STATE NORMAL SCHOOL GETS LARGE AMOUNT

Monmouth Commrcial Club Elcted New Officers Tuesday Night

(Capital Journal Special Service.)

Monmouth, Or., Feb. 20.—Citizens of Monmouth and vicinity are very much pleased at the attitude taken by the legislature toward the Oregon Normal school, and to know that the appropriation has been adequate to meet the present needs. It has long been evident to all who are familiar with conditions in the institution that the money was badly needed. Twenty-five thousand dollars will be used to enlarge the chapel as there is not room now to seat the students. The remaining six thousand of the thirty-one thousand appropriation will be used to carry out the extention work at Independence and Mountain View for the next two years. With the extra members to the faculty and several more critic teachers also An addition to the dormitory was talked of for a time, but many Monmouth people were opposed to this, feeling that it would not be just to them and so were grateful to the Ways and Means committee that they did not recommend the full appropriation asked for.

Lincoln's birthday was very appropriately observed by both the Normal and the Training schools. Mr. C. E. Cline, a G. A. R. veteran of Portland, delivered the address at the Normal, telling anecdotes and personal reminiscences of the greatest and most beloved of our presidents and especially dwelling on his humanitarian attributes. Several of the most popular of our patriotic songs were sung with much enthusiasm and the flag salute was impressive.

There were about forty Polk county teachers who attended the institute last Saturday at the Normal. The regular routine of school work was carried out by the critic teachers by way of demonstration for the benefit of the visitors. Miss Taylor, the physical training teacher gave a very interesting and helpful talk on "The use of [illegible] as an Accompaniment for Rythmic Activities," and illustrated by the following exercises which were worked out to music of the fine new school victrola: "A Flag Exercise," by the First and second grades; "Blacksmith Drill," third and fourth grade boys; "Virginia Reel," fifth and sixth grades; "Colonial Minuet," fifth and sixth grades; "Highland Fling," seventh and eighth grade girls; "Flag Drill," eighth grade boys. This was the closing feature of Saturday's program and was much appreciated.

Ida M. Tarbell, noted writer and lecturer is scheduled to speak in Monmouth at the Normal school on Friday, March 2d.

Mr. J. A. Andrus had the misfortune to fall from a wagon from which he was unloading manure Wednesday and in doing so he somehow became entangled in the wagon wheel with the result that one of his ankle bones was badly cracked. The injury is very painful and Mr. Andrus will be laid up for some time.

The local high school basketball team met the Newport high school team in a game here Thursday night. The score was 19 to 24 in favor of the visitors.

Mr. P. O. Powell, secretary and manager of the Monmouth co-operative creamery was in Portland, Wednesday and Thursday attending a meeting of the Dairy Exchange.

Ed Rodgers evidently believes there is money in pork; he expects to build a large bunch of porkers. He has a [illegible] and is milking about twenty-five cows.

Mrs. Clara Essen of Forest Grove, state superintendent of Sunday school work for the Christian church, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Clark of Cincinnatti, will hold a convention at the Christian church Tuesday afternoon. A cordial invitation is extended to all who are interested in Sunday school work.

Mrs. Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Howell left for Portland, Tuesday with her little son, where they will spend a week, then start east, via Omaha, to join Mr. Nichols in New York City where they will make their future home.

The Monmouth Mercantile company store, formerly owned by E. W. Strong, was bought out last week by two different parties. The grocery division being purchased by the Miller Mercantile company whose own grocery department joins them on the east. The two stores will now be one with a complete stock of goods. The dry goods department was bought by a Portland firm with Mr. Bloom as manager who is now conducting a sale which reminds one of a city "closing out," with its rush of bargain hunters.

At the meeting of the city council Tuesday night the question of septic tanks was discussed; the city surgeon was instructed to draw up plans for a standard in septic tank construction and the city attorney to draw up an ordinance to set this standard. The question between the Lumber company and the civic club as to whether the former shall continue to occupy the present site which belongs to the city, seems at last about to be compromised.

