BOY IS SHOT IN PLAY

John Douglas, a 13-year-old boy living at 77 Johnson street, was shot yesterday afternoon by another boy in play. The bullet passed through the great toe of his left foot, causing a nasty wound. He was taken to his home, Douglas, in company with a number of boys, met Leo Jacobs, 17 years old, who lives at 128 North Fifteenth street. Jacobs had a revolver, and, finding that Douglas had some cartridges, loaded the revolver and began to make fun of the other boys. He deliberately fired at Douglas's feet. He said afterwards that he did not think the cartridges were loaded, and only wanted to scare the boy. No arrest was made.
If Baby is Cutting Teeth
Be sure and use that old well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, kills pain, colic and diarrhoea.
