Social and Personal

CAROL B. DIBBLE.

That the mid-summer social season is in full sway may be evidenced by the increasing number of outdoor affairs now being held in every choice nook and spot of rural charm scattered throughout the inviting countryside around Salem. Very little life may be seen within the four walls of home, these balmy August evenings, for inhabitants have adjourned to verandah and lawn, to river bank and tennis court, to motorcycle and automobile. The band concerts are more than holding their own, the swimming pool is a miniature Coney Island, and a picnic party—well, a picnic party is fast developing into a contagion that only a sudden Oregon rain could check, and there are doubts of even that completely stopping the spread of the stuffed-olive and sardine-sandwich exodus. Anything may be turned into an excuse for a picnic from the possession of a camera to that of an automobile. Of the latter class, many are taking advantage of the warm evenings to leave town in the late afternoon to eat supper a few miles distant either along the mountain creek or the more familiar Willamette. Among these was a party consisting of two machine loads, who motored up the river last night for seven or eight miles, spreading their lunch on a particularly inviting stretch of sandy bank. Swimming was enjoyed later by members of the outing party, who were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Hill, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Roma Hunter and daughter, Mrs. Maude Lucas, Robert Lucas, Fred Hill and Lester Purmine. Among other picnics last evening was a group of 16 young people, who made their destination, a unique place near Gervains, known as Crawfish farm. Lunch at this affair was doubly enhanced by the proprietor of the farm, who is ready at the demand of the hour to prepare an appetizing spread of crawfish browned to an exact nicety.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser motored to Silver Creek Falls today on a deer-hunting expedition. They will be gone about five days.

* * *

The Ladies' Missionary society of the aBptist church spent a pleasant day Friday in the country. Leaving town about 9 o'clock, they motored to the Higgins' ranch at Oak Grove, returning about 7 in the evening. The outing came up to all standard requirements for a genuine picnic, as two bountiful lunches were enjoyed by the ladies, one at mid-day and another at the regulation supper-time hour. During the day, an informal literary program was contributed to by various members.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNary left for Cascadia today, remaining over the week-end.

* * *

Mrs. G. E. Olmstead is spending the week in Oregon City, as the guest of her mother, Mrs. Pettit.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. Frank Snedecor have returned to their home in Birmingham, Alabama, Dr. Snedecor leaving last week and Mrs. Snedecor on Monday. During their stay in Salem as the guests of Mrs. Snedecor's mother, Mrs. M. E. Breyman, and her sisters, Mrs. R. P. Reese and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, the Snedecors have been extensively entertained, various motor trips to Mt. Rainier and other places of interest being taken and numerous social affairs given for Mrs. Snedecor. Mrs. Snedecor was formerly Miss Lena Breyman, a popular Salem girl.

* * *

The Ladies' Aid society of the Jason Lee church met this afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Montealm Brown on North Winter street. The society meets once a month, the members bringing their fancy work and enjoying a social afternoon. Mrs. Phil Aspinwall assisted Mrs. Brown in serving.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Toompson spent the week-end with friends in Silverton.

* * *

Dr. and Mrs. J. N. Smith and son, Lloyd, have returned from a four weeks' outing at Newport. They report a delightful time, due in part to the unusually fine weather which prevailed during their stay.

* * *

Miss Olive Smith, of Florence, South Dakota, who has been the house guest of her aunt, Mrs. D. K. Brannon, is now visiting friends in the country, but will return shortly to Salem. Miss Smith is on her way to the exposition.

* * *

Mrs. D. K. Brannon and her daughter, Mrs. E. W. Vail, left today for a short visit at Rickreall.

* * *

Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett are passing the month of August in California. They will attend the Panama-Pacific exposition, after which they will visit in Los Angeles.

* * *

Mrs. E. S. Grobecker is spending several weeks in Sheridan as the guest of Mrs. J. C. Robinson.

* * *

Mrs. R. H. Mills is spending a week with her mother, Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, at Newport. Sherman Plimpton accompanied aer and will visit little Nancy and Henry Wesley Thielsen at the F. D. Thielsen cottage at Agate Beach.

* * *

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff B. Genardine, of Tacoma, are spending two weeks with Mrs. Genardine's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Haweigle.

* * *

An approaching marriage of interest to society in various parts of the state is that of Robert Kinney, of Astoria, and Miss Althea Moores, of Salem. The date for the ceremony has been set for September 1. Miss Mildred Smith, of Astoria, will be the maid of honor, and Gordon Craig, formerly of Portland, but now of New York, will come west to be best man at the wedding. The bride-elect is the daughter of A. N. Moores. Both of the young people are popular in society.—Oregonian.