The regular annual meeting of the Commercial Club was held Tuesday evening in the club room; new officers elected for the ensuing year were as follows: President, A. B. Morlan; vice president, G. T. Boothby; secretary, E. B. Hamilton.

Gordon Bowman who has conducted the livery and transfer business for the last year sold out last Friday to Mr. Frank Skeen. Mr. Skeen has been in the harness business here for several years, but has sold this stock to Mr. D. L. Williams, who will handle it in connection with his shoe repairing business.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Edwards, Mrs. Bowman and family and Mrs. E. T. Evans were trading in Dallas Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Bowman have stored their household effects with Mr. Bowman's brother Harris Bowman, for a time. Mr. Bowman expects to go to Airlie to work in a logging camp and later on try his luck at farming again. Mrs. Bowman will visit with her husband's mother and at Harrison Bowman's while he is at work at Airlie.

Mrs. H. S. Partwood has been quite ill with asthma and heart trouble for several days.

The Athena and the Y. N. O. A. societies of the high school met in joint session on Friday night in the high school asembly room and enjoyed a joint program of the two societies.

Mr. M. M. Harvey of one mile north of Monmouth has sold about twenty-five hundred boxes of apples up to date, the price ranging from fifty cents to one dollar twenty-five, the average price being seventy-five cents. He sprays his trees five times a year and has a very small per cent of cull stock. Mr. Harvey has recently installed electric lights in his house and barns.

Harvey Siekafoose, who has been deputised to visit several of the nearby lodges of the I. O. O. F., went to Buna Vista Wednesday evening to meet with the brothers there. He was accompanied by Mr. Webber, Paul Tacheron, D. C. Walker and Howard Morlan. The party went by auto and report a pleasant time.

The Miller Mercantile Co. are buying potatoes this week to fill a carload order from a Portland firm. E. R. Ostrom and J. L. Van Loan were among growers who delivered potatoes to fill the order. The price paid here was $3.00 per hundred.

[illegible] lodge No. 177 met in regular session Thursday night with a very good attendance. Mrs. Ira Powell was initiated into the mysteries of the order. After initiation refreshments were served and a good social time was enjoyed by all.

University Notes

With plans all in readiness, every student is eagerly awaiting the approach not only of Washington's birthday, but Award Day as well. For Willamette will Thursday night honor the men who have fought for her during the past year. This not only includes the athletes but the forensic men as well.

The athletic "W" club has the management of the affair in charge, and have provided an elaborate evening program for the presentation exercises. To this not only are all the students and alumni of the institution invited, but high school students, friends, and townspeople as well. For all "W" men it is desired to make it a homecoming event.

Both the men's and ladies glee clubs and the male quartet will present several popular selections. The chief addresses of the evening will be by J. B. C. Oakes, '12, and Attorney A. F. Flegel of Portland, who will discuss "Some values in athletics." Grover Gates, president of the "W" club, will act as presiding officer. The awards will be presented by President Doney.

Those who will receive official recognition in football are: Arvid Peterson, Chester Womer, Harold Dimmick, Victor Taylor, Derrill Rexford, Earl Flegel, Warren Booth, Willis Bartlett and Harold Tobie. In basketball, Russel Brooks, Lloyd Shisler, Earl Flegel and Howard Jewett will be honored. Hilbert Tasto, Lemuel Esteb, Paul Brown, Lloyd Shisler, Paul Miller, Wallace Adams and Grover Gates are booked for the baseball awards In track Bert Ford, Frank Grosvenor, Frank Bagley and Lloyd Shisler will be officially recognized.

In addition to Howard Jewett, Earl Flegel and Paul Smith, the Misses Addie Tobie and Esther White will receive the tennis awards. In accordance with a recent student body amendment, Earl Flegel and Grover Gates will be honored with the award of a "four year" blanket. Arlie Walker will receive the yell leader's sweater.

