MACADAM FOR BELMONT STREET,-WII-MACADAM FOR BELMONT STREET.—William Schmeer, a resident and propertyowner on Belmont street, contends that macadam pavement for Belmont street would be the right thing, and all that the property-owners can afford. He refers to the improvement of that street between East Tenth and Twentieth atreets.
For some time, Mr. Schmeer says, he has been trying to get Belmont improved with macadam, but each time he has filed a petition it has been rejected, although he insists that on the last petition onea petition it has been rejected, although he instats that on the last petition one-half of the property-owners asked for macadam and remonstrated against hard-surface, or bituittbic, as too expensive. Mr. Schmeer says he can not understand why it is, when the property-owners ask for a certain kind of pavement and sign a petition for it, their ment and sign a petition for it, their ment and sign a petition for it, their wishes should be ignored and another and more expensive improvement substituted. He says he has been fighting the expensive pavement for the reason that many of his neighbors have asked him to do so, as they say it will conduct the so, as they say it will confiscate their homes to tax them for hard-surface pave-To High School Pupils,-On account f the labor involved in the exchange and supply of the new school books and to relieve the congestion at the book stores, the Board of School Directors has made arrangements by which all High School pupils may make their purchases and ex-changes at the High School buildings next Monday. This relates to High School pupils only, both East and West Side. The retail and exchange prices are shown in another column in this paper, and it will save much time if pupils bring with them the exact amount of money needed for their pupils. for their purchases and exchanges. No books will be delivered. No telephone calls for school books will be answered. HONOLULU REQUESTS AID.—The Secretary of the Honolulu Chamber of Comtary of the Henolulu Chamber of Commerce has written to the Portland Chamber enclosing a copy of a resolution which was adopted by the Chamber of that city regarding the need of improvements at Pearl Harbor, the naval station near Honolulu. Attention is called to the importance of that point in the naval and commercial affairs of this country and the local Chamber is requested to add its indorsement to the resolution which is later to be sent to Washington. The matter will be taken up immediately by the Portland Chamber.

PATROLMAN PARKER LOSES STAR .- H. E. Parker, a patrolman in the Police De-partment, was yesterday dismissed from service by the Executive Board for absenting himself from duty without excuse. Only one unexcused absence was charged against the officer and he would have been given only a small fine, had he not by his testimony, shown that he had been absent and tardy on many other occasions. The Board dismissed the charges pending against Patrolman Galbraith, as the complainant in the case failed to appear against him.

THE NEW SCHOOL BOOKS.—In another column we publish a complete list of school books adopted for general use in Oregon. The list shows the retail and exchange prices. A pupil wishing to exchange a Cyr's Third Reader for a Wheeler's Third Reader pays 20 cents in cash, and so on through the list. The old books taken in exchange must be in such condition that they could be used again. Exchange must be for books of the same grade. Readers for readers, arithmetics for arithmetics, etc. Careful study of for arithmetics, etc. Careful study of the list will avoid delays at the book stores next Monday.

INJURIES MAY BE SERIOUS.-Mrs. Barney fetzar, wife of the Washington-street eweler, who was injured in the wreck on the Oregon Water Power Company's line near Anabel station on Monday morn-ing, was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital on Thursday and is now under the care of Dr. Ricen. D. C. FREEMAN REVIEWS SITUA-TION IN NORTHWEST.

Resorts in All Cities Pay Well, but None Come Up to Portland Standard.

D. C. Freeman, manager of The Oaks, has returned from a trip to the Puget Sound cities, where he spent several days in looking into outdoor amusement enter-prises, several new amusement parks be-ing now under construction or projected for next year all the way north from Portland to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

"Despite untoward weather condition for outdoor smusements of all kinds and labor troubles, the amusement parks of Seattle have been doing well, he said. "Seattle has had more rain and colder devices, chutes; etc., besides thousands for an elaborate scheme of electrical il-lumination of the grounds, together with the free attractions which the public demand, recreations which the public de-mand, recreation parks are growing in popularity all the time.

"Within another year or two there will be a complete chain of parks in the Coast states, and by cooperation these parks will be enabled to go into New York and command the best of outdoor

York and command the best of outdoor attractions upon guarantees of 20 weeks or more in this country.

"It will be years before the other Northwestern parks will attain the standard reached by The Oaks, and what will pass muster for recreation grounds elsewhere would not do business a week in Portland. Mr. Gregg, manager of the fa-mous Luna Park. Pittsburg, has seen every park in the country, and be de-clares The Oaks is the most brilliantly lliuminated park in America.

"Seattle is just now the most peculiar-ly governed municipality on Lewis and Clark's map. All the Japanese 'roleypoley' chance games, cane tacks, ring throwing games, draw games, fortune throwing games, draw games, fortune-wheels, or present giving, also fortune-telling and palmistry pastimes have been closed up in the parks. No kind of street vending that in the least resembles a game is allowed, and only a special dis-pensation of the Mayor permits a shoot-ing gallery to operate in West Seattle on Sundays.

"In the meantime, however, there is a funny bunch of ponles running at the

In the meantime, however, there is a funny bunch of ponles running at the Meadows, and notwithstanding the flood of loose change that the races circulate, every citizen of Seattle declares it is 'awful.' Jury Convicts Him of Embezzlement From Lumber Company.

Malcolm MacCauley, charged by the Oregon & Washington Lumber Company, by which he was formerly employed as secretary and bookkeeper, with embez-zling $3000, was convicted of wrongfully taking $3000 of this amount by a jury in Judge Gantenbein's department of the Circuit Court yesterday afternoon. The Jury was out 20 minutes. MacCauley did not deny that he took the money, but charged President W. A. Dempsey, president of the company, with repudiating an agreement made with him, when the company started in business to give him.

an agreement made with him, when the company started in business, to give him $5000 in stock for his services.

MacCauley endeavored to show the jury that it was through a spirit of revenge that Dempsey had turned against him when he went to work for another lumber company, which offered him more money. MacCauley asserted that the Oregon & Washington Company earned $202,000 in the last year he was with it, its profits being $40,000, including that from the increase in real estate values. He said that he figured that his portion of this amount was 2004, and that he of this amount was $2954, and that he therefore took the money from the bank account of the company and credited himself with it as payment on the stock.

SUES TO CANCEL PATENTS

Government Attacks Title to Seven Quarter-Sections.

Suits to cancel patents that were fraudulently obtained to seven quarter-sections of land in the Cascade Forest Reserve were filed for the Government in the United States Circuit Court by Assistant United States Attorney Cole yesterday. Though the tracts involved in these suits are located in the same district in which the Puter-McKinley conspiracy cases originated, they are said to be in no manner connected with those frauds. These are the first of a large number of similar suits that will be filed in behalf of the Government. The defendants named in the cases filed resterday are: Edward Reese and W. E. Stearns; John Reese; Don Carlos Smith, J. J. Collins, and Edmund Dorgan; Sebastian C. Dilley; William Burns, J. J. Collins and Edmund Dorgan; Mary E.
