BEE'S GENTLE BUZZ

Congressman Cushman Hears It Loudly.

WANTS TO GO TO SENATE

Considers That Ten Years' Service in House Qualifies Eim to Aspire Higher-Would Succeed Piles, but Tries to Keep It Quiet.

OREGONIAN NEWS BUREAU, Washngton, March 23.-Representative Frank Cushman will not admit that he has Senatorial aspirations; in fact, when he is abruptly questioned he flatly denies. that he aspires to higher honors. But the fact remains that way down deep in his heart the humorous Congressman has longing for a seat at the other end of the big Capitol building, and he will make a grab for it later on if he believes he stands any chance of landing. He rebe gained by declaring his candidacy; be yould only invite the apposition of Senstor Piles, whom he would like to suc cred, and a two-year fight is unprofitable to say the least.

Advantages of Being Senator.

There is no good and sufficient reason why Cushman should not look with longing eyes toward the Senate. He has been here now nearly 19 years, and in that time he has learned the vast guiff that exists between the Senate and the House. On the House side there is toll and trouble; endless work, upbill work at that, and a comparatively scant reward. Moreover, a House member is barely scated before it is time for him to go into the campaign again, if he desires re-election. The Senator, on the other hand, has a comparatively easy job, and coupled with it he has greater hanor and greater influence. There is no difference between Senate and House so far as salary is concerned, but very few men desire to go to the Senate for the salary; that is a minor consideration.

Cushman Keeps Desires Ouict.

Cushman Keeps Desires Quiet.

Cushman has never taken any of his colleagues into his confidence in the matter of his Senutorial aspirations. He has never so much as intimated to them that the Senutorial bee was buzzing in Nevertheless, the little bee is there, and occasionally the buzzing is to pronounced as to be heard by others than Cushman. In a moment of abstract-edness the Tacoma Congressman let drop remark which confirmed the auspicion nat he was looking Senateward, No doubt Mr. Cushman looks at the No doubt Mr. (ushman looks at the matter in this light; his present colleggue in the House, who entered Congress with him 10 years ago, is going to the Senate. If long service in the House is justification for sending a man to the Senate, then he, as the tanking House member from Washing-ton, would be in line for the next pro-motion, two years hence. Long service in the House is excellent training for a Senator, in that it has made him ac-quainted with the intricacles of legia-lation; has given him a wide acquaint-ance among public men, and has other-wise paved the way to the Upper House.

Thinks He Has It Coming.

ask for promotion to an office of com-parative case and comfort? The Sena-ter has not those minute worries that verwhelm the Congressman; it is not o difficult for him to secure action on is bills; it is with the Senator that the resident usually consults as to policies and as to appointments and to the Senaand as to appointments and to the Sena-tor goes the greatest share of the glory, If Mr. Cushman takes this view, his friends will not begrudge him the pro-motion he seeks—If he can find some way of sidetracking Senator Piles. The Senater has not yet made known his inten-rieus, but it is very rare for a Senator to retire at the end of one term, and it is reasonable to expect that Mr. Piles will be a candidate to succeed himself

TAILORS OUT ON STRIKE

Demand Wage Increase and Tie Up Union Shops.

Denied as increase in wages that would amount to about $2.50 on each suit, 150 tailors employed in it union shops in Portland declared a strike and walked out at noon yesterday. The tie-up of all union sheps is complete, and the men delare they will not return to work until their demands have been granted. Un-der the existing achedule tailors have been earning about $5 a week. While the strike continues the men say they will receive $6 a week from the National organization with which they are affiliated

"We have been paying the same scale of wages that were paid last Spring and Summer," said J. B. Coffey, secretary of the Master Tailors' Association, last night, "and we cannot afford to grant the solvence that has been asked. The scale in Portland is equally as high as that in other Pacific Coast cities, and with business conditions as they are we cannot concede more to the journeymen. As it is, we have for some time been making suits on a close margin. Per us to add another $2.56 to the cost of manufacturing each suit, we would have to increase the price of our goods that much, which would prove diaastrous to our business. It would result in driving our customers to Master Tailors' Association. would result in driving our customers to

DERIDES THE SINGLE TAX

Shows That a Bull Calf Can Increase in Value, Like Land.

PORTLAND, March 22 - iTo the Editor.;

-I wish to commend the good work The Oregonian is doing in showing up the falsacles of the single-taxers. When they say that land is the only thing that increases in value without the help of man. The Oregonian's lituatration of the calf is a complete answer to them.

I am one of 14 heirs to an estate of my unche, which was all produced by the uncarned increment of a buil calf. When my much was a Byest-old boy, he worked two months for a farmer and took a nice little buil calf for his pay, and brought it to his father's home, where he gut the use of a years he was abject to place his calf in pasture. When he went to school at the end of increment to him, and at the end of three years he was able to buy the vacant block referred to.

When my uncle was 15 years old his built to be force and was alled to be sent to be sent to act of the calf.

When my uncle was 15 years old his built hroke its fence and was killed by a rail road train, but my uncle still had the block which his built had earned. Three years later be sold half of his block and built three houses, which he ranted for $20 per month from his built calf. Twenty years later he sold one half of his half-block and built a six-story building, which was known as the "Built Calf Duilding," which was worth at his death $700,000 and all produced from the unearned income of the little bell calf.

I wander if the hair-brained single-taxers will see the point that other things can increase in value besides land? I am for equal taxation.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS.

up lame in the morning? Do you feel dull and tired Does it hurt you to bend over, to lift anything, to get up from a chair Do you have sudden "catches," or stitches of pain in the back? Does a dull, throbbing ache settle in the small of your back and bother you day and night? Do you sometimes feel that you simply cannot straighten up?

If you do have backache, be careful not to make the very common mistake of treating it as a muscular trouble. Do not rub the sore place with liniment, nor put on plasters, for the seat of the troubles is inside-in the kidneys, which lie just beneath the small of the back, on either aide of the spine. A cold. a chill. a fever, overwork. overeating or overdrinking may start a slight congestion or inflammation in the kidneys that will at once interrupt the kidneys' work of filtering the blood. It is this condition that sets up the aching, and makes your back te there is any doubt in your mind that the kidneys are affected, notice the urine for a few days. If passages are irregular, painful or too scanty, discolored, or full of sediment, the kidneys need help right away, and there is no other medicine more helpful than Doan's Kidney Pills, a simple remedy for the kidneys, yet so power ful that it quickly cures the cause and so ends all the painful and annoying symptoms. Home testimony proves the unfailing merit of Doan's Kidney Pills.

You cannot make any mistake by treating the kidneys at once, for it is these small troubless that lead to dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease.

PORTLAND TESTIMONY. Mrs. A. M. Hollabaugh, 328 Grant St. Portland, Oregon, says: "For two or three years my kidneys were disordered and caused me much annoyance. Unlike most people, I did not suffer a great deal from backache, being bothered principally by the action of the kidney secretions. They were also attended with pain during passage. Learning about Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply at the Laue-Davis Drug Co. I soon felt their beneficial effects and when I had finished taking the contents of one box, my condition was improved in every way. I have a very high opinion of Doan's Ridney Pills and cheerfully recommend them.
