King George's Uncle Sails, Port and Date Kept Secret

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF CONNAUGHT AND (in center) PRINCESS PATRICIA

The Duke of Connaught, retiring governor general of Canada, with the Duchess of Connaught and Princess Patricia left Ottawa to return to England. Due to war conditions their port of departure and the date of their sailing were withheld.

The Duke of Connaught became governor general in October, 1911, and has been one of the most popular of Canadian viceroys. He is a son of Queen Victoria, brother of Edward VII, and uncle of the present British king, George V. Most of his life has been passed in the British army service. A few years ago the duke and duchess and Princess Patricia visited the United States. The new governor general of Canada is the Duke of Devonshire.

Kindness Fails to Move Corporation

The following letter from W. M. Hamilton, chairman of the depot committee of the Commercial club to Joseph H. Albert, president will be of interest to those who are becoming rather pessimistic as to the intentions of the Southern Pacific in regard to that long looked for new passenger depot at Salem:

Oct. 27, 1916.

Mr. Joseph H. Albert,
President, Salem Com'l Club,
Salem, Oregon.

Dear Sir: I wish to report that in response to a recent communication which I addressed to Mr. J. H. Dyer, assistant general manager of the S. P. Co., asking for information relative to the new depot, that I am in receipt of a reply to the effect that on inquiry, his principals informed him that some rearrangements were made in the plans and specifications after he had submitted the same to them, and that this has delayed the matter on account of the necessity of getting the O. K. of those concerned, to the alterations proposed in the waiting room, ticket office arrangement, etc.

He further assures me that the matter is not being neglected, but is decidedly on the active list of undertakings, and states that he hopes to soon be able to give us information as to the final approval of plans and authorization to commence construction.

Respectfully,
(Signed) W. M. Hamilton,
Chairman, Depot Committee

President Gets Ovation From Great Crowds

Williamstown, Mass., Nov. 10.—President Wilson's trip through New York today was replete with the thrills of a victory. At every point crowds hailed the train as it passed through. Railroad employes in the yards at Rensselaer and Troy rushed from their work to shout congratulations.

Engineers all but literally tied their steam whistles and factory whistles added to the shrieking din. Huge litho pictures of the president were tied to dozens of locomotive headlights.

Dr. Grayson, the president's physician, couldn't stand the strain and went back to Washington to nurse a cold. This made today the first the president has traveled since his inauguration without a physician.

Two Football Games In Salem Tomorrow

By an agreement entered into by the local managers, the two games that are scheduled to be played next Saturday will be pulled off on the same field. Both of the visiting teams are planning to bring excursions with not less than 200 students each.
