Hal Reid drama, with heart interest and comedy sensations and realism. No stock company has ever gained favor in Portland more than the French Stock Company. There will be matinees Thursday and Saturday. Seats can be reserved by telephone.

"Jess of the Bar-Z Ranch."

The final week of the Allen Stock Company is now on at the Lyric and thousands of patrons of the popular place of amusement are taking advantage of the opportunity to say farewell to that justly famous presentation. The play is one of the best of Western drama and the characters as they are cast this week are absolutely the best that could be conceived. Verma Fulton is the best Jess that the stage has ever seen. It is added wonderfully to her already splendid reputation.

LOUIS JAMES IS COMING SOON

Favorite Actor Will Present Two Magnificent Productions at Hellig.

The celebrated actor, Louis James, will present two magnificent productions at the Hellig Theater next week. The engagement begins next Sunday night, September 8, when he opens with "The Comedy of Errors." Shakespeare's delightful comedy, will be the bill for the first four nights. The classic and hilarious comedy, "The Merry Wives of Windsor," will be the offering Thursday, Friday, Saturday night, September 12, 13, 14, with a special price matinee Saturday. The dramatic seat sale for the entire engagement at box office at the theater next Friday morning, September 6.

"The Bohemian Girl," at Marquam.

Everybody who likes music is fond of Deller's beautiful opera, "The Bohemian Girl," which the Californians will sing next week, commencing Monday night. All the old favorites, "I Dreamt I Dwell in Marble Halls," "Heart Doved Down," and the other favorite classics will be rendered in the most finished fashion. The comedy lines will also be well handled. Remember the first performance of "The Bohemian Girl," Monday night, at the Marquam.

New Lyric Company Next.

Next Monday evening the new Lyric Stock Company will begin its engagement in that always popular American drama, "Fort-Nine." In the part of "Old Fort-Nine" there have been few equals to Mr. Ashton and the new company will afford Ashton the very best support. It is a play that will live forever and it has seldom been better supported than it will be by the new Lyric Company.

"The City of New York."

Beginning Monday afternoon the French Stock Company at the Star Theater will present "The City of New York," a new and spectacular comedy drama. The play has never been seen in this city. Seats are now on sale.

TRICK DOGS AT PANTAGES.

Drako's educated sheep and dogs dispel the idea that sheep are the simple creatures that they are generally regarded. Their tricks are most wonderful and display great intelligence. La Velle and Grant make a great hit with their handbalancing and muscular posing. The Elliotts give an extremely novel performance on the harp. Clifford and Hall win big applause with their singing character act. Ned Bennett, bone soloist, has an entertaining number on the programme. Jean Wilson is in good voice in his illustrated ballad and the moving pictures are most entertaining.
