He was the owner of considerable property in Salem. This included his home at Church and Chemeketa streets, business property on Commercial street now occupied by the Velie garage and part owner of the building occupied by the Salem Woolen Mills company. He also owned the Klinger block on State street.

State House Notes

That the "single tax" idea is neither dead nor sleeping in Oregon is made evident by the filing of an initiative petition for a constitutional amendment by the Oregon Single Tax League. This document, signed by H. A. Rice, president, and Mrs. C. M. Mock, secretary, was presented by Deputy Secretary Kozer yesterday, and in due time will go to the attorney general for ballot title. This bill, which proposes to amend section 1, article 9, of the state constitution, reads as follows: "From July 1, 1921, to and until July 1, 1929, all revenues necessary for the maintenance of state, county, municipal and district government shall be raised by a tax on the value of land irrespective of improvements in or on it; and thereafter the full rental value of land, irrespective of improvements, shall be taken in lieu of all other taxes for the maintenance of government, and for such other purposes as the people may direct. The intent of this amendment is to forever prevent the exploitation of the individual through the monopoly of natural or community made values and opportunities." An accompanying statement gives the purpose as "establishing the principal of the single tax; restoring to the people of Oregon the lands and natural resources of the state on equal terms; encouraging the development of agriculture, the establishment of manufacturing industries, and the building of homes; abolishing involuntary poverty and creating prosperity for all engaged in useful industry or calings."

Herman L. Douglas, retired California redwood lumberman, died at Aberdeen Wednesday, after an illness of less than 24 hours.

YOU CAN'T BRUSH OR WASH OUT DANDRUFF

The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

Do this tonight, and by morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop at once, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and never fails to do the work.

Work has started on an addition which will double the capacity of the Astoria Pulp & Paper company's plant on Young's bay.

A special election for territorial delegate will be called in Alaska to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles A. Sulzer last Saturday.