TACOMA HOSPITAL OPENED.

Tacoma, Wash., Aug. 18.—Containing every appliance that medical invention and structural architecture have evolved, the new Tacoma General hospital, completed at a cost of $225,000, will be formally opened August 25. In announcing the opening date, President Jackson made public plans for the erection of a nurses' home upon the site of the present hospital building, to cost about $20,000.

The new hospital replaces the former building of the Tacoma Children's Home and the old Tacoma General hospital, both old landmarks of frame construction.

HOW WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Cleveland, Ohio—"My left side pained me so for several years that I expected to have to undergo an operation, but the first bottle I took of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of the pains in my side and I continued its use until I became regular and free from pains. I had asked several doctors if there was anything I could take to help me and they said there was nothing that they knew of. I am thankful for such a good medicine and will always give it the highest praise."—Mrs. C. H. GRIFFITH, 1568 Constant St., Cleveland, Ohio.

Hanover, Pa.—"I suffered from female trouble and the pains were so bad at times that I could not sit down. The doctor advised a severe operation but my husband got me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I experienced great relief in a short time. Now I feel like a new person and can do a hard day's work and not mind it. What joy and happiness it is to be well once more. I am always ready and willing to speak a good word for the Compound."—Mrs. ADA WILT, 303 Walnut St., Hanover, Pa.

If there are any complications you do not understand write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Vacationists Will Remain Two Weeks Longer Than Usual---Fishing Is Good

(By Lamar Tooze.)

Newport, Ore., Aug. 18, 1916.—Newport is still the mecca for hundreds of vacationists. Should the present rate of traffic continue during the week, this resort will see one of the largest beach populations in its history.

Judging by present indications, the season will continue at least two weeks later than usual. Formerly, September 1 has seen the close of the summer traffic to Newport; this year it will last well into September. September is considered by Newporters as being the most ideal month here. The days are balmy and are more like early spring than autumn. September is also the best month for fishing, salmon and halibut being more abundant during that month.

The weather is still a big feature. The fine days have been productive, too, of much activity on the part of beach visitors. Surf-bathing has taken on more interest under the impetus of warm weather and almost daily hundreds of people take a dip into the ocean. The surf has been unusually high during the week and bathing has been made a more attractive diversion than before.

Social gaieties have not been forgotten in the events of the week. Last week Mrs. A. J. Van Wassenhove, of Portland, was the patroness for an ice cream social at Tent city, followed later by a ladies' choice dance at the Casino. The affair was a success in every way and will become an annual event of the season.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Booth, sons, Harrie and Edwin Booth, and Leo Devaney, of Roseburg, motored to Newport Saturday from the Douglas metropolis, making the 181 mile trip in 11 hours. The trip was made in a Cadillac and without mishap. Mr. Booth is a banker of the Southern Oregon city and is president of the Oregon state fair board. Harrie Booth is a student of the University of Oregon.

Wallace Canfield, of Oregon City, accompanied the Sunday excursion to Newport and passed a brief vacation here as a guest of the Nicolai. Mr. Canfield is connected with a bank at Oregon City and is a former student of the University of Oregon.

Mrs. Pearl Allen, of Amity, is included among the summer residents at Nye Beach.

Mrs. A. N. Bush and Miss Winifred Byrd, of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Bush's guests, Miss Alice Brown, of Westfield, Mass., and Dr. Eugene Fuller, of New York, arrived in Newport during the week and stopped at the Abbey.

The Misses Wilmouth Osburn and May Hanna, of Portland, who have been passing the summer at the beach, departed for their home during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Stolz, of Salem, are included among the Sunday registrations at the Abbey.

Mrs. T. E. Waldorf and daughter, Miss Emma Waldorf, of Salem, arrived in Newport during the week and are located in a tent house at Tent City for a week's sojourn.

The Misses Emma Greene and Dorothy Shenk, of Salem, are established in a tent at Tent City, and will remain at the beach for a week.

Captain and Mrs. H. VanAuken and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas VanAuken, of Portland, are in Newport and are staying at the McDonald. Captain VanAuken is master of a Willamette river boat and Thomas VanAuken is connected with the Portland postoffice.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Coad, of Dallas, are passing a vacation in their cottage on the hill near the postoffice.

Herman J. Abraham, star fullback of the Oregon Agricultural college football eleven, is registered at the McDonald from Albany. Mr. Abraham will enter the college in September.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Griffith, of Pawnee City, Mich., and their son, George Griffith, of Jefferson, are located in the Sea Hut for a two weeks' vacation.

Harry Simons, of Salem, is listed among the week's registrations at the McAlister.

John Taylor, of Salem, joined the Marion county contingent at the beach during the week.

