GEORGE H. WILLIAMS ILL

VENERABLE STATESMAN SUF-FERS ATTACK OF GRIP.

Attends Football Game, but Is Seized With Siekness and Obliged to Leave.

Hon George H. Williams is reported to be suffering with an attack of grip, but inquiry at his residence late last night gave the reassuring information that the venerable statesman was considered to be in no alarming condition. He attend-ed the football game vesterday afternoon at Multnomah field, but was compelled to return to his home on account of not feeling well. On account of Judge Williams' advanced age, the report of his illness occasioned great concern among liness occasioned great concern among his friends and acquaintances, and that means everybody who knows anything about the history of Oregon. Dr. K. A. J. MacKenzie was called in to see the distinguished patient last night.

M. A. MEYENDORFF IS ILL

Prominent Government Official's Condition Is Regarded as Serious.

Michael A. Meyendorff, well known in this city, is seriosly ill at the private sanatorium, 419 North Twenty-first street. He is suffering from Bright's disease, and is 58 years of age. Mr. Meyendorff has long been in the Government employ as a special agent of the Interior Department. His career has been brilliant and successful. He enjoyed the personal successful. He enjoyed the personal friendship of Lincoln and of scores of other prominent public men of the past Meyendorff by birth is a Pollsh. When only 13 years old he was exiled to Siberia on account of political troubles. Lincoin secured his pardon and permission for him to come to America. His connection with the Interior Department has been a long and honorable one and he has figured conspicuously in the Government investigations of land-frauds.

DISCUSSES STEEL'S BOND Governor's Investigation of Sureties Is Still in Progress.

"I am still carefully investigating the am still carefully investigating the sufficiency of the sureties furnished by State Treasurer Steel for his new bond in the sum of $600,000," said Governor Chamberlain yesterday. "In the main, I find that the bond is satisfactory, but some of the bondsmen are not satisfactory. factory, as I have already intimated, and I shall ask that they be replaced, simuld the aggregate signed for by the approved sureties fall below the amount of the bond. WEATHER CONDITIONS.

The North Pacific disturbance is still central at sea, probably to the west of Vancouver Island. The pressure is increasing ever the Rocky Mountain States and a large high area is central near Pocatello. Idaho. During the last 12 hours light rain has fallen in the Willamette Valley and the Sound country, while elsewhere on the Pacific Coast no rain or snow of consequence has occurred. It is much warmer in Southern Oregon, Southeastern Washington and Montana.

The indications are for rain Thursday in Western Oregon and Western Washington and occasional light rain will also occur at scattered places in Eastern Oregon, Eastern
