ACTRESS' PITIFUL PLIGHT

LEFT SICK AND DESTITUTE BY WEALTHY HUSBAND.

Spokane Churches Renders Only Aid--Woman Says She Cleared Husband of Murder Charge.

SPOKANE, Wash., Feb. 28.--(Special.)--Lying on a sickbed in a Howard-street lodging-house, a penniless invalid, is Mrs. Bert Webster, an actress known professionally as Frankie Hall, and in contrast to the woman's plight, according to her statement, is the luxurious life of her husband in San Francisco, who, she says, is the idolized son of a wealthy woman and the favorite nephew of a rich aunt.

to relieve suffering caused performers when the variety theaters were put out of business in Spokane, clergymen having given their word that no deserving case should go unnoticed. Her illness made it impossible for her to obtain employment. Dr. Henry Rasmus, of the First Methodist Church, heard of her plight, called on her and left $25, while the proprietor of a variety theater, who claimed he had been aiding the woman, failed to make good. Mrs. Webster says her husband shot Billy Wolf at Robert, Okla., four years ago, as a result of business jealousy, and she successfully fought to clear him. Her husband is kind and good, she declares, but only the great love of the mother for her boy keeps them apart. Mrs. Webster says the husband is living with his mother and an aunt at the Dennington Hotel, owned by Madame Webster, at 931 Valencia street, San Francisco.