R. P. Kirby arrived in Newport Saturday from Salem and is staying at the Saunders.

E. S. Schratt, of Salem, reached this resort the latter part of last week and was a guest of the Abbey.

Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Clay, of Salem, are among the numerous Cherry city visitors in Newport.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Martley, of Salem, are listed among the recent arrivals at the Kelly, Nye Beach.

G. H. Crosan, of Salem, is among the many Marion county people who are enjoying the many attractions of Newport.

Four hundred and seventy people from Willamette valley points accompanied the excursion to Newport Sunday and passed five hours at the seaside. A liberal representation of Salemites was seen among the excursionists.

Mrs. Boyd J. Bridges and daugater, of Oakland, are located in a cottage at Cherry City. They are accompanied by Miss Marie Martin, of Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Welch, daughters, Hester, Willetta and Pauline; Harry Iselman and William McGilchrist, formed a party of Salem people who motored to Newport during the week. Good roads from the valley were reported.

R. S. Cooper, of Salem, was an incoming passenger from the valley Thursday. He is registered at the Abbey.

J. C. Hayter, of Dallas, was a recent registration at the Abbey. Mr. Hayter was for a number of years editor of the Polk County Observer.

Carlton E. Spencer left Saturday for his home in Portland, after passing three days at this resort as a guest of the Abbey. Mr. Spencer is secretary of the University of Oregon Law school in Portland.

Miss Marjorie Kay, of Salem, arrived in Newport Friday night and is enjoying an outing at the Damon.

Charles K. Spaulding, of Salem, arrived on a Friday boat to join his family at the Spaulding cottage.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, of Salem, joined his family at Nye Beach Friday for a week-end visit.

P. H. Holmes, of Salem, is passing his summer outing at the McAlister.

Mrs. S. G. Hinkle, of Salem, is sojourning at The Saunders.

A. Eoff and family, of Salem, arrived at the Nicolai Thursday for a few days' visit.

A. G. Monroe, of Salem, arrived at Newport Saturday for a short visit.

Miss Bernice Craig, of Salem, was an arrival at the Hotel Kelly Saturday.

P. A. Baker and daughter and their guest, Miss Humphreys, of Salem, are occupying one of the Savage cottages at Cherry City.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Shepherd and Mr. and Mrs. William Belcher, of Portland, motored to Newport Saturday over the new Falls City-Newport highway to visit the William T. Griers, of Falls City, at the Grier summer cottage.

Mrs. P. H. Johnson and her daughter and son, of Monmouth, are passing a fortnight in one of the Rest cottages.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dick, of Salem, came in a few days ago in their automobile and are occupying one of the cottages at the Whitten Camp Grounds at Nye Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Fenton and son, Carl, of Dallas, after ten days at their summer home at Nye Beach, left Saturday for their home in the Polk city.

Donald Randall, who passed several weeks with his parents at the Randall cottage at Nye Beach, left the latter part of the week for his home in Salem.

Percy Dearle, of Seattle, passed a few days of the present week at this resort. Mr. Dearle is manager of the co-operative store of the University of Washington, and just recently returned from a tour of 26 colleges of the United States, which he visited to gather ideas on the co-operative associations maintained in those institutions.

Charles E. Ramp and Miss Cora Ramp, of Salem, are domiciled in one of the Whitten cottages. They arrived a few days ago by auto.

Professor John B. Horner and family, who have been domiciled at the "Empson," the summer cottage of the Kohlhagens, of Roseburg, for several weeks, left the first of the week for their home in Corvallis.

J. F. Yoakum and family, of Dallas, after passing several days in one of the Rest cottages at Nye Beach, left for their home in the Polk city Saturday morning. Mr. Yoakum is prominently identified with business interests of Dallas.

George Cherrington, of Salem, is sojourning at Nye Beach as a guest of the McAlister.

E. A. Rhoten, of Salem, arrived Saturday to pass a few days with his family at the new Rhoten cottage near the Tent City.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Ireland, of Junction City, joined the Lane county contingent at the beach last Thursday, registering at the Abbey.

George F. Rodgers, of Salem, accompanied by Mrs. Rodgers and daughter, Margaret, arrived in Newport on the Saturday noon boat and are sojourning at the Damon.

Miss Ruby Greenwood, of Dallas, arrived a few days ago and is spending an outing as a guest of the Saunders.

Mrs. O. C. Caswell, wife of a prominent merchant of Eugene, and family are housed at Sea Crest.

Fred Veal, of Albany, joined his family at the Veal cottage on the Arcadian board walk Saturday.

Ray Boydston, of Dallas, is passing a vacation at Nye Beach as a guest of the Saunders.
