receive no official confirmation and the general public rejects them as being far-fetched republican imaginations among the masses.

Major Dreyfus was not seriously injured. A bullet entered his forehead, but did not injure the bone. At a late hour tonight the official statement was made that his condition was very favorable and that no complications were feared.

With regard to the reasons for Gregor's act, the opinion prevails in Paris that there is much truth in his avowal that he was driven to the deed by the appeals to hatred with which the anti-Semitic papers have been filled since the government resolved to place the body of Zola in the Pantheon.

Rochefort's Vicious Words. "It would have been a glorious death for Dreyfus. It would have been his first and only time under fire."

Major Alfred Dreyfus, shot at Paris yesterday.

Major Alfred Dreyfus, shot at Paris yesterday. He is the ablest man elected by the general conference, and it had not been thought possible that the Northwest could be recognized as of such importance that it would be conceded an expedient to put the strongest man in that new field.

Though Dr. Smith is nearing three score and ten years, he is a man in vigorous health, of almost boundless faith and great vision. His wide experience in the ministry will be of immeasurable importance in his work of superintendency of the conferences of the Northwest.

Bishop Smith authorizes the statement that he expects to go to Portland with his family, make it his home, and give the cause in that region the fullest and most effective supervision of which he is capable.

He goes to Congenial Station. A multitude of people will regret the going of Bishop Moore and his excellent family from Portland to Cincinnati.

SIGNAL HONOR FOR GREAT NORTHWEST

Bishop Charles W. Smith, Assigned to This City, Leader in Methodism.

ABLEST OF THE NEW MEN

General Conference Recognizes Boundless Possibilities of Church Growth in This Section of Country—Editors Chosen.

BALTIMORE, May 29.—(Special Correspondence.)—Few friends of the Pacific Northwest dared hope that the general conference would signally honor that section of the country by assigning to it a bishop of such high rank as Bishop Charles W. Smith.

It is accepted that this bishop is by far the ablest man elected by the general conference, and it had not been thought possible that the Northwest could be recognized as of such importance that it would be conceded an expedient to put the strongest man in that new field.

Though Dr. Smith is nearing three score and ten years, he is a man in vigorous health, of almost boundless faith and great vision. His wide experience in the ministry will be of immeasurable importance in his work of superintendency of the conferences of the Northwest.

of his objections by Dr. Marvin. Dr. Robert Forbes and Dr. George Pacific that the district was formed with less than a dozen votes against it. So it is readily seen that the Northwest is receiving every consideration that can be given it by this conference.

Editors Are Elected. Just before adjournment for the noon recess the election of editors for the various publications of the church was reported. There was only one nominee for each of the papers, except in the case of the vacancy of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate, whose editor was Bishop Smith.

The counting of the ballots was announced as resulting in the election of all the editors who had charge of the periodicals of the church for the past four years, except in the case of the Pittsburg Christian Advocate, Rev. J. J. Wallace was selected to fill this vacancy. Daniel L. Rader was re-elected editor of the Pacific Christian Advocate, receiving 894 votes out of 704. This is a gratifying vote, especially in view of the fact that Mr. Rader was so severely disabled during more than a year during the last quadrennium.

CONGRESSMAN ACCUSED

SEVEN COUNTS OF FRAUD AGAINST J. F. LANING.

Connecticut Member Indicted With Others for Embezzlement From Broken Trust Company.

NORWALK, Ohio, June 4.—Congressman J. F. Laning, formerly vice-president and a director of the defunct Ohio Trust Company, was indicted today on seven counts charging embezzlement and was jointly indicted with James P. Gibbs, president of the closed bank, in two indictments in which obtaining money by false pretenses is alleged and another indictment charging misapplication of the funds of the bank.

F. W. Christian, secretary and treasurer of the bank, was twice indicted on the charge of perjury and making false reports to the State Examiners. William S. Perrin, a director, is thrice indicted on the charge of obtaining property under false pretenses. Two additional indictments accuse Gibbs of aiding and abetting Christian in the charge of perjury and making false reports.

Altogether, it is said, Laning and Gibbs abstracted and misapplied funds and credits of the bank to the extent of $56,864.

Laning recently was nominated for a second term in Congress.