For participation in forensic contests Harold Eskin, Adolph Spiess, Harry Savage, Walter Gleiser and the Misses Ada Ross and Edna Billings will receive the debate award; while Frank Jasper and Herbert Blatchford, the orators will be honored.

At a recent meeting of the student volunteer band, Miss Ruth Winters was chosen leader; Foster Priddy, vice leader; and Murray Keefer, secretary-treasurer. For the last six years this organization has paid the salary of a native Korean preacher, Mr. Pak, who is devoting all his time to Christian work among his own people.

With the distinction of being the first class to select their words and music, the senior class held their first freshman glee song rehearsal last night at the home of Miss Carrie Cooksey on Court street.

Wesley Hammond was the author of the words and Mrs. Aurelia E. Cassalman, a music student, composed the music. In as much as this class has won two firsts and a second with its other glee songs, it has an enviable record to maintain.

Franklin Bell, commander of the western department of the army. All troops at the posts around San Francisco bay will participate in the military ceremonies which precede interment. The date for the funeral and the details of arrangements have not been decided upon.

General Bell announced that General Funston's body, in charge of one of his staff officers, would arrive here Friday morning. Interment will be at the side of Funston's little son, Arthur McArthur Funston, who died some years ago.

Mrs. Funston was prostrated today at her home at Presidio. She came to San Francisco a month ago in order that her children might attend school. Her daughter is sick in the Letterman General hospital.

Mrs. Funston was given a dinner at her home last night in honor of her sister, Mrs. William Cullen when the news of the general's death came.

FUNSTON IS DEAD

Funston's Army Record.

General Funston became a member of the United States army after a career in the Cuban army during the war with Spain. He had previously been a newspaper reporter, combining this experience with being an officer of the law, during which time he single manded arrested a 200 pound bad man.

He quit the Cuban army when 50 guerillas were lined up against a wall and shot against his advice. He was captured on his way from the front and saved his life by swallowing a letter which would have betrayed his identity.

He became a brigadier general after his capture of the Filipino chieftain, Aguinaldo, and remained at that rank until elevated by President Wilson.

His Last Official Act.

San Antonio, Texas, Feb. 20.—Practically the last official act of General Funston was the designation of dates for departure of militia contingents under the recent order of the war department, which will send home the 50,000 national guardsmen remaining on the border.

The guardsmen, in two groups of 25,000 each, will leave the border at the rate of about 6,000 a week. It is estimated that about 150 trains will be required to move these troops and that two months will be consumed in the movement.

To Fort D. A. Russell, Wyoming — Batteries C and D, field artillery, February 26; two battalions Wyoming field artillery, February 26.

The Texas, Arizona and New Mexico troops will be the last to leave, though they have been in the service the longest.

Burial at Presidio.

San Francisco, Feb. 20—The body of Major General Frederick Funston will be buried in the national cemetery at the Presidio here, according to announcement today by Major General J. Franklin Bell, commander of the western department of the army. All troops at the posts around San Francisco bay will participate in the military ceremonies which precede interment. The date for the funeral and the details of arrangements have not been decided upon.

General Bell announced that General Funston's body, in charge of one of his staff officers, would arrive here Friday morning. Interment will be at the side of Funston's little son, Arthur McArthur Funston, who died some years ago.

Mrs. Funston was prostrated today at her home at Presidio. She came to San Francisco a month ago in order that her children might attend school. Her daughter is sick in the Letterman General hospital.

Mrs. Funston was given a dinner at her home last night in honor of her sister, Mrs. William Cullen when the news of the general's death came.

THE MARKETS

The following prices for fruits and vegetables are those asked by the wholesaler of the retailer, and not what is paid to the producer. All other prices are those paid the producer. Corrections are made daily.

Owing to the fact that Florida's early crops have been frozen out, a great demand has been created there for California fruits and vegetables which makes prices higher in Oregon. Cabbage is of poor quality, with no shipments. The price is out of sight. All other vegetables are taking a skyward shoot this week.
